Four Examiners Slated For Auto License Job Here

Four examiners will be on duty in Roseburg Wednesday through Friday to handle the increased number of persons applying for driving licenses, announces I. C. Bishop, Douglas county license examiner.

Bishop says examiners have been flooded with applications since the new Oregon law went into effect. The new law provides for a maximum penalty of $500 fine and six months in jail or a person operating an automobile without a license.

For the first two days of this week, two men have been on duty, but the additional personnel was added to process as many applicants as possible. As of Saturday, there were 150 persons waiting to complete their drivers tests. Examiners have handled about 45 persons a week previously, and there has been approximately 50 or 60 waiting at the end of the two-day period.

After this week, examiners will be in Roseburg for two days only—Thursday and Friday. Persons desiring licenses are urged to take advantage of the increased facilities provided. Applications will be accepted until 4 p.m. each day.

A driver's license manual should be studied before attempting to pass the test. They can be obtained at 343 North Main St.
