

Officers Find Punchboards Are Losing Gamble

PORT ANGELES — (AP) — In case you had any doubts, Clallam county officers have passed along a tip that you aren't going to get rich trying to make money on punchboards. Unless, that is, you happen to own them.

Clallam county Prosecutor Howard V. Doherty and Sheriff James Morse punched through a pile of confiscated money boards in a test of the odds.

They started on a dime board which was about half punched out. On paper, they went $49.50 in the hole.

Then they took a nickel board, on which they would have paid out a theoretical $23.95 to get back $9.25.

"There was a promised jackpot of $15," the prosecutor said, "but we punched the whole board without finding it. I figure the chances of getting it were about one in 12,000."

One of the best investments — for the owner — was a quarter board with 1,500 holes. The officers plugged away at the entire board to discover that for their $375 investment they would have received back $176, while the punchboard owner would get $199.

"The average player drops a few quarters and seldom wins. He could punch out the whole board and still lose," Doherty commented.

The sheriff's office confiscated the money boards after the prosecutor had warned against their operation. During his campaign for election last fall, he promised enforcement of anti-gambling laws covering money punchboards.

Both Sheriff Morse and Prosecutor Doherty said they anticipated no further trouble, now that they have convinced punchboard distributors they mean business.

Gem Theft Bared By Snooze In Car

NEW YORK — (AP) — "Of all the cars he had to fall asleep in, it had to be mine."

With these words, police said Frederick Lehsch, 40, Sunday admitted stealing $4,500 in jewels from the Brooklyn home of Adolph Weber last week.

Lehsch referred to Cornelius Hinson, 32, Negro, who awoke early Sunday, a bit under the weather, in a strange car and with all clothing but his underwear gone.

Hinson garbed himself in a rain coat he found in the auto, police said, and started home to dress. But in the pocket of the raincoat, authorities added, Hinson found six pieces of jewelry.

He turned the jewelry over to police, who checked the car and found its owner — Lehsch. Weber later walked in and identified the gems, including a diamond ring on Hinson's finger.

Lehsch was charged with burglary, Hinson with receiving stolen property.

One mystery remained — what happened to Hinson's clothing?

Tips Should Be Increased In View Of Higher Costs

NEW YORK — (AP) — An average of 15 to 20 percent is more in keeping with the times than the traditional 10 percent gratuity, now an inflation casualty, says a New York automobile club official.

This bit of advice for summer vacationists came from Gilbert B. Phillips, travel department manager of the auto club.

His suggestions also included 25 cents for the bellboy at a city hotel, more if he carries several bags; 25 cents per person for the chambermaid if the hotel stop is two days or more, nothing for one night stays; and 15-20 percent of the check at better restaurants, more at a night club.

VANDALS SMASH MARKER

PORTLAND — (AP) — State police today continued their search for the vandals who smashed a historic old marker in Portland's west hills.

The marker stood at the junction of the Willamette meridian and base line. It marked the spot which was the basis 180 years ago of a master survey of the Northwest.

COST PER TELEPHONE YOU CAN CALL

ACTUALLY LOWER THAN IN 1940

The cost of telephone service today has actually dropped in terms of the number of telephones a customer can call without toll charges. For, since 1940, telephones have doubled in most places.

In spite of these inflationary times, your telephone brings you more real value for your money today than ever.

HERE'S AN EXCEPTIONAL BARGAIN

Your telephone dollar buys more telephone service than in 1940

- The way prices on most items you buy have shot up, in these inflationary times, you might expect that your telephone rates would have gone along, too. For, just as the things you need to run your home have climbed, so have our costs of providing telephone service—wages, taxes, material costs. But actually, the increases in telephone rates do not even cover our increased wage costs alone.
- You have more telephone service—and better telephone service—today than ever. And the value you're getting for your telephone dollars is due, basically, to just one thing. Over the years your telephone system has had the financial strength to attract the investors' money needed to build the equipment and develop telephone service to a mighty efficient level. And with a financially strong system, the telephone can continue to grow in value—its usefulness to you and to all the nation.

Your telephone is one of today's best bargains

Cops Meet Old Buddy; Sequel Is $20 Fine

ARLINGTON, Va. — (AP) — An Arlington policeman met up with a navy buddy he hadn't seen in eight years — and the meeting cost his friend a $20 fine.

Officer Bernard Lunsford was called to the scene of an accident. There, he met John M. Hoagland of Swayzee, Ind. They had been friends at the Bunker Hill, Ind., naval air station.

After an investigation, Lunsford charged Hoagland with reckless driving for passing through a red light. The fine paid in county court, Hoagland and Lunsford shook hands and parted — still friends.
