MIDWEEK BIBLE CLASS MET AT PARISH HOUSE THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The Mid-Week Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church met Thursday afternoon at the parish house with Mrs. Hinther and Mrs. Buettner acting as co-hostesses.

The meeting opened with the singing of a hymn. An important topic of discussion was the daily vacation Bible school. All parents in the neighborhood are urged to enroll their children. The school will be for two weeks starting June 18 until June 29.

St. Paul's congregation mission festival and picnic will be July 22 at 10:30 a.m. at the Veterans Facility picnic grounds.

The next meeting of the Bible class will be July 12, at the home of Mrs. Walter Nehring at Camas Valley. Everyone is asked to meet at the parish house at 11 a.m. as the meeting is to be after a potluck luncheon.

Following the Bible topic discussion, the meeting closed with a prayer and then the hostesses served refreshments.

NOW HE'LL STAY PUT LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Forty-

two years ago Emil Arky checked into the Hayward hotel in downtown Los Angeles. He told the clerk he'd be there two or three days. He's still there and the hotel believes he really likes the place. Wednesday, Arky celebrated his 80th birthday, and his retirement as a salesman. Some of his cronies threw a party for him, birthday cake and all. "I'm going to settle down," Arky told them.
