

Grays Harbor County Put On Three Time Schedules

MONTESANO, Wash. — (AP) — It will take three watches and a calendar to tell time in Grays Harbor county the rest of this summer.

Commissioners of this county — which has its western front on the shores of the Pacific ocean — have put the county on three time schedules.

Eastern Grays Harbor (inland) will operate on standard time, the commissioners decided. In Aberdeen, Hoquiam and the second commissioner district (approximately central Grays Harbor), all clocks are on daylight saving time. But in northwestern Grays Harbor, a rural area which includes Pacific ocean beaches, they set up this system:

On Monday through Friday at 6 p. m., clocks will operate on daylight time. At 6 p. m. Friday, they will be turned back to standard time and remain there until 6 p. m. Sunday.

The change was made to accommodate north beach tavern and resort owners who in turn said it would accommodate visitors from daylight saving time Puget sound cities of Tacoma and Seattle.

The U. S. Bureau of Land Management has 12 land offices in western states and three in Alaska.

MEET MR. EVERYWHERE

WAYNESBORO, Va. — (AP) — You've heard of the little man who wasn't there. R. D. Moran is the man who is there — apparently everywhere in Waynesboro.

When Moran applied for a building permit he was told his property was on Center St. The deed, however, said First St.

The building permit was issued for Frye St. Moran's water bill, says Harmon Ave.

Some people call the area where he lives Shenandoah Heights. Others call it Green Hill.

Moran is pretty certain he lives in Waynesboro, anyway.

Bingo In Church Not Gambling, Jury Says

FORT WAYNE, Ind. — (AP) — Church bingo isn't gambling — in the opinion of an Allen county circuit court jury.

It deliberated just 45 minutes and acquitted five persons charged with gaming and keeping gaming devices.

The defendants were the Rev. Bernice Brook, minister of the Spiritualist Church of Divine Science, and four church members. They admitted bingo was played to raise money for a new church building.

The five and 29 other persons, mostly elderly women, were arrested at the church May 22 and hauled to the police station in patrol wagons. Charges against all but

(Many Dealerships at other Western Oregon points)

FOR

Quonset

STRAN STEEL BUILDINGS

Manufactured by GREAT LAKES STEEL CORPORATION

The men we seek to qualify for these important Dealerships should have a background of successful business and selling experience. They should be able to erect, or supervise the erection, of Quonset All-Steel Buildings. Though previous experience in building construction would be valuable, it is not necessarily essential, due to high standardization and simplification of erection methods employed.

A Quonset Dealership can be opened with a minimum of working capital and facilities.

Four types of STRAN STEEL QUONSETS are available for immediate delivery. Thousands of these buildings are now in use throughout the United States, on farms and by commercial and industrial firms, large and small. Dealerships for Quonsets offer unusual opportunities for substantial volume and profits.
