Pick-Ups

By PAUL JENKINS

With their prevention, detection and suppression programs developed over a long period of years, state and national forest protective agencies have achieved a degree of success most of us fail to recognize until we stop to think.

How many years has it been since that time when we regarded as a matter of course the heavy smoke haze which hovered over western Oregon every summer during the months of July and August, and often much of September. Even one day of smoke pall is unusual now. The last bad time I recall was when Bandon burned—when ever that was. At least 12 or 13 years ago.

I saw a truck brake to a screeching stop yesterday as it slid along side a car parked at the curb, whose driver had suddenly opened wide the door on the street side and nonchalantly stepped out right into the line of whatever traffic might be passing him. The truck driver looked as though he wouldn't have minded slamming into the human obstruction, but, probably remembering in time that likely if he did, he'd smash his fender on the other car's door, which pointed backward. Well, people must have their fun; but stepping suddenly out of a car from a wrong side could have its drawbacks.

SEEKS FATHER

Mrs. Leon Lovett, Beach Haven, N. J., librarian, is seeking help in an effort to find her father, William Summers, whom she believes may be in the Roseburg area, according to a letter to the News-Review received from her recently. She reported he lived in Ontario, Ore., until 1942, when he was believed to have moved to Roseburg. He is described as of medium height and weight, age 47.
