COLLYER-ST. ONGE WEDDING IS EVENT OF SATURDAY, APRIL 7

Before the altar at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Miss Jean Arden St. Onge and William Marshall Collyer exchanged their wedding vows Saturday morning, April 7. The altar was massed with white snapdragons and spirea. Father Edmund read the service.

Miss St. Onge is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. St. Onge of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Collyer of Reedsport. Both are attending University of Oregon where she is a member of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority and he is affiliated with the Sigma Chi fraternity.

Miss St. Onge came to the altar on the arm of her father. One of the loveliest of the season's brides, she was beautiful in a wedding gown of eyelet embroidered organdy with an organdy redingote and finger-tip veil. Her flowers were shattered carnations, rosebuds and stephanotis.

Her attendants were her four sisters, Shirley, Carol Toni and Burnadette. They were dressed alike in white organdy and carried bouquets of deep red carnations, contrasting with the bride's bouquet, which was all in white.

Dennis Philbrook, a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. McLaughlin, sang preceding the ceremony. A reception was given by the bride's parents at their home following the wedding. Approximately 150 guests signed the guest book.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. John Skalnuren and Mrs. Roy Brainard of Reedsport, Mrs. Claude Kerr, Mrs. Jack Marks of Grants Pass, Mrs. Gladys Pearson of Portland and Mrs. Mortimer Bailey of Reedsport. Marian Morris, a sorority sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book.
