

WORLD EVENTS PRESENTED IN PICTURES

Sat., March 24, 1951—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore.

KIDS WILL BE KIDS—A cheering crowd of Korean children surround a Third division soldier in a Seoul street shortly after his platoon entered city. Reoccupation by U.N. troops marked fourth time the Republican capital has changed hands since war began June 25, 1950. (AP Wirephoto by radio from Tokyo)

"I am the light of the world. He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness but shall have the light of life."

—JOHN 8:12

In a world of chaos, war and the hardening of hearts against the teachings of the Master, there is hope in the beautiful story of the Resurrection. Posing for this scene illustrating the Easter theme are Phyllis Morris, of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Loren Cook, of Lansing, Mich., both students at the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago.

TO GIVE AWAY BABY—Cpl. and Mrs. Jack Knudsen want to give up their baby, Jack Jr., who is just 2 weeks old. Mrs. Knudsen, 30, explained they can't give him the things a baby should have. Knudsen, 31-year-old Army bandsman, said that "we just don't feel anything for him." The young couple live in a one-room apartment in San Francisco. (NEA Telephoto)

PUSHING THE REDS BEFORE THEM—Infantry troops of the 1st Cavalry pass a vehicle convoy as they move up a road about 18 miles south of the 38th parallel in the Honuchon area. United Nations forces, doggedly pushing the Reds back across the parallel, have established "holding positions" within 17 miles of the line at five points along the 140-mile front. SIDEWALK DRAMA—Blind Joe Farley (center) weeps as Betty, his seeing-eye dog, overcome by smoke in a Los Angeles apartment house fire, gets first aid from Lawrence McCarthy. Farley, also caught in the fire, groped his way through dense smoke to freedom. Betty was roused and joined her happy master. (AP Wirephoto)

EGYPTIAN WOMEN SHOUT FOR RIGHTS—Carrying slogans and shouting, these women demonstrate at the gates of King Farouk's Abdin palace in Cairo. They submitted a request to the King claiming political rights for Egyptian women. At present women do not have the right to vote and only men can be appointed to any civil post. (AP Wirephoto)

STOPPED COLD—The driver of this snow plow had to shovel his way out after his truck was stalled. Forty-mile winds and a snowfall of 18 to 24 inches stopped all traffic on Highway 6 east of Grinnell, Ia. (NEA Telephoto)

CONGRESSWOMEN SHOW DROP IN DOLLAR—Five Republican women members of the House of Representatives display these baskets of groceries in the House to point out loss of value of the dollar. They are (L to R): Representatives Marguerite S. Church (R-Ill.), Cecil M. Harden (R-Ind.), Frances P. Bolton (R-Ohio), Ruth Thompson (R-Mich.), Katherine St. George (R-N.Y.). (AP Wirephoto)

ACCUSED—Ramon Grau San Martin (above), former Cuban President, has been indicted for "principal responsibility" in what was alleged to be one of the greatest frauds in the history of Havana. San Martin has been accused of theft or misappropriation of 40 million dollars. (NEA Telephoto)

Opinions about diamonds...

The dictionary defines opinion as "a conclusion or judgment falling short of positive knowledge." When you buy a diamond you need more than an opinion. You need the positive knowledge of an expert who knows diamonds by long study and experience.

That's why we invite you to come in for a talk about diamonds before you buy. Our Certified Gemologists will be glad to help you with the information you need to buy wisely.

Illustrated—Brilliant diamond set in Orange Blossom engagement ring with four diamonds, $225. Matching wedding ring with seven diamonds, $125. Prices include federal tax.
