Mary Jeanne Miles Becomes Bride of Merle Lee Palm

Mary Jeanne Miles, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Miles, became the bride of Merle Lee Palm, son of John Palm and the late Mrs. Gladys Palm, at a very pretty ceremony Wednesday evening, April 18, at the beautiful new home of the bride's parents in Laurelwood. Rev. W. A. MacArthur, pastor of the First Methodist church, performed the impressive single ring ceremony at nine o'clock in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Numerous spring flowers, with yellow and white colors predominating, formed the decorations for the fireplace mantle and bouquets in the living room.

The bride was charming in a navy blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of carnations. Miss Lenora Markille was maid of honor and wore a white dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Frank Addison acted as best man.

A reception followed, at which time the bride and bridegroom cut the first piece of the wedding cake which was served by the bride's mother. Coffee was doured by the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. H. F. Snyder, of Roseburg.

The lace-covered serving table was centered with the wedding cake, which was decorated in pastel pink and white icing, flanked by arrangements of spring blossoms. Decorations for the wedding were arranged by Mrs. Paul Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Palm will make their home in Roseburg.

Both the bride and bridegroom have many friends in Roseburg, having spent most of their lives in this city. The bride attended the Roseburg schools and later attended school in Portland. The bridegroom attended Bolindale school in Warren, Ohio. He is employed by Leo T. Kimbrell, painting contractor.
