

Last Nurse Found After 13 Days In Mountains

SEVIERVILLE, Tenn. — (AP) — A 21-year-old nurse, found after a long search, related in a hospital here she had wandered for 13 days in the wild Smoky mountains without food and with little clothing. Evangeline Lorimer, who had a penchant for fasting in school, told newsmen she walked in circles for days through the tangled fastness, screaming and praying at intervals. Hospital attendants said she lost 18 pounds during the period. She was suffering from blistered feet, insect bites and briar scratches. Otherwise she appeared unharmed. She said she didn't eat a bite. She quenched her thirst from mountain brooks. The girl gave this account: "I was taking a short hike when night overtook me. I think I walked in circles much of the time but I tried to pick out landmarks so I could walk in a straight line." She said she knew she had to get back to civilization because she had too report for duty Monday.

Dental Assn. Head Scores Truman On Medical Plan

SEATTLE — (AP) — The president of the American Dental association charges that "President Truman was no more sincere" in his statement Friday on medical insurance "than was Jake Malik when he advocated peace in Korea." Dr. Harold W. Oppice, Chicago, departed from his prepared text to make the comment in a speech to the Pacific Coast Dental conference. He referred to President Truman's offer to go along with opponents of compulsory medical insurance if they came up with a better proposal. The Malik reference was to the Russian United Nations delegate's speech of Saturday. Dr. Oppice turned to his pre-emptive that Truman is looking forward to the election next year and looking back to what happened the last time to those congressmen who advocated compulsory health insurance.

Dr. Oppice turned to his prepared text to assail the making of false teeth by persons unqualified and unlicensed to practice dentistry. The illegal practice is increasing in large cities, he said. "Dentistry, in fulfilling its professional obligation of a real health service, should be supported by better law enforcement," Dr. Oppice said.

Jam Of Tankers Draws British Cruiser To Iran

LONDON — (AP) — Britain today ordered the cruiser Mauritius to "proceed forthwith" to the vicinity of Abadan, the Iranian oil port where 27 tankers are caught in a jam in a dispute over payments for oil. British Foreign Secretary Morrison, announcing the action in the House of Commons, said the British-owned Anglo-Iranian oil company has ordered all its tankers to leave Abadan immediately. Ten of the tankers are loaded with oil but have been refused clearance by Iranian authorities because the captains refused to sign receipts acknowledging payment was due Iran's new Nationalized Oil company. The captains with oil aboard were told to pump it off if necessary to obtain clearance, Morrison said.

The company issued its order "with the full agreement of his majesty's government," Morrison announced. He described the situation as very serious. Departure of all tankers presumably would mean the shutdown of the Abadan refinery, the world's largest. It is filling storage tanks because of the shipping tieup. There is enough storage capacity to keep the refinery going about a week.

Morrison said if Iran persists in her present tactics AIOC will be forced to halt operations "within a matter of days."

He warned that Britain will hold Iran "responsible under international law for insuring the protection of any British subjects in Persia."
