

Cleveland Extends Lead By Whipping Tigers, 2-1

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's onrushing Indians continue to whiz by all opposition as the "Lopez limited" speeds steadily toward its destination—pennantville.

No wonder the Indians, led by Manager Al Lopez, are talking pennant today. They never were so well off.

The Tribe won again last night, defeating Detroit, 2-1. Here is what the victory meant to the Indians.

It increased their first place margin over the runner-up New York Yankees in the American League to two and a half games as Philadelphia shellacked the Bronxites for the third straight time, 16-8.

It stretched the Tribe's winning streak to 11 straight, only two short of the club's all-time record of 13 accomplished in 1942.

It marked the 19th triumph for Bob Feller, who celebrated a "night" in his honor by limiting the Tigers to seven hits.

It was the eighth consecutive complete job by a Cleveland hurler and it was the 12th straight game the Indians held their opposition to four or less runs. It also was Cleveland's 14th win in 15 meetings with Detroit.

On Their Way
"We're on our way," said Lopez. "I don't see how anyone can stop us now."

"If we can build up a lead of five games during our coming home stay against the East, we're in. We're getting great pitching and timely hitting. Ray Boone and Bobby Avila have been splendid at short and third and Al Rosen has been helping us with those home runs."

It was a homer by Rosen—his 20th—that proved the difference last night. It came in the fourth inning and snapped a scoreless duel between Feller and Marlin Stuart. A Detroit error, Feller's blood single, a sacrifice and Avila's fly gave Cleveland an unearned run in the fifth. Singles by Jerry Friday and Dick Kryhoski and George Kell's forceout produced the Tiger run in the eighth.

"We're in the best shape of the season," said Lopez. "This is a bounce-back ball club. We proved it when after dropping those first two in New York, we came back to win the next one and followed with two out of three victories in Boston."

"That was the turning point for us."

Philadelphia raked four New York chukkers for 18 hits — its season high — and scored in all but the first and eighth innings. Catcher Joe Tipton got four hits and drove in three runs. Elmer Valo also made four hits and drove in two. Morrie Martin won his seventh game. Vic Raschi started for the Yankees but Joe Ostrowski was charged with the loss.

Yanks Hit Hard
In the last three games, the Athletics have bombarded 11 Yankee pitchers for 32 runs and 46 hits. Whew.

A three-run homer by Gil Hodges in the eighth inning gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a 7-6 victory over Boston's Braves and left their 12½ first place margin intact. The runner-up New York Giants won their third straight from Philadelphia's Phils, 5-2.

Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from Pittsburgh, 2-0 and 7-1 while Chicago's Cubs upset the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-3.

Hodges' homer was his 33rd of the season and the 200th of his big league career. Carl Erskine was credited with his 13th victory but needed relief from Clyde King in the ninth.

Whitey Lockman cracked a three-run homer in the first inning off Bubba Church and that was all Larry Jansen needed to record his 15th triumph for the Giants.

The Cubs blasted Dick Bokolman for five runs in the second inning to ruin the Rookie's first big league start. Ransom Jackson collected three hits and scored twice. Stan Musial's 200th big league homer went to waste for the Cards.

Howie Fox blanked the Bucs on five hits in the opener and helped his cause with a homer. Ewell Blackwell had a one-hitter until the ninth of the nightcap. It was Blackie's 12th win.

2 League Tilts Left For Chiefs

The local baseball season has a little over three weeks to run and a glance over the Umpqua Chief game docket shows the Roseburg squad is set to close out the campaign in a blaze of activity.

Only two games remain to be played by the Chiefs in the Southwestern Oregon league. They journey to Myrtle Creek this Sunday and return for the final conference encounter against Reedsport the following Sunday, Aug. 28. Since these are the two doormat teams of the league, a vein of optimism is noticeable even though Roseburg squeaked past Myrtle Creek by one run and lost to Reedsport earlier in the season.

These are the crucial games, but two tougher tests loom on the horizon. Preceding the Reedsport tilt Sunday, Aug. 26, the Chiefs will host Bandon Saturday night on the local diamond in a non-league game. Finally, on Aug. 29, a Wednesday, the oft-postponed game with the Eugene Larks appears to be all arranged, but not for a Roseburg showing. Drain, the Douglas county baseball hotbox, arranged the meeting of the Chiefs and the Far West league team. It will be played on the Drain field as a benefit contest.

The regular season may be extended if the Chiefs win both the remaining league games. This will give the locals a berth in the Shoughnessy playoffs which are scheduled for early September.

PATNIK PERFORMS — Al Patnik, one of diving's all-time greats, is stopped momentarily for a camera study of perfect form and muscular coordination. The comparatively easy jackknife above even takes on a new rhythmic beauty as Patnik will show when he returns to the municipal pool for the Jaycee-sponsored Southern Oregon Invitational swim meet and water carnival, Aug. 18 and 19.

Aquatic Festival Promises Superb Field Of Performers

Southern Oregon's greatest annual aquatic festival promises to be bigger and better than ever before.

From a spectator standpoint, the Southern Oregon Invitational swimming meet and water carnival will have everything. Slated for Saturday and Sunday nights at 7:30, the meet and carnival will sport some of the biggest names in the Northwest's swimming annals on the same bill with champion log rollers and local swimming groups.

Topping the list of swimming dignitaries is Al Patnik, returning to the Junior chamber of commerce-sponsored event for the third consecutive year. Patnik is rated as the greatest diver ever produced. Since retiring from active competition in 1940, he has appeared in exhibitions all over the world.

While at Ohio State, the graceful technician was undefeated in both high and low board diving. He retired undefeated after five years of national collegiate, AAU and international competition. He still maintains his amateur status and all exhibition costs are traveling expenses to and from the events.

Program Is Stocked

His exhibition alone is worth the $1.50 admission price, but the Jaycees have stocked the program with plenty of additional talent. An example is Jack Henderson and Al Edwards, called the Trampoline Stylists. Henderson is another repeat performer from last year. He was limited to clown diving then, but this year he has added a partner and a trampoline.

Another highlight beside the racing competition is a log-rolling contest to determine the Douglas county champion. The winner will be awarded a trophy and an expense-paid trip to the Albany Timber carnival competition in 1952. Entries may be made with

Rainiers, Sacs Clash Tonight

Seattle's coast league leading Rainiers will try to put a little extra air in their tires starting tonight, before taking off on their most important road trip of the season.

The Rainiers host Sacramento in the opener of a four-game series, hoping to pad their five-game lead. Rogers Hornsby's hungry horde then will descend on Los Angeles and Hollywood for a 16-game stand that should just about decide the 1951 pennant race.

As a matter of record, the Sacs may have more trouble with Sacramento than with the third-place Angels or runner-up Stars. The Sacs have won nine of the 10 games played with Seattle this year the closest any club in the league has come to breaking even with the pacemakers.

Have Busy Schedule

The Sacs have taken 11 out of 18 from Hollywood, 10 of 14 against Los Angeles. They'll meet the Angels in a five-game series starting Saturday, then follow next week with five at Hollywood.

Lefty Earl Johnson, whose 6-1 performance since joining the club six weeks ago has been a big help, is slated to pitch for the Rainiers tonight. Orval Grove (8-5) is Sacramento's starting choice.

Hollywood's Pinky Woods (12-8), back in the good graces of Manager Fred Haney after a sore arm incident, has been named to start for the Stars at Oakland. The Oaks will counter with slow-stuff Red Hardy (2-1).

Lastplace San Francisco invades Los Angeles and leads with right-handed Ace Lou Burdette (12-11) against the Angels' Warren Hacker (6-12).

The fourth night game pits San Diego against Portland in the northwest city. Starters were not named.

Pro Football Teams Meet In Charity Battle

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams were installed as seven point favorites today for their charity clash tomorrow night with the Washington Redskins.

The traditional pre-season battle will lift the lid on the potentialities of both National football league clubs.

The Rams, defending western division champions, won last year's struggle 17 to 14. The game lured 95,625 patrons into Memorial coliseum.

Church Division All-Stars Romp Over Industrialists

The Church division all-stars, behind the one-hit pitching of Ralph Sanstede, romped over the Industrial division all-stars, 5-1, Monday night on Veterans field.

On the strength of a four-run burst in the opening frame, the Churchmen snared the lead and were never pressed. Sanstede reached first on a fielder's choice the first. The only hit off him was a single by Jim White. This timely single accounted for the only run by the Industrialists. Bob Kidder came home after reaching second on an error.

The big first-inning rally by the Churchmen was inaugurated when the first man at bat, Garey Piper walked. Curley Craig advanced him to second with a single. Piper beat it home when Sanstede reached first on a fielder's choice that nipped Craig at second. Jack Loomis got on when Ted Reece muffed his fly to left field. Bob Heimrich cleared Sanstede and Loomis off the bases with a double and scored himself when Charles Clark collected the second consecutive double off Bob Kidder.

Another Fixer Being Grilled

NEW YORK — (AP) — The district attorney's office, delving into fixed basketball games, sought additional information today from a fifth man arrested in connection with the widespread scandal.

Indications were given by Vincent A. G. O'Connor, assistant district attorney, that the affair might spread into the deep south and far west.

Nathaniel Brown, 33, of Brooklyn, was held in $10,000 bail as a material witness. O'Connor said he had been associated with four others under arrest on charges of bribing players to fix games.

Brown "has important information which he has yet to disclose," said O'Connor, adding that his investigators are nearing information involving additional unnamed players and colleges.

O'Connor said Brown had travelled to the far west in connection with fixes during the 1948-49 season.
