

Chicago Cubs Nip Cards; Dodgers Bow To Giants

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Frank Hiller, a Yankee who got away, is the new glamor boy pitcher of the majors after his brilliant one-hitter for the Chicago Cubs.

Hiller faced only 27 St. Louis Cardinals last night, walking lead-off man Tommy Glaviano in the first and allowing a single to Enos Slaughter in the fifth. Both were erased on double plays.

The Cubs backed up Frankie boy with a generous 12-hit attack on Gerry Staley and Al Brazle for an 8-0 win.

The Hiller story is Horatio Alger in reverse. Signed by the wealthy New York Yanks for a comfortable bonus when he came out of Lafayette in wartime, he never quite made the grade.

Bouncing around in Newark and Kansas City with a couple of years in the Yankee stadium bullpen, Hiller became disgusted. He was so dissatisfied he asked George Weiss, Yankee general manager, to trade him after an 11-8 year at Kansas City in 1949. Weiss peddled Hiller to the Cubs for $25,000 on a conditional sale. They forgot the conditions when Frankie came through as a 12-5 pitcher for Chicago last season. He finally had made good to complete the cycle of big leagues to minors to big leagues.

Never Better

The 30-year-old righthander never was better than last night. His previous big league high was a two-hitter against the Phils last September.

Hiller's sparkler, however, didn't have as much effect on the National league race as Monte Irvin's two home runs for New York's 3-4 edge over the leading Brooklyn Dodgers.

Irvin hit Nos. 11 and 12 off Ralph Branca to clip the Dodgers' lead to five games. Branca took a 4-2 edge into the eighth, thanks to a leaky four-error defense by the Giant infield. Don Mueller's single and a bunt single by Whitney Lockman set it up for Irvin to blast Branca's first pitch deep into the upper left field seats for his second homer of the game.

Sheldon Jones, who relieved Dave Koslo in the sixth, poured a third strike past home run king Gil Hodges, who stood with his bat on his shoulder, for the final out of the game. The potential tying run was on third base.

The National league staged another of its "dawn" games, due to rain interruptions at Cincinnati where the Pittsburgh Pirates finally edged the Reds, 7-5, in a game ending at 12:39 a. m. (EST).

Rain Interferes

The Pirates got away on top and had a 7-1 lead after six innings. It barely lasted. Rain held up the game three times — for 44 minutes in the first inning, 32 minutes in the third and 25 minutes in the ninth.

Cincy had the tying runs on base with two out and 3-2 on Johnny Wryostek when time was called in the last inning. When they resumed, Wryostek fouled out to end the game.

Eddie Sawyer's efforts to shake the Phils out of their daydreams by banishing Mike Goltz to Baltimore apparently worked in a 3-2 win over Boston in 10 innings.

Casey Stengel needed two pitchers — Tom Morgan and Joe Ostrowski — to shut out Washington, 3-0, as the Yankees reduced idle Chicago's American league lead to one half game. The White Sox's scheduled day game with Detroit was washed out after half an inning.

Pinch hitter Cliff Mapes came through with a three-run double off Sid Hudson in a typical Yankee explosion in the eighth inning.

Country Club Golfer Likes New Job

In an interview with Fred Hill Wednesday afternoon, he explained his reaction to Roseburg and his new job as country club golf professional simply: "I like it."

Looking out over the broad, rolling 9-hole country club course, Hill said the people he had met in his new job had been "friendly" and easy to get along with. He continued that he hadn't troubled himself with the housing problem yet. He would leave that to his wife, Olive, who was scheduled to arrive late Wednesday.

Turning to his favorite subject, golf, the stocky pro revealed that he had come to Roseburg after a three-year tenure as professional at the Top O'Scott course in Portland. His latest achievement on the Portland course was the inauguration of a campaign to make Top O' Scott the scene of the Oregon Open tournament in 1951. He succeeded. His value at the course is reflected in the caliber of his successor Harold West, last year's Oregon Open champion and present Oregon PG titleholder.

Tri-City Braves Beat Victoria

Western International league batters got the kind of pitching they liked last night and the scores counted 103 baseballs in the four scheduled games.

The Tri-City-Victoria game at Victoria was tops for the evening. Victoria touched Tri-City hurler Bob Costello for 16 hits but the Braves fashioned a 6-5 victory from the 13 safeties they collected from three Victoria pitchers. The loss ended Victoria's win streak at four games.

Spokane's 17 hits, including five doubles, were good for a 14-7 win over Tacoma's sagging Tigers who piled up 10 hits of their own. The win gave Spokane a sweep of the three-game series.

Tailend Yakima meanwhile out-hit Vancouver 13-12 for a 7-4 triumph over the league-leaders and an even split in the four-game series.

Jim Marshall's grand slam home run with two out in the eighth inning gave Wenatchee an 8-5 win over Salem. The teams matched hit for hit and wound up with 11 apiece.

New series opening tonight will find Tri-City at Vancouver, Yakima at Victoria, Wenatchee at Spokane, and Tacoma at Salem.

The rampaging Seattle Rainiers, with Walt Judnich, back in the fold, expose their three game Pacific coast league lead to the wiles of the Oakland Acorns tonight in a weekend series opener at Sick's stadium.

And if Judnich and the Seattle whammy live up to expectations, Hornsby's Hornets are going to be mighty tough to swat.

Judnich, the league's leading hitter and wanderer, returned last night following a three-day dispute with the management. He got back into the lineup in time to drive in the winning run in the 13th inning as the Rainiers edge Los Angeles, 9-8.

Gene Baker's bases empty homer had put the Angels ahead, 8-7, in the top of the 13th, but in the bottom half, Jim Rivera tripled

West Side Beats All-Stars Team

An eighth inning Vets All-Star error set up a game-winning run to break up the second extra-inning tilt of the year and hand West Side a 9-8 YMCA Twilight league triumph at Veterans field Thursday night.

The All-Stars tied the game up with a four-run rally in the seventh on two singles, two doubles and a triple. West Side nullified an early two-run All-Star lead by fashioning three tallies in the fifth and another five in the sixth.

An Industrial division game in the other half of the league saw Smith Motors just miss its second win of the season. After a 4-all tie in the third, the Motors crew was whitewashed while Pierce Auto Freight went on to score two more runs and win, 6-4. The losers flared up with three runs in the second inning to move ahead, 4-2, but the Freighters added two more in the third. Joe Stricklin then held the Motors men to a single hit, while his team was garnering a run in the fourth and another in the sixth.

PORTLAND — (AP) — Two Seattleites match strokes today in semi-finals of the women's Oregon Golf association tournament at Oswego Lake Country club.

Medalist Pat Lesser, national girl's champion, disposed of Mrs. Ray Erhardt, Portland, 6 and 5, yesterday and reached the semi-finals where she faces Mrs. Helen Belto who defeated Mrs. Robert Thompson, Medford, 4 and 3, in the quarter-finals.

Grace DeMoss, Corvallis, eliminated Jocelyn Fancher, The Dalles, 5 and 4, and Joan Coffeen, Green Bay, Wis., downed Mrs. Belle Schenk, Medford, 8 and 7, to complete the round.

Ray Weston of Spokane, co-medalist in the men's tournament at the Tualatin Country club, defeated Virgil Mitchell, Portland, 3 and 2. Tom Marlowe, Portland, the other co-medalist, eliminated Lou Stafford, Portland, 2 up.
