

GOLDEN WEDDING EVENT HELD IN EUGENE FOR JOHN BROWN FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin Brown celebrated their golden wedding anniversary June 3 at the River Road clubhouse north of Eugene. The Brown family lived for many years in the Tenmile community and Mr. Brown was a school teacher in Douglas county. They were also early leaders in establishing the Kansas day picnic in the Roseburg district.

A large group attended the anniversary. The afternoon hours were spent visiting, looking at photograph albums and taking pictures. Lovely floral arrangements decorated the refreshment table and the rooms, and background music was provided by Mrs. Lee. Among members of the family attending the anniversary were Gerald Brown, Springfield, Colo.; Harold Brown and Charles Brown, Downey, Calif., and Mrs. Clair (Helen) Vaughn, four children of Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Ray (Camille) Brauner Vaughn, a granddaughter and her two sons, David and Gregory. Mrs. Edith S. Ackert and daughter, Mrs. Carol A. Stingley, attended from Roseburg.

MRS. BOB WEBSTER HONORED AT SHOWER PARTY RECENTLY

Mrs. Bob Webster was the inspiration for a lovely affair recently when Mrs. Albert Boone and Mrs. Don Lovell complimented her with a pink and blue shower and a handkerchief shower in honor of her birthday anniversary. The party was held in the attractive home of Mrs. Albert Boone in Winston. The rooms were beautifully decorated with large bouquets of roses and sweet peas. Games were played during the evening hours and a number of clever prizes were awarded, after which the honored guest opened her gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the evening.

Enjoying the affair were Mrs. Sarah Cyrus, Mrs. Jim Murphy and daughter, Miss Teresa, Mrs. Harold Weaver, Mrs. Bob McMullen, Mrs. W. I. Wands, Mrs. Paul Anderson, Mrs. Edwin Fosback, Mrs. Ken Day, Mrs. Bob Lucky, and the hostesses, Mrs. Boone and Mrs. Lovell.

HOUSEWARMING PARTY IS EVENT OF SATURDAY NIGHT AT ARLE J. TAYLOR HOME

A surprise housewarming party complimented Mr. and Mrs. Arle J. Taylor at their new home in Hu-Crest Saturday evening. Friends called with a gift and refreshments were served after an evening spent visiting and playing games.

Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stavey, Mr. and Mrs. William Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. Del Cornutt, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Darley Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Anderson, Mrs. Fern Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rose and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Verrell.

Wedding Is Large Event of May 5th

Miss Geraldine Broszio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Broszio, of Wilbur, became the bride of Patrick Christie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Christie, of Wilbur, May 5, at nine o'clock in the morning at St. Joseph's church in Roseburg. Father Edmund Hyland performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of friends and relatives.

Large bouquets of lilacs and roses formed the decorations. Organ music was played during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white semi-formal net gown with a small white hat and matching shoulder-length veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Lura Scallon, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a blue semi-formal gown with a red roseburg corsage. Philip Scallon acted as best man and the ushers were Scott Henry and Ryland Broszio.

The bride's mother wore a pink flowered dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue suit with navy accessories and a white carnation corsage.

A wedding reception followed at the Wilbur schoolhouse. A large bouquet of tulips formed the table centerpiece. The first piece of the beautifully decorated two-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bridal couple.

Mrs. Phillip Scallon served the wedding cake and Mrs. Ella Henry, aunt of the bride, served the punch. For traveling the bride wore a light red suit with a corsage of red rosebuds.

Following a honeymoon to California and Nevada, the couple will reside at their new home in Wilbur.

The bride has resided in Wilbur all her life. She was graduated from Roseburg Senior high school and has been employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in Roseburg, only recently resigning her position. The bridegroom has resided in Wilbur for several years, coming here from Glendale, Ore. He is in the lumber business with his father and operates a mill in Wilbur. The wedding picture was taken by Bud Mason.

A most delightful surprise kitchen and pyrex shower was given by Mrs. N. E. Richardson Saturday morning at her home in compliment to Miss Karen Kronke, popular bride-elect, who will marry Norval Ferguson, June 17. Miss Kronke is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kronke of this city.

Azaleas and Dutch iris formed a pretty motif for the rooms. Lovely gifts were presented to Miss Kronke from the hostess, Mrs. Richardson, and Miss Minnie Bell, Mrs. H. C. Paslow, Mrs. Malcolm Humphrey and daughters, Sandra and Pat; Mrs. E. J. Wainwright, Mrs. Albert Kronke, Mrs. Fred Ritzman, Mrs. Larkin Rice, Mrs. Charles Vleck, Mrs. Kenneth Taylor, Mrs. L. A. Dillard, Mrs. R. A. Kronke and Mrs. Laura Conley.

Following the opening of the gifts, Mrs. Richardson, assisted by Mrs. Albert Kronke, served light refreshments.

Mrs. F. J. Herman Re-elected Chairman

Mrs. Fred J. (Velma) Herman, Roseburg, who has done outstanding work as chairman of the Board of Control for Theta Rho Girls' Clubs of Oregon, was again elected chairman of this important youth group for the coming year.

As chairman during the past year, Mrs. Herman instituted new clubs at Warrenton, Molalla, Willamina and Canby and reactivated one at Turner, making a total of 44 clubs in the state with about 1600 members. Girls are 12 to 18 years of age and every club is sponsored by the Rebekah lodge in its respective community.

Mrs. Herman has visited all the clubs of the state and held eight district meetings. She also attended the state Theta Rho Assembly of California.

The state board of control sponsored several contests during the year to further the interest of the girls in the phases of their work. In a community service contest, Beta Mu No. 60, Warrenton, won the award, with honorable mention going to Beta Lambda No. 35, Estacada, and Beta Iota, No. 56, Salem.

For attendance of Rebekahs at the Theta Rho meetings, Beta Epsilon No. 53, Jefferson, won the award and honorable mention went to Beta Zeta, No. 54, Springfield, and Alpha Zeta, No. 30, Roseburg.

To Beta Iota No. 57, Salem went the award for having the most members giving the obligation letter perfect in open club and honorable mention to Alpha Sigma, No. 42, Prairie City; and Beta Mu No. 60, Warrenton.

The Helena Hayes perpetual trophy, given for the best attendance of members, on a percentage basis, was won by Willamina, with honorable mention to Beta Iota, Salem, and Alpha Iota, Alpha No. 1, Corvallis.

This trophy was donated by Mrs. Helena Hayes, sister-in-law of Mrs. Herman, a member of Roseburg Rebekah lodge, and is to remain permanently with the club that succeeds in winning it three times. Other members of the Board of Control, Theta Rho Girls' Clubs of Oregon, who will assist Mrs. Herman during the coming year, are, Mrs. Florence Scott, Prairie City; Mrs. Ann Underwood, Estacada; Mrs. Vernice Schultz, Florence; Mrs. Genevieve Embrie, Cascade Locks, and Mrs. Venetta Chapman, Corvallis.

At the recent sessions of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, held at Klamath Falls, permission was granted the Board of Control to conduct a Theta Rho Assembly, every year, the third Friday in June, starting in 1952. The Assembly also appropriated funds to start said Assembly. A constitution for the new assembly was also adopted.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL K. RYAN, pictured above by Carter's Camera and Gift store, are receiving fresh pineapples from one of the bellboys of the Royal Hawaiian hotel in Honolulu, who was celebrating his 25th anniversary as an employee of the hotel that day. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan went to Honolulu to attend the Pacific Coast Hotel convention. They left here May 1 and returned to their home on East Lane street, May 28. While in Hawaii, they enjoyed an inter-island trip by plane. They made the trip on the USS Lurline and report they liked the vacation so much, they plan to take the trip again.
