Tiller Troupers In Days Creek

"June Hullabaloo," a six act play, will be presented by the Tiller Troupers at Days Creek school auditorium Friday evening, June 29. Two brief plays are also scheduled.

The Troupers, a non profit organization that does not accept dues, plans to travel for a year to provide entertainment and assist community organization in raising funds. No admission will be charged, but contributions to a fund for a further fund will be accepted and complimentary be will tickets given.

Scenes from "June Hullabaloo" will include a Paris cafe, a bleak New England town, a Hollywood dance studio, a trip to Oregon and a visit to the South.

"The Purple Dorrknaw" and "The Hat" are the titles of the other two plays. Any town in Oregon is the setting for the first and a New England town is the scene of the latter.

Helen Casey of Roseburg will be guest artist of the evening. A musical skit, "Clotheline Capers", will close the evening of entertainment.

Special Meeting Set At Riddle High School

A special meeting will be held at Riddle high school Wednesday, June 27, to consider the purchase of 15 acres of land for school district 79.

Acquisition of the land is necessary if the district is to maintain a standard high school. A standard school should be built on a 12 acre site and an acre should be added to the grounds with the addition of each 100 pupils exceeding a 400 enrollment.

LION-SAVING CAMPAIGN JUNAGADI, India — (AP) —

A campaign has opened here by opponents of unrestricted hunting to save an estimated 225 lions in the famous Gir forests — believed to be the last of their species in Asia.

Lion hunting is still permitted but only on special license by the Saurashtra state government which administers the forests.

Health Knows no Season!!

Four Important Tips for Health...

- 1 Get plenty of Vitamins... Vitamins burn the starch and sugar you eat.
- 2 Get plenty of iron and protein to avoid anemia and bad circulation diseases.
- 3 Avoid overweight—many diseases stem from an overworked heart and other organs.
- 4 Get plenty of minerals with your vitamins — most modern day foods have necessary elements removed.
