By MYRTLE BURR
Child Psychologists tell us emphatically that there are no really "bad" children. Most often Juvenile delinquency is the result of poor planning for leisure time.

We're told more and more often that Music provides one of the best uses of leisure time. The hours spent in practice and in enjoyment of music . . . instrumental, piano or vocal music . . . gives a child a sense of accomplishment and well-being. Playing, hearing, understanding good music leads the active young imaginations away and above the dangers of too much leisure time.

Give your child the gift of music for the right foundation for a FULL LIFE.

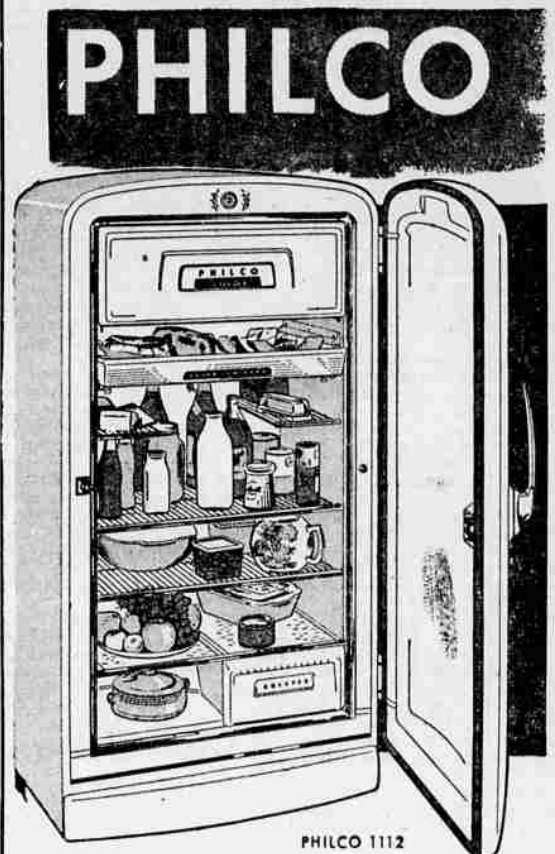

Practice is important in developing musical ability, equally important is the growing satisfaction that comes from practice on a fine instrument. With a new KING BAND INSTRUMENT, the beginner learns more readily . . . and the professional plays more expertly. We carry only the finest in music, radios and recorders at OTT & RICK-ETTS MUSIC STORE, 101-105 W. Cass St. Phone: 3-3202. (Pd. Adv.)

OUTDOOR ART EXHIBIT
Library Park
FRIDAY SATURDAY

Once again our local artists display their work in the sylvan setting of Library Park. Whether you are an art critic or not, you'll enjoy looking at the work of our own local artists. Some of them have studied in the art schools of the East. Some, perhaps, are self-taught—what they call "primitives." Here in the Umpqua Valley they have done their work, taking their inspiration from our matchless scenery. Children and grown-ups alike will find a feast of color in this outdoor art exhibit.
