BINGO BAN DODGED

Dayton, O. — (AP) — The CIO electrical workers have a new gimmick to skirt Dayton's bingo ban—just combine bingo with a quiz game. Local 768 tried out the new "quiz-bingo," and there was no raid. Police said they could not stop the game. No admission was charged and cash prizes were awarded to players who scored a "bingo" and answered one question such as: "What is the home town of the Cleveland Indians?" "What's the first name of Joe E. Brown?" The gym club dodged the ban by giving free admission and free cards.

Memorial Day Worthy personalities cannot be separated from the life of a community of which they were, and are, a part. It doesn't matter so much WHERE a soldier or sailor is buried; what does matter is that each name be kept an inseparable part of the place in America he or she knew as HOME. Memorial Day is just a few weeks away. If you wish setting before that date, please order very soon. For "anything in granite" please call or see V. V. HARPAM Morning or evening at 1702 E.
