

Honored Queen of Bethel

Miss Mary Ellen Holbrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Holbrook of 749 South Main street, will be installed as honored queen of Jobs Daughters, Bethel No. 8, Roseburg, at a public installation to be held Monday, June 11, at 7:30 p. m. at the Masonic temple. Retiring honored queen is Miss Paula Helweg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Helweg Riverside drive.

At a meeting held Tuesday evening at the temple a class of 12 candidates were initiated. Dessert-supper in the temple dining room preceded the business session and initiation. Plans were discussed for a summer picnic and swimming party to be held at the Bodin summer home at Winchester on the North Umpqua. An experience party will feature the early fall months with Bethel members earning a dollar during the summer for Bethel expenditures. Seven girls were given the proficiency examination with Mrs. A. J. Ellison Bethel guardian, in charge. At the close of the initiation the new members introduced their parents. The new members include Carmen Ford, Charlene Boyles, Nancy Bodin, Joan Richmond, Karen Arkell, Sally Adams, Evangelina Chapman, Doris Fennell, Peggy Tison, Judith Grecian, Sara Skinner and Hollene Hansen.

Miss Gladys H. Strong Presents Piano Pupils

Two very delightful piano recitals of a series of spring recitals were given this week by pupils of Miss Gladys Strong. On Monday evening a group of girls ranging in age from pre-school to eighth grade were presented. On Tuesday evening boys also ranging in age from pre-school but including high school students played. Both programs were very interesting and enjoyable. The talented young students played musically having poise and enthusiasm for their work. Their playing showed an emphasis upon musical style resulting from developing musicianship as well as technique. A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program by the pupils and their guests. Miss Strong served refreshments. On Monday evening the following girls played:

Mary Jo Woodworth, Carol Lindell, Sarah Lindell, Mary Lindell, Kathleen Oakley, Wendy Cring, Marilyn Heiland, Barbara Schaefer, Carlene Conrad, Ann Kelly, Myra Kelly, Donna Metzger, Jeanette Rinehart, Charlene West, Ruth West, Bonnie Sue Holcomb, Bonnie Roark, Juanita Jurgens, Suzanne Lee, Charlene Boyles, Karen Halladay and Camille Robertson. On Tuesday evening the following boys played: Michael Montgomery, Mark Montgomery, Glenn Hunter, Bobby Hobi, Herbert Hobi, Jack McLennan, Arnold Jackson, Jimmy Cook, Allyn Ford, Tommy Lindell, Eddie Lindell, James Hall, Stephen Hall, Ernest Sharp, Bernard Steinberger, Peter Warg, Tom Taylor and Jerry Feldkamp.

Fashion Show And Tea Charming Events Friday

The loveliest of summer fashions were shown by Miller's at St. George's Episcopal guild tea and fashion show Friday afternoon in the beautiful garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Micelli on the Melrose road. The affair was open to the public as a benefit sponsored by the guild and was attended by a large number of members and friends.

Mrs. Ella Gray very graciously acted as commentator for the fashion show. Mrs. Paul Geddes played the organ music for the occasion. The organ was loaned by Ott-Ricketts Music store.

Mrs. Deming Bronson, incoming president, and Mrs. G. N. Siefarth, retiring president, with Mrs. Micelli, received the guests. The fashions were shown in the back garden of the home. Models entered the garden from the living room and walked the length of the oval lawn and around the large lily pool and back to the house. Shelley Plimpton, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Sherman Plimpton, and Leslie Tuck, young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Tuck, opened the style show by modeling bathing suits.

Summer street ensembles, dresses, suits, evening gowns and swimming suits were shown. Highlight of the show was the bridal party with Miss Pat Merlich wearing the bride's gown and veil.

Models for the occasion besides the two children were Mrs. May Mathews, Mrs. A. G. Henninger, Miss Nadine Sparks, Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. John Killip, Mrs. Frank B. Woodworth, Mrs. Theo Bond and Miss Pat Merlich.

Following the fashion show, the guests enjoyed strolling through the extensive gardens, which includes hundreds of flowers, shrubs, specimen trees, several pools, a waterfall and miniature creek as well as an outdoor living room and fireplace. Enormous, well-kept lawns add to the attractiveness of the beautifully planted grounds.

Lovely refreshments were served at the tea hour from an attractively appointed serving table in the garden. Mrs. Alfred S. Tyson and Mrs. J. C. Hume poured. Mrs. O. J. Fett and Mrs. John Pierce had charge of the tickets. Mrs. Robert N. Browning was in charge of the table, which was beautifully decorated by Mrs. L. L. Wimberly.

Mrs. Harold Thomas Is Honored at Shower Party

Mrs. Harold Thomas was honored with a pink and blue shower Friday night at her home in Dillard, with Mrs. Bertha Swanson, Mrs. Hazel Thomas and Mrs. Edith Bratsch acting as hostesses. The rooms were decorated with roses and iris, a gift of Mrs. Eric Johnson of Green. The serving table was beautiful with pink roses and blue iris and was centered with a large sheet cake decorated in pink and blue.

Contest games were played and prizes awarded to Mrs. Vernon Bratsch, Mrs. Lulu Post, Mrs. Pat Matson and Mrs. Harold Thomas. The door prize was won by Mrs. Ray Fritz. The honored guest's mother, Mrs. R. E. Fritz and sister, Miss Mary Lou, and Mrs. Melissa Pearl Hooker, all of St. Helens, attended, bringing with them the gifts that were received when Mrs. Hooker had a shower in honor of Mrs. Thomas at her home in St. Helens. Her "home town" friends assembled in her honor, wrapped her gifts and placed them in the beautifully decorated bassinet. Great amusement was afforded the honored guest in unwrapping her shower gifts. Gifts from St. Helens were from Mrs. Pearl Hooker and Mrs. Fritz, hostesses. Mrs. Ella Stickler, Mrs. Katherine Stickler, Mrs. Sally Meyers, Mrs. P. J. Madden, Mrs. Kenneth Addy, Mrs. John Holland, Mrs. Lillian Tompkins, Mrs. Lillian Tatro, Mrs. Toni Tatro, Mrs. Violet Thomas, Mrs. Rhoda Saulser, Mrs. B. W. Kohlstrand, Mrs. Sig Sandstrom and Miss Mary Lou Fritz. Gifts received from Dillard guests were: Mrs. Bert Swanson, Mrs. Hazel Thomas, Mrs. Harry Bratsch, Mrs. Rosa Heinbach, Mrs. Stella Finnell, Mrs. Vernon Bratsch, Mrs. Snelling, Mrs. Don Matson, Mrs. Donald Martyn, Mrs. Leo Willis, Mrs. William Stringer, Mrs. Edith Stack, Mrs. Bill Cooper, Mrs. Roger Matson, Mrs. Zella Jorgenson, Mrs. Sonny Swanson, Mrs. Eric Johnson, Mrs. Kay McLennan, Mrs. Lee McGee, Mrs. Lulu Post, Mrs. R. E. Fritz, Mrs. Pearl Hooker, Miss Mary Lou Fritz and Mrs. Edna Shelton. Mrs. Thomas presented her three hostesses with a gift of aprons and pot holders. The hostesses served delicious refreshments.

BRIDAL SHOWER GIVEN IN HONOR OF BARBARA THOMAS

A bridal shower was given in honor of Miss Barbara Thomas of Astoria, Friday evening, June 1 at the Galeville schoolhouse.

A potluck supper was served with a wedding cake as dessert. The program presented consisted of Mrs. Lorane Cattnach and her father, Mr. Stuff, playing several musical numbers, Mr. Lee Allen singing, Mrs. Cliff Worley played on the harmonica, Nora Gaedicke, Vera Kemp, Leveta Carterberry and Jerry Halstead gave a skit. Mrs. Vera Kemp presented a reading and the rest of the evening was spent in group singing.

PUBLIC IS INVITED TO PIANO RECITAL TO BE GIVEN NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

A recital presenting the more advanced students of Miss Gladys Strong will be given on Tuesday evening, June 12th, at 8 p. m. at the First Baptist Church. An interesting program has been planned including ensemble numbers as well as solos. Several student concerts are to be played with the orchestral part # on the organ by Mrs. Paul Geddes.

Three of these numbers were composed by Jean Williams, an Oregon composer. The following students are to be presented: Ernest Sharp, Eddie Lindell, Suzanne Lee, Ruth West, Juanita Jurgens, Colleen McDonald, Carol Ann Hunter, Gayle Geddes, Charlene Boyles, Karen Halladay, Donna Wilson, Aileen P. A. Thomas Taylor, Marilyn Wilson, Mollie Fullerton, Jerry Feldkamp, Sandra Melba, Donna Jean Ellison and Mrs. H. F. Tilche.

SHIRLEY ANN HELWEG ACCEPTED FOR WORK IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

Shirley Ann Helweg, student at Willamette university, Salem, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Helweg of Roseburg has been accepted for membership in the Washington Student Citizenship seminar, sponsored by the YMCA and YWCA.

The seminar is composed of 50 college students from all parts of the country. The students will live in Washington, D. C. from June 23 to Aug. 31 and will gain first-hand knowledge of governmental procedure at meetings of prominent people in Washington and will actually work in government agencies.

Miss Helweg is visiting here at her home and with her family will leave next Tuesday for the east. She will visit her grandfather in Minneapolis and will visit an uncle and aunt at Wellesley Hills, near Boston, Mass., prior to going to Washington D. C. The students will spend the first week in Washington, D. C., taking conducted tours to points of interest in and around the capitol.

DILLARD SOCIETY HOLDS MEETING LAST TUESDAY

The Executive Board of the Dillard Woman's Society of Christian service held a cabinet meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George McDowell. A dessert-luncheon was served by the hostess, followed by the business meeting. Tentative plans were made for the calendar of the coming year, including two fashion shows, a father and son banquet a mother-daughter tea, bazaars, rummage and cooked food sales during the year for fund raising projects. Those present were: Mrs. Eileen Andrus, Mrs. Lulu Post, Mrs. Jo Leshner, Mrs. Betty Dree, Mrs. Vivian Burgess, Mrs. Lila McKeane, Mrs. Rosa Heinbach, Mrs. McDowell. The guests were Marsha and Lois Williams, Phillip and Christine Burgess, Robert Leshner, Lee and Eddie McDowell.

INTER-SE STUDY CLUB PICNIC HELD SUNDAY

The members of the Inter-Se club entertained their families and guests at a picnic dinner at Umpqua park last Sunday, June 3. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hopton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geddes, daughters Polly, Carol and Gayle; Mr. and Mrs. George Churchill and sons Johnny and Frankie; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lindell and Carol, Eddie

THE WEDDING SCENE of St. George's Episcopal Guild fashion show, held Friday afternoon from two to five o'clock in the beautiful garden at the A. F. Micelli home on the Melrose road, was very lovely. Left to right include: Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. May

Mathews, Mrs. G. N. Siefarth, Miss Pat Merlich, acting as the bride; Miss Nadine Sparks, Mrs. Theo Bond, Mrs. A. G. Henninger, Mrs. F. B. Woodworth and Mrs. John Killip. (Picture by Paul Jenkins)

MRS. PAUL GEDDES, at the organ, played the music for the Episcopal Guild fashion show in the Micelli garden Friday afternoon. With her back to the camera is Mrs. May Mathews, who is returning to the terrace, following her modeling a peach organically evening gown. Fashions were from Miller's. Mrs. Ella Gray acted as commentator. (Picture by Paul Jenkins)

DOUBLE SHOWER GIVEN AT MEETING OF BETA GAMMA CHAPTER

A pink and blue shower was given for Mrs. L. J. Bean and Mrs. John Mowery who are members of Beta Gamma chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, at the home of Mrs. Craig Dishman, Thursday evening.

An umbrella trimmed in blue and white suspended over the gift table as decorations. Pink and white roses were placed on the table and around the room. Also a handkerchief shower was given for Mrs. W. F. Schell Jr. who is moving away.

Those present were Mrs. Bill Shultz, Mrs. Bob Sullivan, Mrs. Don Rogan, Miss Joy Wampler, Mrs. Harold Carey, Mrs. Dale Roles. Sending gifts but not attending were, Mrs. Pete Fullerton, Mrs. Bob Hallcraft, Mrs. Lowell Rhoden.

A short business meeting was held and details for the international convention to be held in Eugene was also discussed. Refreshments were served after the gifts were opened.

MR. AND MRS. PRICE INVITE FRIENDS TO GOLDEN WEDDING AFFAIR

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Price, prominent Douglas county residents, will celebrate their golden wedding Sunday, June 17, from two to five o'clock at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Stricker, at Glendale. Mr. and Mrs. Price were married 50 years ago in Wilbur and have resided in Douglas county all of their lives. A most cordial invitation has been extended to all relatives and friends to attend the open house celebrating their golden wedding anniversary.

FLOWER GARDENS VISITED BY DILLARD WOMEN

A group of flower enthusiasts took a trip Monday visiting different gardens of interest. They visited the outstanding display of rare varieties of iris grown by Mr.

Miller at Winchester. The ladies making the trip were Mrs. Fred Albertus, Mrs. Rosa Heinbach, Mrs. Alvin Tipton, Mrs. Blaine Stafford, Mrs. Olivia Lander and Mrs. Otto Lange. After visiting several gardens the group returned to Mrs. Tipton's home in Green and enjoyed her fine collection of blooming roses, and were served refreshments. They were joined by Mrs. Abner Rice Jr. of Dillard and her mother, Mrs. Young of Garden Valley. This group hope to form a garden club and make future visitations to interesting gardens.

THIMBLE CLUB MEETS MAY 28th AT BURTON HOME

Neighbors of Woodcraft Thimble club met May 28 at the home of Lois Burton. A one o'clock potluck luncheon was served to guests. Mrs. Winnie Croucher from Medford and Isabel Burby from Fairbanks, Alaska. The members present were Anna Hess, Malba Miller, Winnie Hawn, Martha Erskine, Hattie Neal, Effie Croucher, Bertha Worthington, Lydia Hoopes, Lilly Lohr and the hostess, Lois Burton.

FRIENDS SURPRISE THE NORMAN HESS'S WITH HOUSEWARMING PARTY

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hess honored them with a surprise housewarming party Saturday night. Those calling at the new home to present a camellia plant to the Hesses were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Radigan, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Thielen, Mr. and Mrs. Verdun Boucock, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weiker and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith.

MELROSE TANDA HORIZON CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS AT WEDNESDAY MEETING

An election of officers was held when the Melrose Tanda Horizon club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. James Conn. Donna Dillon will serve as president for the coming term. Assisting her will be Darlene Busenbark vice president; Jeanine Conn, secretary; Donna Barker, treasurer and Donna Barker, scribe.

Refreshments for the community dance were discussed during the meeting and slides and movies were enjoyed during the social hour. Those attending were Donna Dillon, Donna Sunberg, Jeanine Conn, Gail Conn, Phyllis Williamson, Darlene Druse, Anita Herman, Chuckie Sand, Dorothy Finn, Donna Barker and the advisor, Amy Kruse. Refreshments were served at the end of the meeting.

MR. AND MRS. J. A. WISE of Marion, who were married 50 years ago on the old Warner place, three miles south of Yoncalla, recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at the Jefferson church of Christ. There were 170 guests attending the reception. Scotch broom and lilacs formed the church decorations. The tiered wedding cake was arranged on a gold center-piece and flanked by gold tapers. Mrs. P. Hanna of Oregon City and Loyd Wise of Yoncalla were the only two guests present, who were at the wedding 50 years ago. Attending from Yoncalla were Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Wise and son, Lethel; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Huntington and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston. Mr. Wise is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Wise of Yoncalla. He was born and reared in Yoncalla. His brother, Loyd, still lives in Scotts Valley.