

County Suit Asks N. Umpqua Road Rights Of Way

Douglas county, through the district attorney's office, has filed two suits in the circuit court to secure equitable compensation agreements for rights of way for the relocation of the North Umpqua highway above Glide.

It is necessary to acquire rights of way over certain private property and the parties involved have failed to reach an agreement on compensation. Named as defendants are Albert J. and Clarice DeBernardi in one suit and Albert DeBernardi as administrator of the estate of Hilda DeBernardi in the other. The county asks that a jury be empaneled to determine an equitable compensation.

Action was filed by John E. Dorius against Rita L. Lanman and Francis Dagman, charging that Dagman, as an agent of the other defendant, through negligence collided with the car in which the plaintiff was riding. According to the complaint, the plaintiff suffered permanent back injuries, bruises and shock. He asks $3,500 general damages and $567 special damages.

Delbert S. Jones has filed a suit for recovery of $276 from Harold Kirk and L. C. Velez for labor allegedly performed and materials furnished. In addition, the plaintiff asks a mechanic's lien on property owned by the defendants on the Smith river county road.

Dismissed without court action was a $40,985 damage suit filed last year by Lydia Gillett against Donald W. Van Steenwyk. The case involved a collision between a car driven by the defendant and another in which the plaintiff was riding. The plaintiff was asking the damages for injuries allegedly received.

The only judgment of the day was issued by the court in favor of J. W. Copeland yards against Gilson L. Anderson. The court ordered that the plaintiff company recover $341.87 for labor and building materials allegedly furnished.

THE ROSEBURG TIMBER FOUR, Roseburg's leading barbershop quartet, will appear on the second annual Barbershop Quartet parade Saturday at 8 p.m., in the Junior high school auditorium. The Timber Four have been very active in civic affairs, having donated their time to help put on benefit programs in various towns in this area from Creswell to Azalea. The original Timber Four was organized two years ago. The present group sang together the first time on the Elks show last fall. They are left to right, Jim Wolford, baritone; Jack Mason, lead; Lawrence Rand, tenor, and Ernie Lentz, bass (front). (Picture by Photo Lab)

Wedding Unites Defunct Royalty

NANCY, France — (AP) — Archduke Otto of Hapsburg, pretender to the throne of the defunct Austro-Hungarian empire, wed a German princess here today in a lavish display of 18th century pageantry.

Scores of Europe's throneless royally thronged this eastern France city for the double rites uniting the 38-year-old Otto and 25-year-old Princess Regina of Saxony-Meiningen, whom he met while touring refugee camps in Bavaria.

A civil ceremony in the Catholic rites an hour later in the Church of the Rossmakers, where many of the bridegroom's ancestors are buried.

Forbidden by Austrian law to visit the country where his father, the Emperor Karl, was the last Hapsburg ruler, Otto came here for his wedding because it is the ancient capital of the once independent duchy of Lorraine over which his ancestors reigned. Otto still claims the title of Duke of Lorraine.

Britain Permits Export Of Rubber To Russia

LONDON — (AP) — A government minister says Britain is permitting export of 6,000 tons of rubber from Singapore to Russia.

John Dugdale, minister of state for colonies, in a written reply in the House of Commons, said the export will be permitted "since the rubber in question was sold before export control was introduced," added Dugdale.

"Restrictive control on exports of rubber was introduced in agreement with the United States government early in April but it was at no time envisaged that a total embargo of exports should be imposed."

Impersonator Jolts Tradition In UCLA Vote

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Tradition has suffered a powerful kick in the pants at the University of California at Los Angeles.

And all because of a strapping co-ed named Edna — blonde, blue-eyed, and dimpled.

When results of a student body primary election were tabulated, there was Edna as a runoff candidate against diminutive Joyce Sheets for the post of vice-president, traditionally a woman's job.

"Women should hold babies, not office!" was Edna's violent and traitorous campaign slogan.

The center of the political controversy is being kicked in the pants by Edna's mother as Ed Hummel, 22, a Delta Sigma Phi man. He admitted that the fraternity cooked up the gag.

Standing six-foot-one and weighing a rosy 250, Hummel, as "Edna" had been known on campus for a week garbed in a sort of kimono affair, a huge knitting bag, a bandana and a wig.

It was supposed to be a joke. Nobody expected "Edna" to reach the finals.

"But about 300 girls voted for me," said Hummel, somewhat amazed over the deception.

VAGRANT JAILED

Kenneth K. Chrisman, 24, a Tri-City logger, was sentenced Thursday to serve 10 days in the Douglas county jail for vagrancy, reports District Judge A. J. Geddes. Chrisman was arrested Wednesday by a deputy sheriff.
