Beets Have Place On Buffet Platter

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Pickled beets add a rosy glow to the luncheon or buffet platter. Served either hot or cold, they combine tastefully with cold slaw and deviled eggs.

A second easy recipe for changing canned beets into a gourmet dish is Canned Beets Triquant (with sour cream). In this recipe use either julienne style beets, finely chopped or whole or sliced beets.

Here's a cost-cutting main dish everyone in your family will enjoy.

Economy Casserole
(Serves 4 to 6)

One-half package noodles (6 oz.), 1 medium onion, sliced, 4 tablespoons diced green pepper, 2 tablespoons fat, 2½ cups tomatoes (No. 2 can), 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon ground cloves, ¼ teaspoon dry mustard, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, 1 bay leaf, 8 frankfurters.

Cook noodles in boiling salted water until tender. Brown onion and green pepper in fat. Cool. Add tomatoes, salt, cloves, mustard, brown sugar and bay leaf. Simmer for 10 minutes.

Arrange 1-3 of cooked noodles in a well-greased 1½-quart heat-resistant opal glass hostess casserole. Cover with three frankfurters; add a layer of noodles, 3 more frankfurters; another layer of noodles, 2 frankfurters on top. Remove bay leaf from tomato sauce and pour sauce over noodles and frankfurters. Cover and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 30 minutes.

Oxtail Soup With Cheese and Croutons
(Serves 6)

One pound oxtail joints, salt, pepper, flour, 2 tablespoons fat, 2 cups water, 3 allspice berries (whole), ½ cup diced carrots, ½ cup diced celery, 1 small onion, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 1

DOG GRIEF EXTENDED
COOS BAY — (AP) — The dogs will lose two more months of their freedom in Coos Bay this year. The city council decided that henceforth dogs must be confined at home in the April-August period. Previously dogs were barred from running free in April, May and June. Fines of $5 to $30 are provided for owners who allow dogs to run at large. For second-time offenders the fines range from $10 to $30.

Winston

By MRS. GEORGE BACHER

Senator and Mrs. Tom Parkinson, in Salem for the current session of legislature, spent the Easter weekend in Winston and Roseburg. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Newton, who are visiting here from Dallas City, Ill., left Wednesday for Portland to spend several days. Upon their return to Winston, they will resume their visit with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Newton, their son and daughter-in-law.

Mrs. Frank True was hostess Thursday afternoon when she entertained with an Easter egg hunt in honor of her daughter, Susie's, ninth birthday. Following the hunt, a large decorated birthday cake was cut in her honor, and served with ice cream to the 12 guests enjoying the affair.

New-comers to the community are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Day of Portland, who are occupying the Howard Lengele residence in Winston. Mrs. Day is Lengele's sister. After spending the winter

Here's Confidence

We have sold fine diamonds in Roseburg so long that many of our customers pick out their diamond from our window or our stock and ask only the price... no questions asked about quality or value.

Confidence like this doesn't just happen. It is a product of proof.

We like to discuss diamond quality with anyone, even if he doesn't want to buy one right then.

We like to take the time to explain the values that determine our prices.

Given your attention we can prove value and quality beyond any doubt. This confidence is a wonderful thing.
