

ROY COLBURN, above left, and Mrs. A. J. Ellison, right, who are associate guardian and guardian of Roseburg bathel, No. 8, pose with the newly installed honored queen, Mary Ellen Holbrook. In the picture below, the new officers include: Nancy Allen, Donna Ellison, Mary Ellen Holbrook, Lois Patterson, Paula Helwig and Lonita Kelley. (Pictures by Paul Jenkins).

BPWC Officers Installed At Candlelight Ceremony

The Roseburg Business and Professional Women held their regular meeting at the Episcopal parish hall Monday evening with Mrs. Flossie Virden, president, in charge. Annual reports were given by outgoing officers and Mrs. Stella Spencer and Mrs. Laura Iles, co-chairmen for the state convention held in Roseburg last month, made their final convention report. A candlelight formal installation of new officers for the year 1951-52 was held with Miss V. Vivian Logsdon acting as installing officer. Miss Logsdon installed a nd presented with corsages the following: Mrs. Mildred Herman as president, Mrs. Priscilla Clarenbach, first vice president, Mrs. Edith Landis, second vice president; Mrs. Virginia Ashcraft, recording secretary; Mrs. Edythe Gilmour, treasurer, and Mrs. Flossie Virden, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Ann Storrs was installed as Sgt. - at - arms by proxy, Mrs. Gladys Foley filling in for her. Mrs. Virden was presented with a lovely suit by Mrs. Herman on behalf of the out-going officers and Mrs. Virden in turn presented her out-going officers with very pretty and unique corsages. Refreshments were served by the officers and Miss Logsdon.

MRS. W. C. PULLEY IS HONORED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. W. C. Pulley was the inspiration for a luncheon recently when Mrs. Don Shepherd entertained in honor of her birthday anniversary. The party was held at the Shepherd home in Winston. Large bouquets of roses from the garden were used about the rooms and as a centerpiece for the serving table. Following the salad luncheon an appropriately decorated birthday cake was cut in Mrs. Pulley's honor and gifts were presented. The remaining afternoon hours were spent in laying canasta. High score was won by Mrs. Norman Slack with low score going to Mrs. Henry Nickel. Those present, besides the hostess and the honored guest were: Mrs. Norma Slack, Mrs. Art Griese, Mrs. Howard Bird, Mrs. Roy Fisher, Mrs. Clark Wicker, Mrs. Henry Nickel and Mrs. Albin Nelson.

MRS. ALFRED ANDERSON COMPLIMENTED AT BIRTHDAY AFFAIR FRIDAY

Mrs. Alfred Anderson was honored at a charming one - thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon and party honoring her birthday Friday and given by Mrs. A. F. Micelli, Mrs. James Hughes and Mrs. W. C. Callison at the attractive Micelli home on the Melrose road. A birthday gift was presented to the guest of honor from the three hostesses and Mrs. J. F. Dillard.

Mrs. Roy Sedell, Mrs. Fred Stever, Mrs. I. J. Bean, Mrs. Clyde Knight, Mrs. A. B. Collier, Mrs. S. M. Moore, Mrs. E. R. Harvey, Mrs. A. J. Murray and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

High score for the afternoon's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Anderson with Mrs. Knight winning second high score.

MARK MONTGOMERY CELEBRATED HIS SEVENTH BIRTHDAY

Mark Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Montgomery, Roseburg, had a party Tuesday on his seventh birthday. Games were played and each guest won a prize. Refreshments were served to: Mark, Mike, Joan and Bruce Montgomery; Mary, Sarah and Ann Lindsell; Terry Russell, Robin Kidder, Mary Jo, Susan and Peter Woodruff and Herbert, Bobby and Hermie Hobi.

A LOVELY BRIDAL SHOWER was given by Arlene Coffman and Janet and Joyce Harpham Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Coffman at Deer creek in compliment to Karen Kronke, who will become the bride of Norval Ferguson, June 17. Seated from left to right in the above picture are: Janet Lander, Karen Kronke, Arlene Coffman, Ruth Chism, Esther Johnson and Betty Hurd. Standing: Joyce Harpham, Darlene Miller, Lois McKinney and Janet Harpham. Guests not in the picture included Virginia Jones and Jackie Evans. Lovely gifts were presented, after which a wedding ring cake was served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Coffman, Mrs. Albert Kronke and Mrs. V. V. Harpham. (Picture by Paul Jenkins)

Installed as Honored Queen

Miss Joyce Loper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Loper, of Riddle was installed as honored queen of Jobs Daughters, Bethel 29, Riddle, at a public installation held Monday evening at the Masonic temple. Miss Carolyn Hill of Days Creek, retiring honored queen, acted as installing officer assisted by Theo Mann, installing guide; Barbara Snyder, installing marshal; Priscilla Wren, installing chaplain; Henrietta Townsend, installing recorder; Merle Walker, installing musician; Pat Ritzman, installing senior custodian, and Wilma Stremcha, installing junior custodian. The little Misses Bonnie Loper and Janice Mann, dressed in pink formals, lighted the candles. Officers seated with Miss Loper were: Bertha Mae Aspey, senior princess; Norma Townsend, junior princess; Pat McNeese, guide; Joanne Hausotter, marshal; Paige Ausmus, outer guard; Sharon Gabrielson, inner guard; Virginia Schmidt, junior custodian; Isa MacDonald, senior custodian; first, second, third, fourth and fifth messengers, Beverly Dort, Sandra Andrews, Doris Wright, Joanne Custis and Conner Cypert, Della Wright, librarian; Patty Hill, recorder; Barbara MacDonald, treasurer; Jane Gould, musician; Darrellene Carter, chaplain; Eileen Shepherd, flag bearer; Barbara Wilcox, historian; Sheri Leatherwood, lady of the lights; Martha Gosnell, soloist; Katherine Giles, Mary Lou Cadiz, Judy Connor and Dianne Inman, pages. Mrs. J. L. Aikins, bethel guardian, presented Queen Joyce with a past queen's jewel. Milton Andrews, associate guardian, presented Carolyn Hill with her past queen's jewel. Installation was followed by a short program and social hour.

Presents Charming Ballet

Jeanne Maddox, above, former Roseburg girl and a granddaughter of Mrs. B. W. Maddox of this city has just recently presented a group of 35 ballet students in a recital at Astoria. An audience of 600 enjoyed the charming affair at the Elks lodge. Jeanne is only 15 years of age and maintains her dance studio in the basement of the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Maddox, in Astoria. She is also a very talented pianist and is in much demand as an accompanist for prominent singers in Astoria. The costuming of the recital was lovely and youthful as Jeanne has students ranging in age from four to twelve years. At the close of the evening she was presented a large bouquet of American Beauty Roses. The picture of Miss Maddox was taken by the William E. Nolan studio in Astoria.

GLORIA GAY VAN HORN CELEBRATED BIRTHDAY WITH LAWN PARTY

A host of small friends of Gloria Gay Van Horn gathered at her parents' home on North Stephens, Thursday afternoon, to celebrate her eighth birthday anniversary with a lawn party. The table was decorated with a large cake as centerpiece. Many interesting games were enjoyed by the group. Mrs. V. Sullivan and Glenda Van Horn assisted Mrs. Van Horn with the serving of refreshments. Many lovely gifts were presented to the honored Gloria by Sharon Means, Ginger Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Van Horn, Tana Brunk, Joyce McMillan, David and Doyle Lewis, Glenda Van Horn, David and Jimmy Knutson, Roger, Linda and Johnny Johnson, Patty Myers, Eddie Davis, Sandra Van Horn, Janice Stephens, Charles and Efton Sullivan, Vonnie Inblade, Bobby Nelson and Nelita White.

ROSEBURG CREDIT WOMEN'S BREAKFAST CLUB HELD LAST MEETING AT SHALIMAR ROOM

The Roseburg Credit Women's Breakfast club met in the Shalimar room Wednesday morning. General business was the topic of discussion. Those present were: Vivian Logsdon, Shirley Iverson, Jimmie Clark, Shirley Blixseth, Daynise Beach, Florence Hughes,

ZULEIMA TEMPLE NO. 13 TO HAVE FINAL MEETING AT J. A. JOELSON HOME

Zuleima temple No. 13, Roseburg Daughters of the Nile club, will hold its final sewing meeting of the summer at the home of Mrs. J. A. Joelson, 620 South Main, June 20, 10:30 a. m. until 4. The meeting will be in the basement recreation room of the Joelson home. All members are urged to come and sew. There is a rear entrance to the downstairs room and the members are asked to use it. Those who can not come are asked to call

INFORMAL DINNER PARTY GIVEN AT CLARENCE TRUED HOME

Mr. and Mrs. S. Clarence Trued entertained at an informal dinner party on Tuesday evening at their home on South Jackson. Covers were placed for: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lamka Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hatterscheid, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Young, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Burr, Miss Marlene Lutey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trued and the host and hostess.

Local News

Back From Kansas — Roland West of Roseburg has returned home after spending several days in Liberal, Kansas, on business.

Here From California — Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Lawson and children of Roseville, Calif., are visiting friends and relatives in Roseburg. Mr. Lawson was the former owner of Lawson's Jewelry store.

Home From Utah — Mr. and Mrs. Gibby (Donna Kitchin) have come home from Provo, Utah, where Mr. Gibby has finished a year at the Brigham Young university. Donna graduated last year from Roseburg Senior high school.

Visitors Expected — Mr. and Mrs. John C. Holder Jr. and their sons, Stewart and Ben-lykin, of Newport, Tennessee, are expected to visit at the home of Mrs. Holder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Bryant, next Monday. They plan on staying a month.

Home From College — Zona Wilshire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilshire, of Roseburg, is home from Oregon State college for the summer. Zona is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is working at the Farm bureau during the summer months and will return to college in the fall.

Visiting at Houck Home — Mrs. Adeline Fields arrived from Portland Thursday to remain over the weekend visiting her mother, Mrs. George E. Houck, of South Stephens street.

Leave For Portland — Virginia Smith of Green and Mrs. Ernest Tuel of Melrose left Wednesday evening for Portland, where they took Gordon Tuel for a leg operation at Shriners hospital.

Visit At Bandon — Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gibson, and son, Gary, and daughter, Mrs. Gogney, and the latter's daughter, Sherry, all of Roseburg, went to Bandon last weekend for a family reunion and business trip.

Visitors from Beaverton — Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gors and two children of Beaverton, Ore., are visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Gors, here over the weekend. They are enroute home after a vacation on the coast.

Return To Garden Valley — Mrs. E. A. Post and daughter, Cindy, of Garden valley have just returned from Portland, where they saw the Ice Follies and the Rose parade. They visited the sister of Mrs. Post, Mrs. Lloyd Clark.

Home From Portland — Mrs. Lorraine Rogers, employee of the U. S. National bank of Roseburg, spent last week visiting Lt. and Mrs. Donald S. Rogers and their son, Donald Edward. While there, she saw the Rose parade and the surrounding areas of Portland.

Leaves for California — Mrs. Sidney Mason of Philadelphia left Friday for Laguna Beach and Los Angeles, following a visit since Monday in Roseburg as the guest of Miss Helen Casey on Blakeley street. Mrs. Mason and Miss Casey were fellow travelers on a tour of South America two years ago, and last year were in the same party taking a tour of Europe.

Attend Wedding — Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Horn went to Eugene last Saturday to attend the wedding of Miss Sue Hahn. Mrs. Horn (Lorraine Stritzke) took part in the wedding. They then visited overnight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Horn of Eugene.

To University — Kee Briggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Briggs of Roseburg, has gone to the University of Oregon along with Tom Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Taylor of Roseburg. Each was graduated from Roseburg Senior high school last spring and plan on beginning their college studies this summer. Kee will soon take up journalism and Tom will take up architecture.

DRESSMAKING ALTERATIONS
Zoe Newman
925 Cobb St. Dial 3-7123

Your Real Silk Hosiery Representative Is
MRS. BESSIE CAMPBELL
603 Hamilton St.
Dial 3-6060