MacArthur's Asian Policies Would 'Jeopardize' World Peace, Gen. Bradley Declares

Chief Of Staff Backs Truman's Stand In Controversy, Opposes Enlargement Of Present War

CHICAGO — (A) — Gen. Omar N. Bradley, five-star peer of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, declares Asian military policies advocated by the deposed commander would "jeopardize world peace."

Bradley was the first of the homecoming general's five-star brothers in rank to speak out publicly against the theory of carrying the war to China since President Truman dismissed MacArthur. Bradley did not mention MacArthur's name.

Last year's quick United Nations action in Korea, Bradley declared, may have stayed the Kremlin's hand as it was about to precipitate World War Three.

Bradley roundly backed the President's stand against MacArthur's ideas and defended the administration's policy of limiting the war in Korea. As chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, Bradley has a large part in policy making.

In a speech prepared for delivery to the National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters, Bradley also declared:

1. The Korean war, under present conditions, may be headed toward a stalemate, but it can be brought to an honorable conclusion.
2. The United States will not wage a preventive war.
3. The one price the U.S. will not pay for peace is appeasement.
4. The use of the Reds have made of air bases in Manchuria to date has not warranted U.N. bombing of them.
5. Action against aggression in Korea upset Communist plans in Asia, at least temporarily preventing Red moves in Indochina and perhaps saving Thailand and Formosa.
6. Any attempt to settle the world crisis by an ultimatum—perhaps accompanied by a threat to bomb Russia—is militarily impracticable and might backfire.

No Political Meddling
In places, Bradley's viewpoint on the situation was the same as MacArthur's. He disagreed on what to do about it.

Bradley made it plain that "I have no intention of entering the foreign policy field or even urging a particular policy in the conduct of foreign affairs. Conduct of foreign affairs is a civilian responsibility."

Hammond Not To Be Fired, Says Governor McKay

SALEM — (A) — Governor Douglas McKay said today he would not ask the State Liquor commission to discharge its administrator, William H. Hammond.

The Multnomah county grand jury recommended last week that Hammond be fired, that liquor enforcement be strengthened, and that the commission be put on salaries.

"I have no intention of asking the commission to discharge William Hammond, the administrator," Governor McKay said in a prepared statement.

"He has an enviable record in state work and in service to his country."

The governor said the grand jury report is "a matter of great satisfaction to me."

"There have been no indictments nor charges of corruption or dishonesty, after this tremendous job was completed."

"In view of the fact that hundreds of millions of dollars have been handled during the period the investigation at least partially covered, I cannot but feel that this must be considered as a tribute to the soundness and honesty of state government, and to men administering a difficult business."

Governor McKay agreed that strict law enforcement is needed, and said an effort is being made to better conditions.

West Roseburg Storm Sewer Plans Okayed

Estimated Cost $24,844; Bids Date Set

Council Slates Action Tonight On Proposals For Work At Airport

Plans and specifications for West Roseburg storm sewers were accepted by the city council last night, and May 7 was set as the date for opening of bids for construction. The estimated cost of installing the lines on Nebo street, Fairhaven and Union avenues, Ridgeview and Spring streets and across the school property, west of the city, was set at $24,844.

The council also arranged for an early windup of the West Roseburg sanitary sewer project. City Engineer Arthur Bover issued a certificate of completion of the work, subject to the finishing of certain designated items.

The certificate recommended payment of $36,938.06 to the contractor, Stateside Construction Co. This leaves a balance of $250 to be paid when certain work, including installation of some curbing, paving repairs and minor work, is completed.

Airport Bids Tonight

A special meeting of the council is scheduled tonight at 7:30 for the opening of bids on the airport improvements. The estimates on the job are in excess of $400,000, and will include a runway 4500 feet long. The runway is now 3800 feet.

The federal government will share the cost on a 56-1/2 percent basis. A petition requesting additional water service to homes on Umpqua avenue in West Roseburg was presented with 36 signatures. The petitioners brought out that the more than 40 homes in the area are served by a two-inch water main, and there are no fire hydrants closer than Harvard avenue.

British Sub, With 75 Aboard, Missing

PORTSMOUTH, England — (AP) — The British submarine Affray with 75 men and officers aboard vanished today after a dive on maneuvers in the English channel.

Helicopters, airplanes and ships—including two American destroyers—were searching a stretch of sea 75 miles long and 25 miles wide along the south channel coast of England for the 1,600-ton submarine which has Schnorkel breath apparatus and escape devices.

An admiralty spokesman said there was some hope that the submarine commander, war hero Lt. John Blackburn, might have misread the order on making the daily morning reports, in which case the Affray might still be proceeding submerged.

School Districts Ask Budget Hikes

Nine school districts requested increases in school budgets at the only scheduled Rural School board hearing in the district court room of the courthouse Monday night.

Represented were Reedsport grade and high schools, Glendale, Yoncalla high school, Tiller, Green, Wilbur, Winchester and Leona. These schools asked budget increases in certain items over those allowed by the five-member Rural School board.

Any changes allowed by the board as a result of this hearing must be made before April 20. All schools affected will be notified by that date.

After this final notification, a county election will be held on or before May 21 to determine if the six-percent limitation will be exceeded or not.

Members of the Rural board are: Norman Weatherly of Elkton, chairman; Arthur Marsh, Lookingglass; Madeline B. Cool, Drain; Guy McGee, Canyonville; Gilbert Weaver, Myrtle Creek.

Chinese On Formosa Vent Anger On Britain

TAIPEH, Formosa — (A) — Some 40 Chinese students, angered over reports Britain had proposed giving Formosa to the Chinese Reds, hauled down the Union Jack at the British consulate at nearby Tansui and chanted anti-British slogans on walls.

They hoisted the Chinese Nationalist flag and ripped British emblems from two consular cars, but did no further harm to the consulate or its personnel.

Two Generals Purchase Rogue River Lodge Sites

GRANTS PASS — (A) — Generals Carl Spaatz and Ira Eaker have purchased a 30-acre site for a lodge on the lower Rogue river miles below Marial from Glenn Woodruff, pioneer river guide, the latter announced here.

The new owners expect to begin construction of the lodge by May 15, Woodruff said.

Business Gets Nod To Ask For Price Shifts To Meet Fair Trade Laws Of States

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Government price control officials cleared the way today for wholesalers and retailers to apply for ceiling price adjustments to meet levels fixed under state fair trade laws.

The Office of Price Stabilization issued an order permitting sellers to ask price relief under certain conditions. The order is effective April 21.

Forty-five states and the District of Columbia have fair trade acts which permit manufacturers and retailers to agree on minimum prices for specific items.

OPS said that under the general price freeze of Jan. 26, some sellers have ceiling prices which are lower than the minimum set by the state fair trade laws. The general freeze prevents these ceiling prices being raised.

OPS said this situation resulted in some cases in violation of a fair trade contract. In others, the agency said, the manufacturer announced a new fair trade price and permitted distributors to dispose of marked inventory on hand at the old price.

The general freeze provides that a seller's ceiling is the highest price he charged during the base period, last Dec. 19 through Jan. 25.

Requirements Listed
OPS said that in applying for permission to raise his prices to meet state fair trade requirements a seller must show that:

1. His ceiling price is less than (Continued on Page 2)

Aged Man Kills Himself With Gun At Days Creek

A 71-year-old man, William Ernest Marsh, died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound Monday afternoon in his trailer home near Days Creek. It was reported by Deputy Sheriff Ira Byrd, who investigated the call. Byrd said that Marsh apparently placed a revolver against the roof of his mouth and pulled the trigger. Cause of the apparent suicide was not known, but may have been because of ill health, Byrd added.

E. T. Marsh, a brother of the dead man, who was also living in the trailer home, found the body. The only other survivor is another brother, C. A. Marsh, living in Vancouver, Wash.

Funeral services will be held in the chapel of Gans mortuary at Myrtle Creek Thursday at 2 p.m. Interment will follow in the Masonic cemetery at Canyonville.

Split Senate Pays Tribute To Mac

SALEM — (A) — The Senate paid a 30-second standing tribute to General MacArthur Monday, but two of the nine senate Democrats sat in their seats.

The other seven Democrats went along with the Republicans, hoping that their action wouldn't make the people think the Democratic senators were opposing President Truman's firing of MacArthur.

The surprise motion for a tribute to MacArthur's services was made by Sen. Warren Gill, Lebanon. It contained no criticism of the President.

But one by one, the Democrats got up and said they appreciated MacArthur's services. But they wanted to make it clear that they think he should have been freed.

Sens. Vernon Bull, La Grande, and Russell Gardner, Newport, were the two Democrats who wouldn't stand up.

"The country needs unity," Bull said. "This move is absolutely uncalled for."

Democrats moved to amend the motion to add tributes to the men fighting in Korea, for the men whom MacArthur drove out of Washington in the 1950 bonus march, and for the late Gen. Billy Mitchell, who was court-martialed for demanding a big air force.

But Senate President Paul Patterson ruled these motions out of order.

The House, with six Democrats dissenting, passed a resolution thanking MacArthur for his services. But the senate resolutions committee buried it.

BOY BREAKS SHOULDER

Gary Crenshaw, 13 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Crenshaw of Bowden avenue, Roseburg, fractured his shoulder in a bicycle accident Saturday evening. Gary, an eighth grade student at Junior high school, is now in Douglas Community hospital and will be confined there for some time.

LEARNERS AT LAST

OVER STONEY, England — (A) — Gary Grandfield resigned as part-time village grave digger with this statement: "For 17 years I have dug and tended graves for 15 shillings ($2.10) a week. But it seems as though the more you do for people, the less they think of you."

Cheers Greet Hero On Miles Of Pageantry

General Planning Rest In S.F. Tonight Before Flight To Washington

WASHINGTON — (A) — President Truman has cancelled plans to address the American Society of Newspaper Editors Thursday in order not to interfere with "Gen. Douglas MacArthur's day."

HONOLULU — (A) — General MacArthur leaves the flower-scented hospitality of Hawaii today on his stern mission to challenge in Congress the views of the President who fired him over war policy.

His plane, the Bataan, will take off enroute to San Francisco and Washington.

The Bataan should arrive at San Francisco about 8 p.m. (11 p.m., EST). After an overnight rest in San Francisco and brief ceremonies there Wednesday morning, MacArthur will depart for Washington and his appearance Thursday before a joint session of Congress.

The five-star general and hero of three wars got a foretaste here Monday of the applause but none of the acrimony that awaits him in Washington.

For two hours Hawaii's polyglot population lining a 25-mile route cheered MacArthur, his wife, Jean, and their son, Arthur, 13.

The spontaneous outburst of acclaim—at this starting point of the Pacific war which MacArthur fought from beginning to end—presaged pageantry and public demonstrations planned for him in San Francisco, Washington and New York.

But there was no note of the antagonism that has split America and the non-Communist world over his views.

Acclaimed Like Hero
MacArthur's Hawaiian welcome, gushing with a full measure of the traditional island friendship, was shorn of partisanship; it was the acclaim given a conquering hero.

MacArthur smiled and waved in response to the shouts of the crowds. He shook a child's hand. He chatted with an ex-soldier who had fought with him on Bataan.

He chuckled at a fat, bare-footed woman danced a hula when his sedan rolled by.

He received an honorary degree of doctor of laws from the University of Hawaii in an amphitheater jammed with 5,000 people. He heard the university president (Continued on Page 2)

GEN. CARL R. GRAY JR., Veterans administrator, arrived in Roseburg today to inspect the Roseburg Veterans hospital. General Gray, recently named to his position to succeed Gen. Omar T. Bradley, is on tour of the West inspecting all veterans installations. He is scheduled to leave Roseburg this afternoon for Medford.

Orderly Operation Follows Strike Riot

DANVILLE, Va. — (A) — Orderly picketing without any sign of disorder prevailed at the Dan River mills strike-bound plant when the day shift reported at 8 a. m. today in sharp contrast to a burst of shots and police use of tear gas in a disturbance that broke out with the midnight change.

The trouble occurred in nearby Schofield at the company's major plant. A striker suffered a pistol bullet wound in the melee. State police hurled tear gas bombs to disperse a crowd of pickets.

But the pickets, who had blocked U.S. highway 29 at the main entrance to the Schofield plant for 15 minutes, broke their solid front and finally allowed the non-strikers to enter the building for the midnight shift.

Levity Fact Rant

By L. F. Reizenstein
Truman's ouster of Gen. MacArthur is not entirely devoid of ultimate benefit. The resultant avalanche of mail descending on the White House and Congress presages a substantial reduction of the government's postal deficit.

In the Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS

Highly significant news: THE RED AIR FORCE IN KOREA AND OVER THE BARRIERS IN MANCHURIA IS GETTING BIGGER AND BIGGER.

The other day 80 Russian-built MIGs attacked 115 of our jet fighters that were escorting 32 of our B-29 bombers (old-timers from the last war.) A ruckus of the first magnitude ensued.

Final score: Eight MIGs definitely shot down, three more probably downed and 11 damaged. Two B-29s were definitely shot down by the Reds, and "several" others damaged but able to get back by one or another of our airfields and land there.

We lost no fighters.

What were our planes doing? The answer to that question is MOST interesting. We were shooting up bridges over the Yalu. When (Continued on Page 4)

District Kiwanis Meets

Club Objectives Talked; Horace Berg Nominated For Lieutenant Governor

Representatives from Kiwanis district 15, which comprises the southwest Oregon area and Tulelake, Calif., gathered in Roseburg Sunday afternoon and Monday for the annual spring district conference, and to hear an address by Harold Bleything, governor of the Northwest Kiwanis district. Meetings were held at the Roseburg Country club.

Horace C. Berg, Roseburg, received the unanimous nomination to the office of district 15 lieutenant governor for 1952. The nomination is tantamount to election, which officially takes place at the Northwest conference later. Berg will succeed C. E. "Tommy" Thompson of Redmond.

"Our country was bought by our forefathers who made the down payment and as long as we keep it, we must keep up the installments," Governor Bleything told a dinner gathering of 150 representatives from outside clubs, Roseburg Kiwanis and their wives.

The dinner meeting was interrupted for a short time while the Roseburg Paul Bunyans descended upon the gathering and performed an initiation ceremony upon the governor. Bleything was officially tabbed as keeper of the Poke Chops.

Year's Theme Discussed
"Freedom is not free," Bleything told his audience in an inspirational message on the purpose of Kiwanis. This is the annual theme of Kiwanis for the current year. He touched briefly upon the eight objectives of Kiwanis: strengthen our social structure; intensify our service to home, church and school.

"Kiwanis is but a shell or framework — good for nothing until we fill it up," he said. "It is working together that counts."

As a humorous note of the meeting, the Medford club, new keeper of the "traveling ax," started in Roseburg, was presented with a rabbit. This rabbit, reminiscent of "Able Mable" of the Roseburg Jaycees, is to remain the property of the Medford club until the members make a visitation.

Session's Program
The morning session included invocation by Father Alfred Tyson at 9 a. m.; introduction of honored guests; talk on Boys and Girls work by Past Lt. Gov. Russell Kurtz of Medford; talk on public and business affairs by Governor Bleything; talk on "Spiritual Aims," Penny Penhollow, Redmond; talk on attendance, Redmond; talk on members, Bob Rector, Medford club president; discussion of Key clubs, J. E. Slattery, Roseburg president; "Go to St. Louis," convention theme, by A. Drimel, chairman; the selection of Berg as (Continued on Page 2)

Floods Sweeping 4 Midwest States

The rising upper Mississippi river spilled floodwaters into lowland communities in four midwestern states today.

Flood workers patrolled levees and built and strengthened dikes in preparation for a continued rise.

The waters were at a 70-year high in southeastern Minnesota. The south St. Paul stockyards were flooded out of operation for the first time in its history. Several packing plants also closed down.

The rushing current, carrying huge ice cakes, battered down a 480-foot section of a wooden trestle and pontoon bridge 75 miles south of St. Paul, forcing the re-routing of a Milwaukee railroad branch line.

The basements of several industrial plants were flooded in Winona, Minn., an industrial city of 25,000. Workers rushed the building of dikes. The city's municipal airport was under two feet of water following the breaking of a dike.

A national guard unit went on patrol at Prairie Du Chien, Wis., where rising waters covered a fifth of the city's area. Some 250 families left their homes.

Levees were patrolled at Muscatine, Ia., after army engineers warned the city to take immediate precautions. A crest of 20.5 feet is expected by April 26 — 1.4 feet above the previous highest peak reached July 1, 1944.

The Mississippi was six feet over flood stage at Quincy, Ill., and another 2.5 foot rise was expected by May 1. No concern was felt for the city's flood walls, however.

Non-Medics Lose Fight On County Hospital Bill

SALEM — (A) — The osteopaths and chiropractors lost their battle Monday when the Senate sent to the House by a 26-4 vote a county hospital bill.

The bill lets the county hospital boards decide who shall practice in the hospitals. The osteopaths and chiropractors, saying the boards would ban them, demanded the bill be amended so that the boards would be forced to admit osteopaths and chiropractors to practice.
