

Bashor Bombers Sweep Both Games

The third time was the charm for the Bashor Bombers of Portland. After two years of trying, the Portland Pee Wees managed to sweep both ends of a Saturday night double header at Finlay field. The Bashor Bees bounced the Roseburg Pee Wees, 12-and-under, 10-2, in the opening game and the Bashor Cubs waxed the 14-and-under Pee Wees, 12-0.

For the past two years, the metropolitan kids have been able to do no better than split the series, but this year they returned more powerful than ever. Take the pitching. In the abbreviated six-inning nightcap, sponsor Frank Bashor unleashed six-foot one-inch Pete Brix. He fanned the first six men who faced him. Finally, Fred Hargis and Bobby Gray nipped him for singles, so he went on to strike out four more before being relieved in the fifth inning. Fastballer Keith Krupke then held the Pee Wees hitless for the last two innings.

Couldn't Stop Hitting

Meanwhile, neither starter Fred Hargis nor Loren Sargent could stop the Bashor hitters. They connected in every inning but one.

In the opener against the Bees, the Roseburg Pee Wees had the same sort of trouble, but not until the last inning. It was a tight 3-2 ball game until then. The Bees had pushed across two in the initial frame by virtue of John Dunkin's homer with one man aboard. Dunkin himself scored No. 3 in the third with a triple and an error on the throw in. The Roseburg youngsters got back in the contest on consecutive singles in the same frame by Milt Schweppe, Ronnie Kasper and Bill Oerding.

It stayed this way until the Bees bunched six hits and two errors for seven tallies in the final canto. When the 13 innings of play were over, the fans knew all four teams had played their hearts out and everyone had fun, including the umpires. The Roseburg kids got their reward Sunday when they were allowed to watch the Umpqua Chief-Coquille game for nothing.

The Brooklyn Dodgers have had 17 different managers since 1890. The Giants have had 21 managers since 1879.

Brooklyn won its first National League pennant in 1890, its first year in the circuit.

Scotsman Swims Channel Twice

DOVER, Eng. — (AP) — A 54 year old Scotsman today is the fourth man in history to swim the English channel in both directions.

Ned Barnie, an Edinburgh science teacher, made it the hard way yesterday by swimming from England to France. Tieds and prevailing winds make this more difficult than the France to England swim which Barnie accomplished last year. The distance is approximately 21 miles and yesterday took Barnie 19 hours and two minutes.

Barnie was the third swimmer to make the channel crossing during the weekend.

Philip Mickman, 20, also tried for the double over the weekend but gave up eight miles off the French coast because of heavy seas. He made the France to England crossing two years ago.

An Englishman and an Egyptian both made the swim from France to England Saturday. They were Philip Rising, 41, and Abdel Litif Abou Heif, 22, an Egyptian student.

Six other men and two women failed.

Sutherland Nips Smith Motors

Poor Smith Motors was scuttled again Friday night, this time by Sutherland, 20-8.

Played at Veterans field, the Motors crew slipped in a brace of runs in the initial frame, but it was a short-lived lead. In the bottom half of the same inning, Sutherland countered with eight of their own. That was enough to spell the win, because Smith Motors never came within a stone's throw of the Industrial league's seventh place team.

Sutherland scored at least two tallies in every inning except the fifth, when it was blanked. Meanwhile, the losers only failed to score in two frames, but they couldn't put together more than two runs at a time.

Sutherland's Dude Rose took the hitting honors by fashioning a perfect night at the plate with five hits in five times at bat. His teammate Elmer Hethcock made two singles and a homer in four official times at the plate. Merle Gorg led the losers with a single and a double in three official times at the plate.

Jim Miller Wins Honors in Coast Golf Tourney

ASTORIA — (AP) — Winners were crowned yesterday in the Oregon Coast Golf tournament, with a short and a long putt deciding the men's match.

Jim Miller, Oswego Lake Country club, Portland, won the men-under-40 championship by defeating John Frey, Portland, 1 up. Frey missed a two-footer on the 36th green that would have sent the match into extra holes.

R. J. Nichols, Astoria, sank an 18-foot putt on the 37th hole to nose out Ray Isaacs, Portland, and take the men-over-40 title.

Barbara Snook, 16, Portland, won the women's crown with a 4 and 3 victory over Mrs. Lloyd Burgess, Astoria.

Aug. 3 — Smith vs. Ump. Christian vs. Presby.

Dan Topping, co-owner of the New York Yankees, qualified three times for the U.S. National Amateur Golf championship.

Coming Swimming Meet To Be Spectator's Event

This year's third annual Southern Oregon Invitational swimming meet will be more of a spectator's event, according to Meet Director Ed Montgomery.

He reports that the number of events have been narrowed to 12 to allow time for more skits and spectator events. He said that the last day of the meet, Aug. 19, the sponsoring Junior chamber of commerce would challenge any other service club in town to a swimming race and a race will be and sons and mothers and daughters to the public between fathers.

Montgomery revealed that a complete program was in the process of being worked out and would be ready in the immediate future.

Hunting Laws Released Soon

PORTLAND — (AP) — Copies of Oregon's 1951 hunting regulations will be ready for distribution Aug. 20, the State Game commission reported Saturday.

The commission also confirmed tentative hunting regulations announced two weeks ago.

The deer season will run from Sept. 29 to Oct. 21. Several special deer hunts are scheduled.

The elk season will be Oct. 27 to Nov. 15 in eastern Oregon and Oct. 27 to Nov. 4 in western Oregon.

In the Willamette valley the pheasant season will be Oct. 19-28. For the rest of the state it will be Oct. 19-Nov. 12 in Malheur and Nov. 2-18 in Lake and Klamath.

Regulations call for the use of rifles of .23 caliber or larger for deer and .25 or larger for antelope and elk.

Kahut Wins Decision Over Canadian Carter

COOS BAY, Ore. — (AP) — Joe Kahut, veteran Beaverton heavyweight, scored a unanimous 10-round decision over Billy Carter, Vancouver, B. C., in the main event of a boxing card here Saturday night.

Kahut scaled 184½ and Carter 176. The outweighed Canadian was decked twice in the sixth for the nine count.

Dick Wolfe, Klamath Falls, outpointed Billy Donnelly, Vancouver, B. C., in a six-round welterweight semi-windup.

Burt Slotton, former manager for the Brooklyn Dodgers, began his baseball career as an outfielder in the Ohio-Pennsylvania League in 1908.

Bill McGunnigle was the first manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Rubba Church, right hander for the Phillies, got his nickname through the inability of his baby sister to say "brother."

JAMES G. BROWN, above, U.S. Army private, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown of Winston, was killed in Korean combat July 11. He was 22 years old and had been in the army since Nov. 11, 1950. Pvt. Brown, known as Jimmy, left for the Far East May 1, 1951.

Armistice Pact Conditions Told By Defense Head

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Secretary of Defense Marshall says the withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea at "the proper time" will pose no problem if the Communists sincerely want a peace settlement there.

But the matter is not a suitable one for consideration in armistice talks, Marshall told a news conference.

Marshall had a prepared statement in which he said Secretary of State Acheson made clear last week "why the question of the withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea is not a suitable one for armistice talks." Marshall added:

"The withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea will naturally follow a satisfactory peace settlement. When the proper time comes, removal of these forces should pose no problem if the Communists are sincere in wanting to work out with us a real settlement of the Korean conflict."

Marshall also laid down officially for the first time what he termed the "basic conditions" for an armistice agreement.

His points:

1. Agreement on "a military line which will be defensible in the event of any renewal of hostilities."
2. Agreement "not to reinforce the troops now in Korea."
3. Provision for "adequate supervision and actual inspection" by both sides to insure against any preparations for a surprise attack.
4. "Satisfactory agreement regarding prisoners of war."

to hold up refunds to all counties in the state until the attorney-general has ruled on the Multnomah claim.

PURCHASES PAPER

Allen D. Reed, former employee of the Sutherland Sun and Myrtle Creek Mail, has purchased the News-Guard in De Lake, Ore. The transfer of ownership became effective July 1.

Prior to purchasing the News-Guard, Reed was working as news editor on a weekly paper in Springfield, Ore.

Multnomah County Dispute Holds Up Welfare Funds

PORTLAND — (AP) — A dispute over whether Multnomah county still owes the State Welfare Commission $63,538 is holding up refund of unspent county welfare funds.

Loa Howard, welfare administrator, said Multnomah county borrowed the money during the 1948-1949 fiscal year. She said the county had ignored two requests for payment and now contends that the commission's claim is no longer valid because the money was not repaid within the two succeeding fiscal years.

Yesterday the commission voted
