

Yanks Trim Chisox Lead; Cleveland Defeats Boston

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox's chances of holding first place on the traditional July 4th dividing line hinge on the next five games with New York and Boston.

If Paul Richards' White Sox can safely skirt the Yanks and Red Sox series on the road they'll go home with a comfortable lead.

How to beat the Yanks was one lesson the White Sox failed to learn from Maestro Richards. Losing seven of 10 to New York cost them a chance to pile up a safe margin. Their lead, once measuring five games, has been whittled to 2½.

Fresh out of pitchers, both the White Sox and Yanks fall back on unreliable workmen for today's finale of the current series at Yankee stadium. Either Horie Judson or sore-armed Saul Rogovin will work for the Sox against Spec Shea, who was treated roughly on relief in the series opener.

Richards got a well-pitched game by Billy Pierce yesterday but lost, 2-1, when the Sox threw away countless chances. Over-ambitious base running, one of their prime assets, backfired on the fleet Sox. Eddie Lopat seemed on the verge of collapse several times but managed to last the route for his 10th victory. He allowed 10 hits to five off Pierce.

Two Big Hits

Hank Bauer came up with two big hits when they counted most while Chicago left 10 men stranded. Bauer led off the seventh with a single and scored the tying run. In the eighth his soft looper over Chico Carrasquel's head for a single drove home Mickey Mantle with the winning run.

Cleveland, which follows Chicago into Yankee stadium, cut loose with an 18-hit attack at Boston to whump the Red Sox, 14-8.

Bobby Avila unloaded three home runs and a single—a total of 15 bases, only two short of the league record held jointly by Ty Cobb and Lou Gehrig.

While the upper crust of the league wrestled for the important positions, the second division small-fry did some jousting on their own.

Detroit split a two-night double with the Philadelphia A's, winning 7-2 and losing 5-4. The even break let the A's out of the cellar because St. Louis lost to Washington, 5-1. That combination left the Browns in exclusive control of the dungeon.

Finds Secret

Tommy Holmes found the secret of managing his very first day on the job. Just start Warren Spahn. The capable Boston Braves lefty gave his new boss a comfortable afternoon with a five-hit 9-0 romp over Chicago. Just to make it sure, Spahn hit a three-run homer, double and single. He fanned eight to boost his league-leading total to 65.

The pennant race remained unchanged with both Brooklyn and runnerup New York losing. The Dodgers' first place margin still is 5½ games.

Crazy Kenny Raffensberger hogtied the Dodgers with four hits, 2-1. Even so, the Dodgers outbit the Reds who managed only three off Johnny Schmitz and Clyde King.

Red Munger worked in and out of trouble, striking out nine, in St. Louis' 4-2 edge over the Giants. Bubba Church blanked Pittsburgh, 1-0, on nine hits although his Phillies mates got only four off Bob Friend.

Pros Favored To Take Honors In Women's Golf

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — It's the lady pros against the lady amateurs today for semi-final berths in the 22nd annual Western Open Golf championship at Whitmarsh Valley Country club.

The field of eight is split up so that the Simon puses left in the competition each tee off against a play-for-pay opponent. And in each instance the pros are favored to prevail.

Based on the golf displayed over Whitmarsh's 6,679 yard layout during the first three days, Louise Suggs, medalist from Carrollton, Ga., and Patty Berg, Minneapolis, Mo., are favored to succeed Mrs. Babe Didrikson Zaharias as western champion. Both Miss Suggs and Miss Berg are looking for their fourth western titles.

Miss Suggs gained the quarter-final round yesterday with an impressive 3 and 1 victory over Carol Dinger of Tiffin, O.

Miss Berg eliminated defending champion Mrs. Zaharias, 1 up,

The Seattle Rainiers maintained their two game lead with a 5-0 conquest of the tail end San Francisco Seals. Hector Brown pitched the shutout, allowing nine hits.

Oakland edged out San Diego, 5-4, with a five-run outburst in the eighth that included two San Diego errors, a double by Lorenzo Cabrera, and a two-run single by Earl Rapp. The victim was Sam Jones, the PCL strikeout king.

Seattle plays a double header at San Francisco tonight to make up their Tuesday postponement. The Rainiers will pitch Mary Grissom (11-7) and newcomer Earl Johnson (0-0) against Al Lien (9-2) and Manny Perez (2-4). Other probabilities include: Portland (Marvin Piretti, 8-8; at Hollywood (Ben Wade, 4-4).

Four Oregonians Attend Junior Golf Tournament

EUGENE — (AP) — Four Oregon junior golfers yesterday won a trip to the Aug. 13-18 national Jaycee Junior Golf tournament at Durham, N. C.

Winning places on the state team were Don Krieger, Redmond; Dick Twiss, The Dalles; Phil Getchell, Medford, and Don Anawalt, Eugene.

Ken McLachlan, Vancouver, Wash., and Bruce Cudd, Portland, qualified as alternates.

Krieger's score—77-73—150 gave him medal honors for the day in a field of 29. Other scores: Twiss and Getchell 154; Anawalt 156; McLachlan 157; and Cudd 158.

Umpqua Chiefs Romp Over Elkton

Mismatch Called In Seventh Canto; Score 16 Runs

Luckily the game was called at the end of the seventh inning last night at Finlay field. Scoring almost at will, the Umpqua Chiefs swamped Elkton, 16-1.

The Chiefs left no doubt from the first as to the eventual outcome of this week's mismatch. With a flurry of five hits in the opening frame, the Roseburg batters pushed across six runs. From then on it was a question of how large the score would be.

After a two-run break in the second, the Chiefs were held scoreless until the fifth when they racked up six more. Again in the sixth they added two for the final tally. In both the first and fifth, they batted around the lineup.

The only unusual aspect of the game was the size of the statistics. In all, the Chiefs picked up 12 hits. Les Winders cracked out a homer in the fifth, Norvall Ritchie and Jerry Cade doubled and Ken Ayers tripled. To add to the size of the score, the Elkton team committed a ragged eight errors.

Hits Shaky Streak

The Elks scored their only run when starting pitcher Jerry Cade hit a shaky streak in the second inning. The first three men at bat for Elkton in that frame collected singles. Carl Hershberger accounted for the team's tally by singling Louis Sczypiorski home.

Aside from this slight Elkton uprising, the two Chief pitchers had no trouble in setting the Elks down. Cade settled down after the second and started piling up more strikeouts. For the four innings he hurled, he struck out eight men. Mickey Coen came in in the fifth and in his three innings struck out five. Dick DeBernardi had his best day at bat in two years. He replaced Hal Zurcher in the fifth and in two times at bat, singled twice, batted in one run and scored two himself. Zurcher was the only other Chief to get more than one hit. He singled twice in three times at the plate.

Oregon Sports Magazine To Be On Stands In July

To appear on the newsstands in July is a new, slick-covered magazine dealing exclusively with sports within the state of Oregon.

True to its content, the magazine is to be called "Oregon Sports."

A recent release by Editor Leslie Pete dedicates the monthly publication to "fans and participants in all sports throughout the state."

A sample forepart lists contents ranging from trapshooting to mid-get baseball. With baseball looming high on the sports calendar, the new publication is placing special emphasis on this game in the first issue. Included are articles on every professional club in the state from the Portland Beavers to the Klamath Falls Gems.

Associate Editor Chuck Boice in a conversation Wednesday morning reported in forthcoming issues, Roseburg and Douglas county sporting activities will form a definite part of the content.

Glendale Man

The father and guiding light of the new publication is Leslie Pete, himself a Douglas county product. He graduated from Glendale high school in 1933. He was a three-sport letterman there and when he graduated from Albany college in 1942 had lettered again in three sports. On graduation from college he coached one year at Forest Grove until the war demanded his services as an athletic director. When he was discharged he coached in California one year only to return to Oregon as head football coach at Banks. While there his teams ran up the splendid record of 23 wins and only three losses in three years.

Chuck Boice and Wally Hunter have taken over the job as associate editors of the magazine. Both are also well founded in sports. Boice is a part-time sports broadcaster and Hunter is assistant sports editor of KGW in Portland.

Local Team Plays Myrtle Creek Sunday On Finlay

The Umpqua Chiefs will play baseball at Finlay field Sunday as previously scheduled.

Team Secretary Earl Plummer reported early in the week that a game was scheduled for Saturday night between the Chiefs and Myrtle Creek to avert a conflict with the Rodeo. The game was rescheduled Wednesday afternoon to the original Sunday date at 2 p.m.

Plummer said that because several players work on Saturday night and another is still going to school, the Myrtle Creekers would be unable to field a full-strength team on Saturday.

Although Myrtle Creek is licking its wounds in the Southwestern Oregon league cellar without a win in four starts, the team promises to be somewhat more potent than it was when the two squads last met. With Jerry Cade fanning out 13 men, the Chiefs had an easy time downing Myrtle Creek, 14-0.

Even with Myrtle Creek's bolstered squad, however, the Chiefs will rank as top heavy favorites as determined by comparative scores with common opponents. Both teams have lost to Medford, but Roseburg faltered by only a 3-2 score, while Myrtle Creek was being laced, 24-9. Roseburg defeated North Bend, 5-4, while Myrtle Creek was being swamped by the same team 21-8. Finally, Roseburg aced Coquille, 6-5, while the Loggers' breeders over Myrtle Creek, 10-0.

Melrose Nips Vets In Close Contest

The smallest score of the 1951 YMCA Twilight league softball season reflected one of the tightest games of the season at the Veterans field last night.

Melrose defeated the Vets Employees, 4-3, by pushing across two runs in the sixth inning. On the strength of a homer by Stadham in the opening canto and another by Sanders in the third, the winners posted a one-run lead that spelled victory.

The Vets tried desperately to nullify the lead, and very nearly did it in the top half of the seventh. They bunched four hits and a walk for two runs, and had the tying and winning run on base. The hope was wiped out, however, when Dominico was caught off base for the third out.

In the church division of the Twilight league, Dillard Methodist forfeited the contest to West Side Tuesday.

Missfeldt's toss was 228 feet 11 inches last week he won the NCAA title with a throw 10 feet shorter.

He and Ted Roederer of Penn State, the latter stopping off here en route to the AAU meet at Berkeley, gave the exhibition. Roederer's best exhibition toss was 217 feet 9 inches.

The javelin throw was not on the big ten-PCC meet program, so the exhibition was an added attraction.

Javelin Hurler Batters Previous Best Effort

EUGENE — (AP) — The University of Oregon's great javelin hurler, Chuck Missfeldt, beat his previous best effort by more than three feet in an exhibition here Tuesday.

Missfeldt's toss was 228 feet 11 inches last week he won the NCAA title with a throw 10 feet shorter.

He and Ted Roederer of Penn State, the latter stopping off here en route to the AAU meet at Berkeley, gave the exhibition. Roederer's best exhibition toss was 217 feet 9 inches.

The javelin throw was not on the big ten-PCC meet program, so the exhibition was an added attraction.

Hockey Team Transfer May Become Effective

PORTLAND — (AP) — The Westminister Royals of the Pacific Coast hockey league may transfer their franchise to Portland next fall.

Harry Shipstead, manager of the Portland Ice arena, disclosed yesterday that Ken McKenzie, owner of the Royals, has asked for terms on leasing the Rose City arena. Shipstead said McKenzie was considering moving the franchise to Portland because of difficulties in arranging rentals in New Westminster.

Portland's entry in the coast hockey league was withdrawn recently. The owners said they had lost money in the last two seasons here.

Drain Beats Reedsport In Non-League Game

In a non-league Junior Legion tilt at Drain Wednesday night, the hosts toyed with the Reedsport nine until the sixth inning and then unleashed an eight-run burst to swamp the visitors, 13-2.

The Drain team was held scoreless until the third canto when it scored three runs to take over the lead. Three more were added in the fourth and a lone tally in the fifth.

Meanwhile, Drain's Marv Swearingen was having his best day of the year. He scattered four hits and struck out 12 Reedsport men. Allen Brown and Dick Joslyn vied for batting honors for the winners as each got three hits in four trips. Brown's were all singles, but Joslyn varied the menu by picking up a single, double and a triple.
