

Fishing Prospects In Southwest Good

PORTLAND — (AP)—Western Oregon waters generally hold good promise for anglers this weekend. The game commission's weekly bulletin by districts: Southwest: Upper Umpqua and tributaries are clear and falling; trout angling is good. Barring weather changes, water conditions should be excellent for the weekend. Fly fishing should produce the best catches—small, dark patterns are preferred. A few summer steelhead are in the North Umpqua below Steamboat and scattered catches have already been reported. Salmon season is closing in the upper Umpqua. Trout fishing is fair on coastal lakes, black bass fishing is good, and perch and crappie are biting fine. Catfishing has slowed to a standstill. Striper catches have decreased but there are plenty in the lower Umpqua and Smith rivers. Large numbers of shad are in the lower Umpqua and Smith rivers—a neglected but excellent sport and food fish. Use small spinners for shad. Use small spinners for shad. Use small spinners for shad. Use small spinners for shad.

Umpqua Chiefs Meet Bandon

The Roseburg Umpqua Chiefs play their third Southwestern Oregon league game this Sunday afternoon against Bandon. The game is slated for Finlay field at 2 p.m. The Bandon team is an unknown quantity because it, like so many other teams in the league, is still in the process of being bolstered by players just getting out of college. Although there is some question as to the team's makeup, there is no doubt as to the strength. It is, according to grapevine reports, one of the strongest teams in the conference.

The Chiefs will be facing one of the better pitchers in the league in Al Kruk. In his first outing, he pitched a nifty six-hitter against Reedsport. He ran into trouble against Medford last week, however, and went to the showers after giving up four hits in the third inning.

Both Bandon and the Chiefs will be battling for the third place position in the league. Both have won one and lost one and are tied with North Bend and Coquille for the third place slot. Bandon won its opener against Reedsport, 10-2, and dropped its second game to Medford 7-2.

Roseburg also has a loss to Medford blackening its record. The Chiefs dropped the season's opener, 3-2, but came back to down powerful North Bend 1 a s t Sunday, 5-4.

Other league games scheduled for this Sunday are: Reedsport at Medford, Coquille at North Bend and Brookings at Myrtle Creek.

Happy Chandler Sets Own Terms

Happy Chandler

NEW YORK — (AP)—Albert R. (Happy) Chandler is finally ready to bid farewell to baseball—at his own terms.

The reluctant-to-leave baseball commissioner has promised to resign "soon" provided the major league club owners accept a self-proposed severance contract designed for his protection.

In agreeing to abdicate 11 months before the expiration of his seven-year contract, Chandler gave the owners the following ultimatum:

1. That he is to be paid in full the balance of his $65,000 annual salary which does not expire until May 30, 1952.
2. That he be indemnified against financial responsibility for any damages assessed against or incurred by him during the remaining year of his contract.
3. That he be relieved of all responsibilities such as expenses accrued by the commissioner's office for his ill-fated campaign to succeed himself.

Even then, should the severance pact be approved, Chandler will still have the final say as to the precise date when he will step out.

Chandler's offer of resignation in the hands of the American and National league attorneys, and said he was confident the owners would accept his proposal.

Junior High Softballers Schedule Opening Games

After the circus caused the cancellation of the opening of the Y.M.C.A. junior high school boys softball league last Saturday, the league's curtain raiser was slated for this Saturday.

Eight teams will be on hand at the Veteran's field Saturday with the first two games scheduled for 1 p.m., and the remaining two at 3 p.m.

The one o'clock games pit North Roseburg against Presbyterian and Methodist against Dilard Methodist. At 3, the News-Review meets Sutherland and Baptist tangles with Christian.

Christian Church Beats All-Stars

The Christian church softball team posted its fourth win without a defeat Thursday night by coming from behind in the last inning to edge the Vets All-Stars, 13-11.

In the only game of the evening at Veterans field, the Christians saw the All-Stars forge into a one-run lead in the top of the seventh. The All-Stars came from behind with a five-run burst on two errors, three walks and a single hit.

The Christian's Garry Piper, batting leadoff, averted disaster for his team in the bottom half of the frame by bringing in three runs with his team's second homer.

The winners went into the lead early in the game with two runs in the first and one in the second inning. The Vets tied it up in the third and went ahead by one run in the fourth. The lead changed again in the fifth when the Christians took advantage of some shaky pitching to push across seven runs.

Besides Piper's timely homer, his teammate Jim Artman lofted one in the second inning and the All-Star's Waybright did the same in the same inning.

Medalist DeMoss Opens Play Today

QUINCY, Ill. — (AP)—Pretty Pat Garner carried Texas' hopes into the quarterfinals of the Women's Trans-Mississippi golf tournament today against defending champion Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill.

Miss Garner, of Midland, Tex., who had been playing well only a little more than three years took on the deliberate and capable Miss Lindsay in one of two feature matches over the Quincy Country club course.

Playing sub par golf for the second straight day, Miss Garner eliminated Mrs. John Davis of Quincy, 5 and 3, yesterday with an assortment of shots featuring an eagle 3—her second of the tournament on the 437 yard ninth hole.

Miss Lindsay was charted in even par figures as her methodical shooting beat Ruth Tank, Quincy, 4 and 3.

The first match, and co-feature of the day between medalist Grace De Moss, of Corvallis, Ore., and Ruth More, Pekin, Ill., was scheduled for 2 p.m. (CST).

Miss De Moss, beaten in the 1950 trans finals by Miss Lindsay, came close to shooting herself out in the second round yesterday. She was one up over Mrs. Ann Breaull of Chicago, at the turn, but was one down through 16 holes as her woods and irons had her every place except on the fairways.

Two faulty drives by Mrs. Breaull, on the 17th and 18th, enabled Miss DeMoss to catch up and win the match.

The most shutouts mirrored in the major leagues was 113 by Walter Johnson. He achieved this total over a period of 21 years in the American league.

Dorish Pitches Chisox To 5-0 Win

Chicago Nips Washington; Brooks Tally

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

Fritz Dorish is the latest "waiver waif" to burst out as a shutout starter for the incredible Chicago White Sox.

Paul Richards has a new trick every day in the greatest sleight-of-hand job since Thurston sawed his last woman in two. And the end is not in sight. You wouldn't be too surprised if he pitched rather Gus Niarhos against the Yankees and got away with it.

He yanked Dorish out of the hat yesterday—his first start of her nine turns in the bullpen. But what need has Richards for a bullpen? His starters go the route every day. This was the Sox's 24th complete pitching job.

Dorish first cluttered up the box scores at Boston in 1947. In '48 and '49 when Sox pitching gave away more gobs of runs than Ted Williams and company could count, Dorish couldn't make it.

Both years he finished in the minors. Last year the St. Louis Browns grabbed him for $10,000. As a reward for a 6.99 earned run average even the Browns let him go. He was on the Toronto roster when the White Sox drafted him.

Dorish's neat five-hitter against Washington, 5-0, was Chicago's sixth shutout and 20th win in the last 22 starts. No wonder they lead the American league by a robust 4 1/2 game margin.

Senators Confused

The Sox confused the Senators with their amazing speed and daring behind a nine-hit attack. Stealing three bases in six attempts, they gave Julio Moreno, Joe Haynes and Sandy Consuegra the jitters. It was the Sox's sixth straight on their new string and the Senators' 16th loss in their last 18 games.

The New York Yankees barely averted another disaster in St. Louis, rallying with three in the ninth to pull out a 7-5 decision. The result left the world champs 4 1/2 games behind Chicago as they move into Comiskey park for a four-game set.

Bobby Brown's double tied the score in the ninth and Ralph Houk won it with a two-run single. With Yogi Berra sidelined by a pregame injury, Charley Silvera and Houk split the Yank catching duties. Berra was hit over the eye in a relay throwing contest.

Boston snapped its five-game losing streak at Detroit, 5-3, as Don DiMaggio kept his 27-game hitting streak alive and won the game with one blow. Dom singled to left with the bases full and secured tied in the eighth to hand the loss on Ted Gray.

Big Luke Easter led Cleveland back on the win path after two defeats with a three-run homer for a 6-3 edge over Philadelphia. Although nicked for 12 hits, Lou Brissie made his old mates become his first victims of the year.

While the star-dusted White Sox stole the headlines, Brooklyn quietly piled up a 6 1/2 game lead in the National. At the rate they're going they may sew it up by Labor day.

No waiver pitchers. No unknowns busting down fences. Just the same professionals who did it in '47 and '49 and may do it again.

Hurls One-run Win

Preacher Roe, the Brooks' meal ticket, skinned home with another one-run win, 2-1, over St. Louis. It was his eighth straight of an unbeaten season and fifth by one run.

The Cards outlit the Dodgers nine to five but a ninth-inning single by Carl Furillo with the bases loaded, score tied and none out broke up the game. It was a toughie for Rookie Tom Poholsky who had a three-hitter going to the ninth when he filled the bases with two walks and a single.

The enterprising Cincinnati Reds knocked off New York again, 5-4, to move into a second place tie with St. Louis. It's the Reds' best road trip in years, 6-2 against the east so far. Virgil Stallcup's three-run homer off Dave Kosko in the fifth, giving the Reds a 5-1 lead at the time, proved decisive.

Bobba Church pitched the Phils to a 7-1 romp over Chicago, allowing five hits for his sixth win.

charged with the loss—and Bob Drilling.

Portland, trailing 4-2 in the seventh, tied the game when Nagy gave up singles to Joe Rossi and Cal McIvry and walked Eddie Rockman to fill the bases and Brown, Nagy's relief, yielded a single to Eddie Barr.

Leo Thomas and Joe Brovia homered for the Beavers' first two runs. The Beavers and the Rainiers move to Seattle today for another fourgame series.
