Roseburg Sailor Serving Aboard Ship in Far East

Marvin O. Palmer, pipefitter, second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Armstrong of route 1, box 145, and husband of Mrs. Marilyn Alberta Palmer of 464 South Main St. of Roseburg, is serving aboard the seaplane tender USS Gardiners Bay in the Far East. His ship acts as a communication vessel providing navigational and weather information to aircraft. The Gardiners Bay also services and supplies Naval and Royal Air Force reconnaissance planes. Fire Vaporizer

PORTLAND — (AP) — A homemade vaporizer caught fire here, inflicting third-degree burns on a 13-month-old girl. A passerby saw smoke in the bedroom where the girl's crib was. He rushed in to pull her to safety. The girl's grandmother, Mrs. Andrew Fustos, attempted to rescue the child, and suffered burns on the arms. Mrs. Fustos said she had devised the vaporizer because the girl, Sharron Matthews, had a cold. A cloth she used caught fire over an electrical heating unit.
