Wedding Takes Place In Springfield

The marriage of Mary Leach, daughter of Mr. Minnie Leach, Blachly, Ore., to Jim Minter, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dyingner Roseburg, took place July 29 at the First Baptist church in Springfield, Ore.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Paul Felthouse in the presence of 100 friends and relatives.

Jim Crocker, brother-in-law of the bride, gave her away. She wore a white satin dress with flare bustle and a veil of illusion with lace trimming. The veil was held in place by a heart-shaped hat. Her bouquet was an orchid on a prayer book with staphenotis streamers.

Patty Minter, cousin of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and wore a pink organdy gown and carried a bouquet of gladioli and shattered carnations.

Joanne Dyingner, sister of the bridegroom and Louise Leach, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. Miss Dyingner wore a blue organdy gown and Miss Leach wore yellow organdy. Both bouquets were gladioli with shattered carnations.

Sandra Hulbert of Blachly was flower girl.

The best man was Howard Hatcher, Oakland, best friend of the bridegroom and the ushers were Ralph Slater and Wally Russell.

The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli and hydrangeas and lighted candles. Candlelighters were Jim Minter and Dennis Crocker.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Chase sang a favorite of the couple, "Why Do I Love You." John Minter of Portland sang "The Lord's Prayer" following the ceremony. Mrs. Maude Cook was the organist and played the traditional wedding marches.

A reception followed the wedding service in the basement of the church. Mrs. Laurence Chase and Mrs. Jim Crocker served the three-tiered cake, which was decorated with pink and white roses.

The young couple took a honeymoon trip to the McKenzie dam and other points of interest. They will be at home in Eugene as the bridegroom is attending the University of Oregon.

The bride wore a navy blue gabardine suit with white accessories and orchid corsage for traveling.
