ALTA NOLAND, three years and a half old and feeling every bit of it, discusses a hair dressing problem with her doll as the two sit in their crib in the isolation ward at Mery hospital. Alta is recovering from pneumonia and the whooping cough, and the doll is recovering from a previous hair-do. Alta, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arlene Noland of Sutherlin, is doing nicely, thank you.

British Estate Awaits 2 Naturalized Americans If They Change Residence

AKRON, O.—(AP)—Would you move to England and live there the rest of your life for an estate worth nearly $250,000?

Salesman James N. Gape of nearby Cuyahoga Falls has the chance, but can't decide. Neither can his wife.

Murder Plotter In Iran Nabbed

TEHRAN, Iran — (AP) — A Moslem terrorist was arrested after a gun battle today with police, who said he was plotting to assassinate Premier Mossadegh.

The Moslem was identified as Abolghassem Rafiee, the number two man in the Fedayan Islam, the fanatical religious secret society which is held responsible for the slaying of former Premier Raza-mara in March.

Premier Mossadegh has taken refuge behind locked doors in parliament, fearing threats against his life.

Police quoted Rafiee as saying "Mossadegh is lucky I am caught. Otherwise he would have been shot within the next two or three days."

This was the latest incident in the respite Tehran. The parliament's action in nationalizing the Anglo-Iranian oil company has focused world attention once more on this potential trouble spot in east-west relations.

Tempers are running high. An editor who is a close adviser to Mossadegh says Mossadegh is a "holy war" if they try to obstruct nationalization.

Mutterings from Washington: "Senator Flanders (Rep. Vermont) said: 'Where does it go to something big in the wind in Korea that will support Defense Secretary Marshall's assertion the allies are moving toward success there.'"

"Senator Kefauver (Dem., Tenn.) declares he has 'the definite feeling the top command has a plan which makes the outcome (in Korea) look optimistic.'"

"Flanders and Kefauver refuse to talk about any of Marshall's off-the-record testimony, but say his overall account of the problem gives them the impression he is justified in saying: 'We are moving (in Korea) toward a successful outcome.'"

I hope they're right. I hope Marshall is right. I reckon I never hoped anything so much before. What is starting us in the face isn't just another war. It's the First Atomic War. That is gristier than (Continued on Page 4)

Congress Backs Proposal Ban On Cargoes To China

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Congress went on record Tuesday to advocate a ban by the free world on shipment of war materials to Communist China.

Both the Senate and the House, by unanimous voice votes, approved a resolution calling on the United Nations general assembly to vote such a ban.

Such action by the U. N., of course, would have only moral force since the organization has no enforcement powers.

The House also passed a resolution saying the Chinese Communist government should not be admitted to U. N. membership.

Higher Taxes Or Higher Prices Face U.S. Public

NEW YORK — (AP) — The big pinch in civilian goods is "yet to come," defense Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson predicts.

And he says that unless the American people pay still higher taxes they eventually will pay even more money in the form of inflated prices.

Wilson said he is "wholeheartedly" in favor of President Truman's tax program.

Reds Maneuver For Major Assault

390,000 Men Will Be Hurlled At Allied Line

U.N. Forces Confident Of Victory; Prisoners Reveal Foe's Weakness

TOKYO — (AP) — Red troops poured out of the hills in attacks all along the eastern front of Korea Wednesday night.

It was too early to tell whether it was the start of the expected Red offensive, or new probing in force.

The attacks came not long after Maj. Gen. William Hoge, commander of the U. S. Ninth corps, predicted the Red offensive would open Friday. Hoge said his troops would welcome it.

The general said if the Chinese follow their "previous pattern of attacking on the full moon, the blow should come soon. The moon comes full on the 18th of the month. That gives him two days."

Allied intelligence offices said a striking force of 390,000 Reds was ready for the signal to begin their biggest offensive of the war.

A division spokesman said increasing numbers of Red prisoners were being brought back, indicating a weakening of Communist morale.

American troops somewhat bored with waiting, have had time in a two-and-a-half-week lull to thoroughly bolster their defenses.

A division spokesman said the allied forces are probably in the best positions they have manned yet. He said they're confident and in good spirits.

Human Sea Wave Planned Communist prisoners say Red China's premier, Mao Tse-tung, went to Moscow for talks immediately after General MacArthur's ouster.

Driver Of Govt. Car Bearing Sister Of President Fined

Too Much Speed, No Driver's License, Rep. Keating Reports; Raps Ethical 'Deterioration'

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Keating (R-NY), who for the second time has produced information calculated to embarrass the Democratic occupants of the White House, says he has no "pipe line."

"But," he adds, "I have a lot of friends in government."

Keating told the House a government-owned limousine, bearing President Truman's sister, was stopped for speeding at 70 to 75 miles an hour through Hopewell, N. Y., last Saturday.

The driver of the car, whom Keating named as Grady A. Stowe, a special agent assigned to guard a member of the President's family, was fined $20 by a justice of the peace.

Stowe, Keating said, wasn't able to produce a driver's license. He told authorities according to Keating's report, that "the President will be distressed if his sister is detained."

Prior to his disclosure of the speeding incident, Keating predicted some weeks ago that a White House employee who was the recipient of a much-publicized mink coat, would be discharged.

She was Mrs. E. Mier Young, whose husband was accused by a senate committee of "influencing" Reconstruction Finance corporation loan policy. The mink coat was paid for, as a loan to Young, by a lawyer for a New York furrier seeking an RFC loan.

The White House denied the report, but accepted Mrs. Young's resignation about two weeks later.

"Deterioration" Deplored Keating, a Rochester, N. Y., lawyer, was commissioned a brigadier general a few years ago by President Truman after serving as a colonel in the southeast Asia command during World War Two.

Asked to explain his criticism of Mr. Truman and the administration, Keating told a reporter: "I'm very much concerned over the deterioration of the moral and ethical standards all through the administration."

"I feel that the President, a and equally the members of Congress, should set an example for the rest of the country and bend over backwards and be scrupulously careful in the execution of the public trust the people have committed to them."

Wants Ethical Standards Set In line with this view he has introduced legislation to investigate the standards of the executive branch of the government and has also proposed that an 11-member commission be created to set up standards for government employees and elected officials comparable to those established for (Continued on Page 2)

Gen. Bradley's Balk At Query Stirs Up Fuss

Refusal To Tell Of Talk With Truman About Mac Obeys Wish Of President

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The senate inquiry into Gen. Douglas MacArthur's dismissal was broken off today by a hot argument over whether Gen. Omar Bradley should tell about his private talks with President Truman.

Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, refused Tuesday to tell what he and Mr. Truman said to each other prior to the firing of the Far Eastern commander. Today, the White House said Mr. Truman does not want Bradley to do so.

Nevertheless, some Republicans of the inquiry panel — made up of the senate armed services and foreign relations committees — were insistent that Bradley should tell.

While Bradley sat silently in the witness chair for more than two hours today, the senators argued heatedly. Charges, implied and direct, of trying to play politics figured in the debate.

In the upshot: 1. Bradley was dismissed as a witness until Monday.

2. The senators agreed to vote Thursday on whether they should insist that the five-star general tell them about his conference with the President.

'Saboteur' Intent Seen Atop the charges hurled in the committee room itself, Senator Fulbright (D-Ark) told reporters on leaving that he fears Republicans may be "trying to sabotage" the whole inquiry into MacArthur's ouster.

Fulbright told reporters: "Apparently things are not quite going the way they (Republicans) like. I think the inference can be drawn that because of this they are making unfair and untrue charges about 'pulling down the Iron Curtain.'"

This was a reference to a contention by Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) that Bradley's stand about the talks with the President raised a (Continued on Page 2)

Officers Elected By B.P.W. Club

Mrs. Mildred Herman, above, was elected president of the Roseburg Business and Professional Women's club for 1951-52 at the club's meeting Monday night.

Mrs. Precilla Clendenbach was elected first vice-president; Mrs. Edith Landis, second vice-president; Mrs. Virginia Ashcraft, recording secretary; Mrs. Flossie Virden, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edythe Gilmour, treasurer, and Mrs. Ann Storrs, sergeant-at-arms. Installation will be held in June.

After the election, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Laura Iles and Mrs. Stella Spencer, co-chairmen for the State Federation of Business and Professional Women's club convention to be held in Roseburg May 18, 19 and 20. All committee reports were made and last minute procedures were set in motion to handle the approximately 400 delegates expected for the three-day meet.

The official delegates to the convention from the Roseburg club are Mrs. Celia Day, Mrs. Herman and Mrs. Minnie Clark. Mrs. Flossie Virden, president of the local club, and Miss V. Vivian Logsdan, state finance officer, will also be seated as representatives of the Roseburg club. Alternate delegates are Mrs. Iris Spring, Mrs. Ruby Widling, Mrs. Janella You and Miss Katherine Kenny.

Just before noon, Deputy Sheriff Ira Byrd took an air jaunt over the relay station atop Mt. Nebo and made several tests which proved satisfactory.

Constructed to supplement the protective features of the county civil defense, the network will be used during peacetime as a law enforcing device. It will serve as a quick, easy method of reaching officers in the field. In addition, the system will form a ready rescue unit to search for lost persons or downed planes.

Checkup Ordered On Slaughterers

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A national livestock inquiry into reports of illegal livestock slaughtering has been ordered by price enforcement Director Edward P. Morgan.

Morgan said all district office enforcement agents have been directed to check on class 2 slaughterers who were reported to have been in business last year but who have not registered in 1951 as required by price regulations.

A class 2 slaughterer is one who does not have his products federally inspected.

Morgan said there were an estimated 12,000 to 15,000 such slaughterers last year. He said Office of Price Stabilization records show only about 11,000 have registered this year.

OPS orders require a slaughterer to get a registration number in order to slaughter livestock legally. He must have such a number before he can receive such a quota of livestock for slaughtering.

Morgan said OPS agents also will check on registered slaughterers to see whether they are keeping with their legal quotas.

Drain Vote On City's Budget Set For June 1

A budget amount of $25,425.12 outside the six percent limitation on the Drain 1951-52 city budget will be referred to voters of that city on June 1, according to the budget notice published in The Drain Enterprise.

Total estimated expenditures amount to $28,770. Estimated receipts are figured at $9,837.84, leaving a total amount of $29,132.12 to be raised by taxation in 1951-52. Of this, $3,707.04 is within the six percent limitation.

Of the total to be raised by taxation, $8,716.08 is for the water fund and the balance for the general fund. The sum of $14,071.57 was authorized for the 1950-51 city budget outside the six percent limitation. A hearing on the new budget is scheduled for June 4.

Acheson Says He Does Not Intend To Resign

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson said today he has "no intention" of resigning and intends to stay in the administration "as long as the President wants me to stay."

"I enlisted for the duration and am prepared to stay as long as the President wants me to stay."

Majority 52 Out Of Total Ballot Of 874

Council Tonight Will Consider Applications For City Manager Post

Roseburg voters by a slim 52-ballot margin approved the city budget in Tuesday's election. The total vote cast was 463 in favor of the budget and 411 opposed.

Mayor Albert G. Flegel announced today that the city council will meet in special session at 5:30 p. m. today for a double purpose: to canvass the ballots of the election and to consider the appointment of a new city manager to replace M. J. Slankard, who has resigned.

Mayor Flegel said the council has some names under consideration for the appointment, but he would not predict what the council's action might be. Slankard's resignation is effective June 15. But he is being given accumulated vacation time prior to that date. Because of many urgent projects being undertaken by the city, it is imperative that early action be taken to acquire a city manager to carry out the program, said the mayor.

Wards' Sentiment Split The vote by wards in Tuesday's election was as follows: ward 1, 87 yes and 71 no; ward 2, 127 yes and 131 no; ward 3, 124 yes and 131 no, and ward 4, 125 yes and 78 no.

The total budget is for $355,347. The budget amount outside the six percent limitation, on which the voting was held, was for $109,528.10. The new budget, which now stands approved, provides for approximately $50 monthly cost-of-living adjustments for city employees.

In the first election, held April 24, the voters turned down the budget, also by a slim majority, 437 yes to 531 no. At that time the measure was paired with an unpopular city hall bond issue. The city council chose to resubmit the budget without alteration, believing it was sound and economical, and that it would pass if presented alone.

Defense Air Net Now Operating

The civil defense three-way radio communications network is now in full operation.

Tuesday marked the final tune-up and alignment. Twelve radio-installed cars and an airplane with a mobile pack set took part in the concluding tests that beat the tentative deadline for completion by over a month. By late afternoon signals were coming in clear at the sheriff's office at the courthouse where the main control station is located.

Just before noon, Deputy Sheriff Ira Byrd took an air jaunt over the relay station atop Mt. Nebo and made several tests which proved satisfactory.

Constructed to supplement the protective features of the county civil defense, the network will be used during peacetime as a law enforcing device. It will serve as a quick, easy method of reaching officers in the field. In addition, the system will form a ready rescue unit to search for lost persons or downed planes.

Rule Of Bolivia Grabbed By Army

LA PAZ, Bolivia — (AP) — The army seized the government of this tin-rich nation today, claiming it was in "real and immediate danger."

Maj. Gen. Ovidio Quiroga, army chief of staff, named a military junta headed by Gen. Hugo Ballivian as president and defense minister, after president Urrutia Goitia resigned and left the country.

The country was immediately placed under a state of siege—modified martial law. Strikes were declared illegal and the army command was given authority to order mobilization of both soldiers and civilians to maintain public order.

The coup came in an atmosphere of tension following the May 6 elections in which Victor Paz Estenssoro, exiled leader of Bolivia's tin miners, won most votes but not enough for the clear majority which would entitle him automatically to the presidency without an act of Congress.

Polish Attache Refuses To Obey Call Home

PARIS — (AP) — Czeslaw Milosz, cultural affairs attache of the Polish embassy here, says he chose to ignore a recall by Communist Poland and remain in France "because I knew perfectly well that my country was becoming the province of an empire."

"I have rejected the Stalinists' new faith," said Milosz. "Because the practice of lying is one of its principal commandments. The Soviet religion is only another name for lying."

The French foreign ministry said Milosz has received permission to stay in France.
