Ardyth Andrus Becomes Bride of Jack Denton

Ardyth Andrus, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Andrus, became the bride of Jack Denton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denton, at a beautifully solemn candle-light service at 8 o'clock in the evening March 24, at St. George's Episcopal church. Father Alfred S. Tyson performed the double-ring ceremony before the altar decorated with Easter lilies and tall candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in a dress of satin and lace. The close-fitting bodice and long sleeves of lace were accentuated by the long, full satin skirt and train of the dress. The fingertip veil was held by a beautifully designed tiara of lace and satin. She carried a cascading bouquet of stephanotis and pink carnations.

Miss Nancy Radabaugh, home for the occasion from the University of Oregon, acted as maid of honor for her friend, Mrs. Gary Piper and Mrs. Alan Miller, both of Roseburg, were bridesmaids. The three attendants were dressed identically in dresses of light green satin and net. They wore matching Juliet caps and capes and carried green satin muffs to which was fastened a corsage of pink carnations.

Bill Madson of Roseburg was best man. Gordon Singleton and Bob Feldeamp, both home from college for the Easter vacation, were ushers.

Proceeding the ceremony Miss Marilyn Dixon beautifully sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. Roy Herschlieb, who also played the traditional wedding music.

A reception, given by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Andrus, was held in the parish hall immediately following the ceremony.

A large, elaborately decorated cake graced the bride's table. The cake was three-tiered and decorated all in pink. Long tapers in silver candle holders were placed on each side of a floral arrangement in the center of the table.

Mrs. Robert Miller served the cake. Mrs. Bill Madson and Miss Jennie Howard served punch. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Dale Lander, Mrs. Pat Sullivan, Miss Marilyn Dixon and Mrs. John Mowery. Miss Irene Trapolis presided at the guest book. During the reception Mrs. Fred Stora played appropriate background music on the piano.

The young Mrs. Denton attended elementary school in Good Bay and was graduated from Roseburg senior high school in 1948. She was employed by the Southern Oregon Log Scaling bureau until her marriage. Mr. Denton was also graduated from Roseburg senior high school with the class of 1948. He has attended Southern Oregon college and is now enrolled at the University of Oregon in Eugene.

Following the reception the young couple traveled to Eugene, where they will make their home. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue suit with gold accessories. The couple will be at home to their friends at 3305 Highway 99 South, Eugene.
