

F. L. Thompson Upped To 1st Lieut. In Reserve

Fayette L. Thompson III, Sutherlin, has been promoted to the grade of First Lieutenant in the U.S. air force reserve, according to word received from headquarters, Fourth air force.

Lt. Thompson is training officer for the 9415th volunteer air reserve training squadron, Roseburg, and has been affiliated with that organization since its activation in 1947.

He served during World War II as an enlisted man with the central flying training command in the U. S. and overseas as a statistical control officer at Tacloban, Leyte, P.I.

ELECTRICITY KILLS TWO
OREGON CITY — (P) — Two men were killed by electric shock here yesterday when a windmill they were moving fell across a high voltage line.

They were Joe Pavlinac, 41, owner of a farm south of here, and Albert Taylor, 40. A third man, Ben Lindau, was treated for shock at a local hospital.

KIDNAP DIAL-LOG

JOE MASSEY SONGS: The young west/a troubadour is now heard Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights. His 6:00 o'clock show this Saturday features requests and a favorite hymnal.

BOY SCOUT SHOW: The fundraising drive for the Boy Scouts which takes place on Tuesday, June 12, rates a prelude at 6:15 p.m., with some of the leaders in the program talking over the Scout program and the need for operating money.

FAMILY THEATER: Miss Margaret O'Brien makes her fourth appearance on the popular 7:00 p.m. drama. She stars in the role of "The Hold-Out Heart," and plays the lonely orphan girl who longs desperately to be adopted and taken home from the orphanage. Rita Johnson will also be heard in a top dramatic role. Ricardo Montalban makes his seventh appearance as host for the evening.

MURDER BY EXPERTS: For a long time someone has been looking for the perfect alibi. An aspiring actor thought he had one—until a Hollywood scrivener telephoned an invitation to a party. That simple call shattered the alibi and provided the unique story of the "Dark Moon," heard at 8:00 p.m.

M-G-M THEATER OF AIR: Tomorrow at 5:00 p.m., Basis Rathbone and Lilli Palmer join forces to present the drama, "Queen Christina."

TWENTY QUESTIONS: At 8:00 o'clock Sunday night, Robert Preston, the stage, and screen star, joins the panel of experts, Fred VanDeventer, Florence Ricard, Herb Polensie and Johnny McPhee, in an evening of fun guessing the listener-submitted subjects.

CHICAGO THEATER: Soprano Margaret Roberts is guest soloist at 10:30 p.m. Tenor Harold Brinell, 27-year-old Chicago concert hopeful, will be the "Career Performances" air conditioner for the broadcast.

FROM THE WARFRONT: On Mutual Newsreel the past week a report on GI humor was heard. All over the roads are crude signs which paraphrase the "Drive Carefully" signs on U. S. Highways. But these signs read: "Drive Carefully. The man you kill may be your replacement."

Home Economists Attend Meeting In Oregon College

Mrs. Eugene Fisher, Kellogg, Mrs. Irvin Rice, Rice Valley, Mrs. A. F. Meyers, route 3, Roseburg, and Betty Jane Patterson, Roseburg, represented Douglas county at the Oregon Home Economics Extension council's 19th annual meeting June 6 and 7 at Corvallis. Theme of the meeting was "Working Together for World Understandings."

Dr. A. L. Strand, Oregon State college president, spoke on "Home Life in the Philippines." He discussed how the people there lived, ate and thought. He emphasized that "We of America should learn to understand our foreign neighbors."

Mrs. Edgar Leming of Cornelius, and Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick of Merrill, who attended a triennial conference of the Associated Country Women of the World held in Copenhagen, Denmark, showed colored slides and talked about the home life in Denmark and other European countries.

The state council has been working the past three years on a project to raise funds to build a girls co-operative house on the Oregon State campus. This year they completed their goal of raising $45,000 to build this house. The final check was presented to Dr. Strand at the banquet Wednesday evening.

Dr. Strand expressed his thanks. He said Azalea house would be built by the fall of 1952 and would be primarily used for outstanding 4-H club members and girls interested in home economics. The house will be one of low living cost.

Linn and Benton counties have women's choruses consisting of home extension unit members. Both choruses appeared at the luncheon and banquet.

New officers elected are: Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, Merrill, president; Mrs. Leslie G. Kribbs, Bend, vice-president; Mrs. Harold Reiley, Halsey, treasurer; and Mrs. Russell Ebbert, Springfield, secretary.

Five Soldiers In Korea Desire Correspondence

If you want a pen pal, there are five soldiers in Korea who would appreciate a letter. In a note to the News-Review they asked that their addresses be printed "because we do not receive much mail from the states."

Mail should be addressed to HQ & HQ Battery, 78th AAA Gun Bn., APO 301, care of Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

They are: Cpl. Wesley Howard, RA 18314865; Pfc. Kenneth Vernon, RA 18320436; Pvt. Ollie Bell, RA 18328202; Pvt. Billy J. Cook, RA 17364296; and Pvt. Allan Moore, RA 23043203.

Tiller Community Plans Program

"June Halleluiah" is the name of the forthcoming production of the Tiller Troupers to be given at the Days Creek auditorium Friday night, June 29. Among the several acts will be "Clothesline Capers," an original musical skit, with Reg Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Brown of Days Creek, who has recently moved here from California, directing the music. In this skit, Barbara Snyder will take the singing lead.

Included also will be a one-act play with Bette Mallory, Marylyn Price and Betty Aker taking the roles. The program will be diversified for general audience appeal.

At a recent meeting at the W. Frank Brown home, final plans were made for the big show and rehearsals were held. At the close of the business of the evening, Mrs. Brown served refreshments and there was group singing. Mrs. Anton Erlebach gave a reading and Mrs. Lucille MacLean, Lynn and Ann MacLean gave a preview of their part in the coming production.

Among those at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gosnell and their daughter, Marcy, Mrs. George Aker, Mrs. Horace Corbett, Mrs. MacLean and her three daughters, Lynn, Anne, and Nancy, and Mrs. Anton Erlebach.

Along with those who will go to the 4-H summer camp in Corvallis from June 12 to June 22 will be Charlotte Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins, and Frances King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred King, both of Tiller. These girls each received a scholarship to attend the ten-day camp.

On Saturday night, June 16 residents of the Tiller area will attend a basket social at the Drew dance hall. After supper there will be both square and social dancing.

2 Oregon Papers Change Owners

HEPPNER, Ore. — (P) — Ownership and management of the Heppner Gazette, Times, weekly newspaper published here each Thursday, has been sold by Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Crawford to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Penland of Lebanon, effective July 1.

Penland is a graduate of the University of Oregon school of journalism in 1939, spent four years on the Bend Bulletin advertising staff, and during the war was at Coos Bay for a year and a half, then going to the Lebanon Express where he was manager six and a half years.

CONDON — (P) — Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Glabe, publishers of the Condon Globe-Times, have announced purchase of the Fossil Journal, weekly newspaper published in Wheeler county.

Hardie, state senator representing Gilliam, Wheeler and Sherman counties, made the purchase from H. J. Simmons, owner of the Journal for 33 years. Simmons will retire.

The new owners expect to take possession July 1. They said they will hire an editor to operate the Journal. The Fossil weekly is one of the oldest in eastern Oregon, dating back to 1886.

Retail Price-Cut War Extends To Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Wash. — (P) — The retail price war spread to this area at a downtown store advertised price cuts in electrical appliances.

Vacuum cleaners, refrigerators, radios, ironers, toasters and other appliances were advertised by the Ribick Furniture Co., at reduced prices. Ranges and refrigerators were advertised as much as $100 under fair trade listing. A waffle iron was listed $9 under fair trade level, a vacuum cleaner $37 under level.

No other store indicated it would join in the war.
