and airplane — old and new methods of travel stand by side in the heart of a South American jungle. Primitive Indian children stand in wonder and amazement on the "feet" of this strange "bird." Use of aircraft, radio and photography by trained missionary technicians on foreign mission fields forms a unique sequence in Moody Bible Institute's newest sound-color film release, "To Every Creature," shown at the First Presbyterian church, Friday night.

Winston Church Is Dedicated

It is estimated that 175 people attended the dedication services of the new Winston Christian church building in Sunday afternoon, April 29, at 2:30. The "Ninety and Nine" men's organization was well represented, having 75 members present.

The program was as follows; song service, led by Marybelle McDonald; prayer, Lyod Whitford of Sutherlin; greetings from the "Ninety and Nine," Ralph Hardisty; special music, Roseburg Christian church; history of church and financial report, Mable P. Taylor; special music, Northwest Christian college girls' trio; dedicatory message, Ward Rice; dedicatory response, The Rev. Kenneth Knox, Roseburg, and benediction by Archie Currier.

The event held special meaning to all members of the Winston church, as it represents much hard work on their part. The church was organized just a year ago, and for the lack of a public meeting place, met at the Dwight Davidson home for Sunday services until the present building could be sufficiently completed to house the group.

It is almost completed now, an accomplishment which appeared almost impossible twelve months ago. It boasts a "fine Sunday school" and is reported to have prospered financially under the leadership of the pastor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald, of the N.C.C. in Eugene.
