

The wedding of Barbara Jean Taylor and Robert Eugene Smith March 10 in the First Baptist church in Coos Bay was a large event and is of much interest to many residents of Roseburg as the bride's mother is a former resident of this city.

Lighted tapers and large bouquets of lavender and white stock formed the altar setting. Rev. Cecil Brown performed the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dale Taylor of Coos Bay and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith of Portland.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown of satin made with a net yoke trimmed with seed pearls. The full skirt was made of tulle. A satin cap held her fingertip veil and she carried a white shawl bouquet centered with an orchid.

Miss Jacqueline Lamb of Minnville was maid of honor and wore a frock of orchid taffeta with a stole of matching net. She carried an arrangement of vanda orchids.

Bridesmaids were Donna Gunnell, Joyce Wright and Donna Knoll. They wore frocks shading from orchid to delicate pink. They wore matching stoles of net and carried flower arrangements similar to that of the maid of honor.

Little Connie Brown, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Cecil Brown, was flower girl and wore a gown of pink taffeta. Candle lighters were Miss Alice Smith and Miss Lois Frakes.

Mrs. Thomas Howard, sister of the bridegroom, from Marysville, Wash., was soloist and sang, "At Downing," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Charles Forrest was accompanist and also played the traditional wedding marches.

Jerry Smith, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Tom Huzar, Carl Wickham and Paul Halesor, Jimmie Taylor, nephew of the bride, and Jimmie Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brewer Mills were ring bearers.

Reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. K. H. Picken cut the cake and Mrs. Ivan Picken and Mrs. Brewer Mills presided at the serving table. Others assisting were Marion Koski, Marilyn Harlan, Mrs. Robert Richardson, Mrs. H. D. Yates and Mrs. Ernest Harrington. Mrs. John Nicoll of McMinnville registered the guests.

Following a wedding trip south, the newlyweds will reside in McMinnville, where both attended Linfield college. For traveling, the bride wore a gold suit with aqua coat and brown accessories and an orchid corsage.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith and Rodney and Jerry Smith of Portland; Mrs. Gertrude Howard, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howard, Marysville, Wash.; Pfc. Joseph M. Smith Jr., Camp Cook Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Travis, Jacqueline Lamb, Alice Smith, Tom Huzar, Carl Wickham, Marvin Flitcroft, Paul Halesor and Mrs. Nicoll, all of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lottis and son, Bill; Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Picken, Mrs. and Mrs. E. H. Bingenheimer, Mrs. Ruth Lovell, Mrs. Ethel Parr and E. D. Lindberg of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Picken and son, Jon; and Barney Donna of Roseburg; Donna Knoll and Donna Gunnell from University of Oregon, Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Haynes, Cottage Grove.

WILL BE BRIDE—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Deister of Winchester announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred, to Robert Lee Emery, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Emery, of Hot Springs, S.D. The bride-elect was graduated from Roseburg high school in 1947 and was employed in the Roseburg branch of the U.S. National bank a year prior to being transferred to the Eugene branch of the U.S. National bank, where she is still employed. Both Miss Deister and Mr. Emery are members of the senior class of Bible Standard Institute in Eugene. Mr. Emery is student copastor of the Crow Open Bible Standard church, Crow, Oregon. No date has been set for the wedding.

BETTY JO TOMLINSON BECOMES BRIDE OF LEO GLEN MARTENSEN

Betty Jo Tomlinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tomlinson, of Sutherlin, became the bride of Leo Glen Martensen of Roseburg, son of Mrs. Walter Crab of Myrtle Point, April 3, at the Baptist church in Reno, Nev.

The bride wore a grey suit with white accessories and a corsage of violets and rosebuds.

The bride attended school in Sutherlin. She was employed three years in the office of the Oregon Employment Service and just prior to her marriage, she was employed in the Forest Service office. The bridegroom was employed at the Outdoor store and is now employed in Camas Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Martensen will make their home in Camas Valley.

Local Sorority Members Attend State Convention

Local members of Omicron chapter returned Sunday from Corvallis where they attended the state convention of Delta Kappa Gamma, national honor society for women educators. The first session was opened Friday evening with the executive board dinner at the Beau Brummel Supper club. Following this was the business meeting of the board with Miss Melissa Martin, state president, presiding. Attending the Friday evening meeting from Roseburg were Daphne Riffe, second state vice-president, and Violet Wilshire, president of the local group. Other local members who attended the all-day Saturday meetings were Margaret Adair, Vera Fredrickson, Lucille Lewis, Ina Farnsworth, Alvia Wetherell, Luella Whitehead, Vera Carothers and Katherine Lockwood.

Following registration, Saturday's sessions included business meetings and an afternoon tea at the College Playhouse. A birthday luncheon was held at noon in the Memorial Union ballroom, at which Dr. M. Margaret Stroh of Austin, Texas, national executive secretary of Delta Kappa Gamma, was the speaker. The keynote of Dr. Stroh's address was an earnest appeal to women educators to be able to sense coming events and meet them by developing a general spiritual fellowship, which is the mark of a mature organization. Presiding at the luncheon was Miss Florence Beardley of Monmouth, with Mrs. Blanche McBee of Corvallis acting as toastmistress.

The afternoon was taken up with initiation for honorary and for state members; a beautiful memorial service for those members departed the past year, and election of officers at which Vice-president Daphne Riffe presided. The present state officers were unanimously elected to serve for another year. The Corvallis School of Dance Arts provided the entertainment for the afternoon with ballet numbers.

In the evening the President's banquet was held at the Corvallis Country Club with Melissa Martin presiding and Mrs. Lillian Van Loan of Corvallis as toastmistress. Dr. Eva Anderson, a member of the House of Representatives of the Washington State legislature, was the speaker of the evening. Honored guests at the banquet were Alpha Sigma State from Washington. A tribute was paid to past state presidents since Alpha Rho State of Delta Kappa Gamma was founded in Oregon in 1941, after which the nineteen chapter presidents were presented. The newly-elected state officers were installed in a short ceremony, by Dr. Stroh. Musical numbers were given on the dinner program by the Corvallis High School Harmonettes and by a string trio from the Oregon State College Department of Music.

The convention closed its sessions Saturday evening with awards presented to honored members and guests and to some chapters. The Roseburg Chapter was awarded the prize for having the greatest percentage of members in attendance, traveling more than 100 miles. Attendance at the sessions numbered around 200. Klamath Falls will be the hostess city for the 1952 convention.

THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH IN EUGENE WAS THE SCENE THURSDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 22, OF THE MARRIAGE OF MISS MARION GALLA, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. JOHN GALLA JR. OF ROSEBURG, TO JAMES QUENTIN JOHNSON, SON OF MR. AND MRS. RALPH JOHNSON OF THE DALLES.

The Rev. Wesley Nicholson performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of daffodils, iris and white candles in candelabra.

Preceding the double ring ceremony, Miss Jane Patterson sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was the beautiful daughter of white satin, fashioned with mandarin collar and tiny buttons down the front over an under-gown of white net and satin. Her veil, which her mother made, was held in place by a braid of white satin. She carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and stephanotis centered with a large orchid.

For the traditional "something old," the bride carried a lace-edged handkerchief, which was brought across the plains prior to the Civil War, a pair of bracelets worn by the bridegroom's grandmother on her wedding day and the blue
