

Chisox, Yankees Each Win Game

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Those battling Chicago White Sox are making believers of their opponents — team by team, manager by manager.

Now it's New York and Manager Casey Stengel singing the praises of the spectacular Sox.

"Maybe we've been worrying about the wrong fellows," muttered Stengel after Chicago had clawed its way back to a 5-4 victory in the second game of a vital double header yesterday with the Yankees. The bombers won the opener, 11-9, and appeared on the way to a sweep of the twin bill. They led, 3-1, after seven innings of the nightcap.

So instead of slicing two games off the White Sox' first place lead, the Yankees wound up just where they started — trailing by three and a half games. No matter what the result of single games today and tomorrow, the hot Sox will leave New York still pacing the American League.

"It looks like we're going to have to beat Chicago, rather than Boston and Cleveland, for the pennant," declared Casey.

Not Accidents

The jam-packed throng of 60,441, eager for a good look at pilot Paul Richards' rockets, agreed with Stengel. The fans went away convinced that the Sox were no accidents.

Indeed, not many in the vast crowd, gave Chicago much of a chance as the Sox came to bat against ace Vir Raschi in the eighth, trailing 3-1. But those never-say-die visitors had other ideas.

Pinch hitter Floyd Baker slapped a single to center. Nelson Fox lined one to right and Eddie Stewart hammered a home run into the right field stands. Without an out being made, the Sox had forged in front, 4-3.

But the Yanks hadn't given up either. Singles by Phil Rizzuto, Gene Woodling and pinch hitter Johnny Nix in their half of the eighth tied the count against Randy Gumpert, who had replaced starter Joe Dobson.

Again the Sox went to work. Jim Busby singled in the ninth, and raced to third on a one-bagger by Phil Masi. Alie Reynolds replaced Raschi and veiled a two-bagger to pinch hitter Bob Dillinger. That scored Busby with the winning run. Howie Judson set the Yanks down in order in the ninth but the victory went to Gumpert, who now has won seven without a defeat.

Allows 27 Hits

In the first game, seven pitchers took part, four for the winning Yankees including three-run homers by Yogi Berra and Mickey Mantle.

Boston's third place Red Sox advanced to within five games of the top as Chuck Stobbs limited the Cleveland Indians to four hits and beat them, 9-2. Ted Williams paced a 14-hit attack against loser Bob Lemon and two successors with his 14th homer and two singles. Luke Easter accounted for both Cleveland runs with a homer in the ninth.

Homers by Eddie Joost and Gus Zernial helped the Philadelphia Athletics trip the Detroit Tigers, 9-5.

The St. Louis Browns combined seven safeties and five Washington errors for enough runs to whip the Senators 4-1.

The Cincinnati Reds rallied for four runs in the ninth but fell one short as the Brooklyn Dodgers walked off with a 5-4 triumph under the lights.

New York's giants remained five and a half games behind, eking out a 2-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in a game limited by rain. Hank Thompson drove in both New York runs.

Rivalry Resumed In Women's Golf

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Long-hitting Babe Didrikson Zaharias and poker-faced Patty Berg resumed the fair sex's hottest golf rivalry today as a star-studded field of 16 vie in the second round of the 22nd Women's Western Open golf championship.

While the main gallery will undoubtedly follow the Berg-Zaharias twosome, it won't be the only great golf match rolling over the 6,570 yard Whitmarsh fairways.

Medalist Louise Suggs, whose 65 seven under par qualifying round still is the best score posted, pushes her bid for a fourth western championship against Carol Diringer of Tiffin, O.

Miss Suggs whipped into the second round by defeating Mary Agnes Wall of Mesquimie, Mich., 4 and 3. Miss Diringer had a tough time edging Catherine McKinnon of Lake Worth, Fla., 2 and 1. In another interesting test, Mrs. Mark Porter, Philadelphia's former U. S. amateur queen, matches strokes with pretty Marlene Bauer.

Mrs. Zaharias scored a smashing 7 and 6 victory yesterday. The woman athlete of the century had her high powered game firmly in hand. She outdrove Miss Kirk from 10 to 20 yards and then broke the Ohio lass' heart with hole high approaches setting up short putts. It was the Babe at her peak.

Miss Berg was almost as hard on former national amateur champion Grace Lenczyk of Nesimington, Conn., seeking her fourth western title. Miss Berg went one under par for 13 holes to win 6 and 5.

BIDS FOR COACHING JOB

MONMOUTH — (AP) — Bill McArthur Oregon College of Education football coach wants the job at the University of Oregon.

He said Monday he had applied for the post vacated by Jim Allen's resignation.

Hollywood Beats Portland In Overtime Contest, 4-3

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

Team	W	L	Pct.	GB
Seattle	42	36	.537	—
Sacramento	41	38	.517	2
Oakland	45	40	.526	2 1/2

Portland	40	45	.471	5 1/2
San Diego	38	48	.438	11
San Francisco	33	50	.398	14 1/2

LAST NIGHT'S RESULTS

Oakland 3, San Diego 5
Sacramento 3, Los Angeles 7
Hollywood 4, Portland 3 (1st inning)
Seattle at San Francisco postponed, due to inability of Seattle to arrive.

By The Associated Press

The Hollywood Stars are doing things the hard way these nights. Fred Hanney's club came home from a disastrous road trip and a five-game losing streak and then had to go 16 innings last night to edge out Portland, 4 and 3. The Stars were a beaten club, until Lou Stringer bashed a homer in the ninth to tie the count at 3-all. Then, in the 16th, Stringer, scored the winning run by doubling, being advanced to third, and romping in on Herb Gorman's tremendous fly to deep right on which Don White made a miraculous catch.

The ball game wasn't over until 11:45 p.m., just five minutes shy of the Pacific Coast league's curfew law. The crowd of 3,668 stayed to the finish after paying tribute at the start to Jack Powell, the league's umpire-in-chief, who has been calling 'em for 31 years. Jack got lots of presents, one of them, ironically being a pair of glasses.

Strike Prevents Game

The strike of airlines pilots prevented league-leading Seattle from reaching San Francisco for last night's game and the contest may be played as part of a double-header tomorrow.

Charlie Bishop was in rare form as he pitched Oakland to a 2 to 0 win over San Diego. He whiffed eight batters, granted only five hits, and hurled the Oaks to their fourth straight victory. The veteran Guy Fletcher hurled creditable ball for the Padres, giving only six hits. It was the 13th time this year the Padres had been blanked.

Walter Clough pitched Sacramento too, a 5 to 2 decision over Los Angeles. Ken Keltner's big bat accounted for three Sac runs and his fine stop of Les Layton's smash in the eighth stifled an Angel rally and resulted in a double play. Bill Moisan, who replaced Fred Baczewski, was saddled with the defeat.

Umpqua Chiefs And Elkon In Practice Game Tonight

The Umpqua Chiefs will play Elkon's baseball nine in a practice tilt on Finlay field tonight at 8:15.

Elkon appears to be the cream of the Evergreen amateur baseball league, having defeated each of the other three teams in the southern division by substantial scores.

The Elks will probably open with their star pitcher Ray Cole, who is also tough at the plate. Chief Manager Ben Kelsay is expected to start either Jerry Cade or Mickey Coen, thus save Cade or Mickey for Saturday night's league game with Myrtle Creek.

Because of a conflict with the Rarlee on Sunday, the league game was pushed up to Saturday night at 8:15. It is slated for Finlay field.

Veteran Kahut Scores Knockout

PORTLAND — (AP) — Veteran Joe Kahut of Beaverton, Ore., uncorked a left to the face and a right to the head late in the second round of a scheduled 10-round heavyweight boxing match last night for a knockout victory over Bernie Reynolds of New York.

The knockout came at 2 minutes 50 seconds of the second round. Kahut weighed 187, Reynolds, a soldier stationed at Fort Lawton, Wash., tipped the scales at 188.

Bill Boatman, 170, Longview, knocked out Franke Rowe, 167 1/2, Seattle, in 2:45 of the fourth round of a scheduled eight-round semifinal.

Other results (all four-rounds): Little Papa Brown, 133 1/2, Seattle, decision over Moe Smith, 138 1/2, Boise.

Bobby Burgess, 168 1/2, Longview, decision over Bull Halsey, 162 1/2, Portland.

Chiefs Share Third Spot

By The Associated Press

NW Oregon League Standings
Team	W	L
Medford	4	1,000
Brookings	2	1,250
Roseburg	2	1,000
Bandon	2	1,000
Coquille	2	1,000
North Bend	2	1,000
Myrtle Creek	0	4,000
Reedsport	0	4,000

By virtue of a 6-3 league win over Coquille last Sunday, the Umpqua Chiefs moved up a rung on the Northwestern Oregon league ladder to third place.

The Chiefs had to share the spot, however, as Bandon stayed ahead by handing second place Brookings its first league loss by a score of 6-2. Meanwhile, Medford continued to coast along at the top of the heap by swamping Myrtle Creek, 24-9. North Bend's 1-0 decision over hapless Reedsport failed to cause a shift in positions.

Roseburg's win proved costly to Coquille, as the Loggers were tumbled from third to fifth place.

The game of the day next Sunday is slated for Brookings at Medford. There would be no appreciable change if Brookings won, but a win by the Studs might well send Brookings clattering down the ladder. Bandon, rapidly becoming a major threat, tangles with another rough opponent when it hosts North Bend. The other two games pit Roseburg and Coquille against the two winless cellar dwellers. Coquille travels to Reedsport Sunday and Myrtle Creek visits Roseburg Saturday night.

conference in football but the far west is still the best in track and field.

"We just don't seem to have it. But we are not giving up," said K. L. (Tug) Wilson, commissioner of the big ten, today as he reviewed the triumph of the coast lads over the midwesterners in their annual track and field battle yesterday. The score was 77 1/2 for the PCC to 54 1/2.

Two meet records were smashed and 6,500 fans, largest track crowd in the history of the state, turned out to watch the competition on the University of Oregon's Hayward field.

Stojack Meets Tough Grappler In Main Bout

The battle of the century has been arranged for Roseburg next Saturday night.

Pacific Coast Junior heavyweight champion Frankie Stojack will put his belt on the block in a match between tough Maurice LaChappelle. LaChappelle, one of the most dangerous men in the business, had another crack at Stojack's belt about 10 weeks ago but in that match Stojack put LaChappelle out of commission for a spell by kicking the Frenchman in the knee and tearing a muscle.

Since that time LaChappelle has been spoiling for a revenge fight against Stojack, but each time Stojack has hedged until Promoter Elton Owen demanded that Stojack sign for the bout cease wrestling in Roseburg.

That is how the first match for next Saturday night stacks up in Roseburg. Two other matches will be announced later in the week.
