Form Offered For Try To Contact Prisoners Of War

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The government has prepared a form for use by families trying to communicate with relatives who are prisoners of war in Korea or Communist China.

Announcing this, the Defense department emphasized that so far the Reds have not supplied prisoner information through the international Red Cross.

The form to be used was prepared by the Postoffice department. It requires the name, rank and serial number of the supposed prisoner. Letters must be addressed "care of the Chinese People's Committee for World Peace, Peking, China."

No postage is required, but "prisoner of war mail" must be written in the upper right corner of the envelope. The return address should be in the upper left corner.

Letters may be dropped in any U. S. mailbox, but delivery is not guaranteed.

Through June 8, 153 Americans were listed as prisoners and another 10,211 as missing.
