Spring clean-up day was held Thursday by the Garden Valley Woman's club. A picnic lunch was enjoyed in the yard. A business meeting followed.

Plans were made for the fall bazaar and members answered roll call by naming articles they will make for the bazaar. A committee was appointed to take charge of the program and decorating for the May-day luncheon. All members and ex-members have been invited to attend. A potluck luncheon will be served at 12:30 at the clubhouse and those attending are requested to bring their own table service.

Mac Parade Watcher Killed By Paperweight

NEW YORK (AP)—A man accidentally struck by a metal paperweight during the welcome-home parade for Gen. Douglas MacArthur Friday, died of a fractured skull.

Marlo Riccobono, 47, of Astoria, Queens, had been standing near the Woolworth building at Broadway and Park place waiting for the parade. Suddenly he collapsed, and a half-pound paperweight was found beside him.

Homemakers Festival To Be Held in Roseburg, May 4th

Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick of Merrill, Ore., will give the highlights of her trip to the Triennial Conference of Associated Country Women of the World at Copenhagen, Denmark, last September at the annual Homemakers' Festival to be May 4, at the Methodist church, Roseburg, it was announced by Betty J. Paterson, County Extension Agent, Home Economics.

Kilpatrick's trip also included a tour of other European countries including Holland, France, Italy, England, Switzerland and others.

Mrs. Kilpatrick will show many colored slides taken during her trip showing among others, the white cliffs of Dover, Holland children in typical dress, a real Dutch windmill, famous canals, the busy home of Anne Hathaway and typical Denmark scenes. She can entertain a group for hours with the interesting stories of her trip illustrated by the many lovely pictures she took.

Mrs. Kilpatrick enjoys telling of her trip and is able to make others feel as though they were going right along with her.

In her Festival talk, Mrs. Kilpatrick will especially stress the ACWW conference and how this world organization is working to help solve world problems.

Mrs. Kilpatrick has been active in Home Extension work in Klamath county for 12 years and previous to that active in both Benton and Lane counties.
