Marry In Eugene

Miss Sue Hahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Kristensen of Eugene, and Gene E. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Johnson, of Cheyenne, Wyo., were married in the chapel of Northwest Christian college Saturday, June 9, at 8 p.m. The Rev. Kenneth W. Knox, of First Christian Church at Roseburg, officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white brocade organza trimmed with lace, having a Peter Pan collar, full sleeves and a chapel-length train. Her finger tip veil of net hung from a crownless net hat. She carried a white Testament, topped by white roses and pink sweet peas.

Miss Betty Lee Hahn of Portland, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing white brocade organza over lavender and carrying a bouquet of pink sweetpeas tied with lavender ribbon. Misses Joyce Bartel of Dallas and Faye Filby of Tillamook were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of brocade organza over pastel slips and carried bouquets of sweetpeas with matching ribbons.

Candles were lighted by Misses Arlene Skaugset of Tacoma, Wash., and Thelma Brenner of New Lisbon, Ind. Arland Johnson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Thomas Stratton, Del Paso Heights, Calif., and Wayne A. Thompson, Troutdale. A friend of the family, E. M. Eldridge, gave the bride in marriage.

The chapel was decorated with tall baskets of flowers, candelabra and a lattice archway, where the couple stood. The wedding music was furnished by a band "Through the Years" and the bride and bridegroom sang, "I'll Walk Beside You."

Miss Patricia Powell sang "The Wedding Prayer." Miss Beverly Lyman of Salem was at the organ. Mrs. James C. Smith cut the cake at the reception which followed at the Christian House with Miss June Wilson assisting. Mrs. Harold Horn of Roseburg poured. For going away, Mrs. Johnson wore a suit of gray and white check with pink accessories. The couple left for Bloomington, Ind., where the bridegroom will continue his medical studies. Mrs. Johnson graduated from Roseburg high school in 1948 and was valedictorian of that class. She attended NCC for three years and will finish her course at University of Indiana.
