Elkton

By MRS. PHYLLIS A. SMITH

All eyes here are watching the fire anxiously. During most of the day the air is blue with smoke, but usually toward night one can see the reflections of flames in the sky. Ashes and half-burned leaves float down at Elkton. Practically all able-bodied men of the community are on the fire lines. No homes have been lost in this area, yet.

When seven-year-old David Downes goes back to school this fall he will have something really big to tell his school mates, for Wednesday David killed his second rattlesnake at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jones, who live near Elkton. The snake measured thirty inches and had ten rattles and a button. This brings the total of snakes killed on the Jones ranch to eight this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Albro are being congratulated on the birth of their first child, a son, Eric Lynn, who was born Aug. 18. The baby weighed eight pounds and 15 ounces. Mrs. Albro is the former Bonnie McMickle.

Mrs. Leigh White expects her son, Pvt. Dale H. Moe, U. S. army, home soon on furlough from Camp Hood, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Benedict have sold their home in Elkton and will soon move to Salem.

The Kellogg Juvenile Grange is having their annual Rodeo on Saturday Aug. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Partch and family have moved back to Elkton from Alsea, where they spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alvord are moving to Sutherlin.

Jeannette Huckins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Huckins, of Drain is reported to be ill with polio at the Sacred Heart hospital. Mrs. Huckins is the former Lenore Cleo of Elkton.
