

Evans-Johnson Nuptials Take Place

Miss Esther Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnson, Roseburg, became the bride of Williams Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Evans, Roseburg, on July 1, at the Faith Lutheran church. Rev. Willis Erickson performed the double ring ceremony, in the presence of 100 friends and relatives.

The bride looked lovely in a light brown suit with matching hat. She carried a white Bible with a lavender orchid, and was given away by her father, Mr. A. M. Johnson.

The maid of honor, Jackie Evans, sister of the bridegroom, wore a light blue suit with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Harold Daniels, friend of the bridegroom, was the best man, and ushers were Marvin Quist and Vernon Quist, all of Roseburg.

The church was decorated with white gladioli and blue delphiniums. Musical selections were played by Mrs. Willis Erickson. Art Bodt sang "Always" and "I Love You Truly."

A reception was given for around 50 guests after the ceremony. Mrs. Wendell Clark cut and served the cake and was assisted by Amelia Stinson who poured.

Mrs. Marian Dalton was in charge of the guest book.

The young couple spent their honeymoon at Mt. Rainier, Wash., and returned July 4. They will be at home in San Diego, Calif., as that is where Mr. Evans is stationed in the navy.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clemens, Tacoma, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Wesley French and daughter Martha of Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Max Stinson and daughter Amelia of Myrtle Creek. (Fredrickson's Photo Lab picture).

Visit at Pickens Home — Miss Dorothy Castle, home economics teacher in the high school at Crosby, Minn., and Miss Lucy Corey of Minneapolis have left for Pasadena, Calif., to visit the former's sister, following a stop in Roseburg as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pickens on Fowler street. Miss Castle and Mrs. Pickens were childhood friends in South Dakota.

Visited Here — Mr. and Mrs. Wallace G. Robertson of Cottage Grove spent July Fourth visiting Mr. and Mrs. John W. Robertson and daughter, Camille, and guest, Mary Lou Anderson, daughter of Chaplain and Mrs. Henry Anderson of Medford. They were accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Andriessen also of Cottage Grove. Mary Lou Anderson, guest of the Robertsons, came last week for the wedding of Charlene Deets and Merle Atkinson and left Friday for her home in Medford.

Leaves Roseburg — Miss Louise Arnold left July 5 for her home in Santa Barbara, Calif., after visiting with Miss Ethel Annable at her home on Garden Valley road. Miss Arnold was formerly a nurse in the Veterans hospital and some time later was employed in the office of Dr. Boyles. During her visit in Roseburg, Miss Arnold, with Miss Annable and Miss Margaret Joyce, took a short trip via the Redwood highway to Ukiah, Calif. There they visited and were entertained by Miss Ruth Bloom, director of nursing service at the Mendocino State hospital. Miss Bloom was formerly chief nurse at the Roseburg Veterans hospital.

Vacationing — Mrs. Emily Judd of Roseburg and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Judd of Roseburg traveled to Portland last July 4, where Mrs. Emily Judd proceeded to Minneapolis and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Judd went on to St. Helens. Mrs. Emily Judd visited her sister, Mrs. Westberg, and her brother-in-law, Mr. Carlson, both of Minneapolis. Following this, the three went on to Stockholm, Wis., where they will attend the centennial celebration of Stockholm, July 7 and visit a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Plann. Mrs. Emily Judd will then go on to Redwing, Wis., where she will visit a brother, Victor Plann. She expects to be gone about two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. James Judd will continue on their vacation by visiting Mrs. Blaker's parents, Father and Mrs. Blaker in St. Helens and then on to the "Fortune Hunt" in Seattle. The Judds may go into Canada and plan to be away about two weeks.

Norma Lee Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cox, of Roseburg, became the bride of Richard E. Hoskins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoskins, of this city at the home of the bride's parents at seven o'clock the evening of June 22. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the impressive single ring ceremony in the presence of 30 guests.

Daisies, delphinium and lilies formed the attractive decorations. Miss Anne Mellis played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Wendell Johnson, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "O Promise Me."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a tan wool gabardine suit with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and tied with a shower of white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Alvin Bosworth was matron of honor for her sister and wore a navy blue gabardine suit with white accessories and a salmon pink rosebud corsage.

Morris D. Roach, Roseburg, was best man.
