

Truce Prospects Get Darker On Korean Front

12, 1950, in one of the heaviest raids early in the war. Presumably MacArthur was told not to attack the city after that bombing. More than 500 bombs were dumped on the city's port facilities by 50 superforts in that first attack. The B-29s struck again last week, with Washington's approval.

Thirty-five B-29 Superforts blasted Rashin Saturday with 300 tons of bombs.

Washington Approves

The U. S. Defense department said it approved the bombing as "part of the general policy of preventing the enemy from building up his forces in Korea."

The Reds have been steadily building up their strength on the front during truce negotiations. One military authority in Tokyo said:

"I feel sure now that the Reds began this armistice talk business for the sole purpose of building up their army for a big attack. They were buying time, I think, and by now they have had just about all they need."

U. N. planes have been heavily attacking motor convoys moving along highways toward the front. Bad weather cut down U. N. air attacks Monday and provided cover for Red truck movements.

The rains also helped screen growing Red counterattacks on the ground, which forced some limited U. N. withdrawals.

Off the east coast, American warships supported ground troops and engaged in an artillery duel with Red shore batteries at the besieged port of Wonsan.

The sea-to-shore artillery duel at Wonsan has gone on intermittently for three consecutive days. Red artillery, well concealed in the cliffs around Wonsan, fired on besieging ships from a range of five to seven miles. The Reds didn't hit anything, the navy reported.

Doukhobor Sect Eyed In Forest Fire Suspicion

NELSON, B. C. — (AP) Charges that five forest fires raging in Nelson district were set by "one or more fanatics from the Sons of Freedom Doukhobor sect" were made here by District Forester H. B. Forse.

Mr. Forse made the charge as 1,600 firefighters, more than 1,200 of whom were drafted by the RCMP, struggled to quench 32 fires burning across 40,000 acres of timberland.

He said a Krestova Doukhobor set a fire now burning over 900 acres at Glade. "It was definitely an incendiary blaze," he said. "The only settlement in the whole area is the Sons of Freedom sect at Krestova."

"Four separate fires have been set right on the outskirts of Krestova, but we've been unable to stop them before they got too much headway."

Mr. Forse said he did not want to blame Sons of Freedom generally. He thought it could be "one member."

Several Sons of Freedom volunteered to fight fires and others were drafted. In all 200 Doukhobors are included in fire-fighting forces.

Sidewalk Hole Trips Child, Killing Her

YAKIMA, Wash. — (AP) — A shallow hole in a sidewalk caused the death of nine-year-old Martha Jean Fulks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Fulks.

The child was playing with a companion when she caught her foot in a hole in the sidewalk. The child died within 10 minutes.

Physicians said she received a broken neck.

CITY COURT CASES

Albert Dwight Largent, 22, Weed, Calif., was fined $40 on a disorderly conduct charge and Clifford William Reeves, 37, Roseburg, was committed to the city jail on a drunk charge, reports Municipal Judge Ira B. Riddle. Eddie Proulx, 40, San Francisco, received a suspended fine on a drunk charge.

TWO FORFEIT BAIL

Nyal Henry Boyd of Dillard and James Donald Dunn of Roseburg both forfeited $20 bail upon their failure to appear in municipal court Monday to answer drunk charges, Judge Ira B. Riddle reports.

Washington State College Has Pro-Tem President

SPOKANE — (AP) — Dr. William A. Pearl, director of Washington State college's institute of technology, has been named acting president of the college.

James A. Mc Cluskey, president of the WSC board of regents, announced Dr. Pearl will take over when the registration of Dr. William Compton becomes effective Sept. 15.

He said Dr. Pearl will serve as acting president until a permanent president is chosen and arrives on the campus.

Dr. Compton's resignation last April, after six years as head of the school, grew out of his differences with the board of regents.

Dr. Pearl graduated from WSC in 1916 and also holds a master of science degree in mechanical engineering from the school. He received a doctor of philosophy degree from the University of Michigan in 1934.

Truman Talks Plainly To New Envoy Of Czechs

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman told the new Czechoslovak ambassador the best way to restore cordial relations with the United States would be for his government to free William N. Oatis, Associated Press correspondent jailed there on spy charges.

In a meeting limited to five minutes, reporters were told, Mr. Truman informed Dr. Vladimir Prochazka that relations between the U. S. and Czechoslovakia had "deteriorated every since Jan Masaryk was murdered."

This plain talk when the ambassador called to present his credentials was reported afterwards by the President's press secretary, Joseph Short.

Masaryk, a staunch anti-Communist, fell to his death from a window, while he was under house arrest by the Reds in Prague several years ago.

Short concluded by asserting: "The ambassador made no response to those remarks."

Earlier, Prochazka had told reporters he found Mr. Truman "friendly." He arrived at the White House as some 50 former Czechs, among them refugees from communism, picketed in front of the gates in protest against the Red regime he represents.

Prochazka, a mild-mannered man, gave no indication of having noticed the pickets.

He declined to say whether he and the President had discussed the Oatis case. Oatis, now in a Prague prison, was sentenced to ten years imprisonment by the Communist Czech regime after a trial that has been widely denounced in this country as farcical.

But before the meeting, Prochazka had this comment on the Oatis case: "It was a job of the court. It was a trial and it rests with them."

Cooties Assist In Activities To Cheer Patients

Several members of the Roseburg Military Order of the Cooties attended a Medford Veterans hospital picnic last weekend in company with about 75 Cooties from other parts of the state. About 250 patients of the hospital there were entertained.

Local men attending included Bus Williams, grand hospital chairman; Dick Preston, department hospital director; Jim Polard and Ben Zellmer.

Meanwhile, other Cooties were taking about 23 local Veterans hospital patients to the auto races, through the courtesy of the managers, Frank Diver and E. A. Vanderhoff.

Another activity last Thursday saw the patients at the local hospital present a program of entertainment for the volunteer workers who had served with patients during the past year.

The hospital presented certificates to outstanding volunteer workers, representing several local organizations. Cootie organizations received four of the certificates.

God's Judgment Coming, Asserts Billy Graham

PORTLAND — (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham is afraid of three things.

They are moral deterioration, communism and the judgment of God.

He told an audience of 14,000 here Monday night that of the three he most fears the last.

"I am certain the judgment of God will fall on us in the next few months," the fiery young evangelist said.

He spoke in Multnomah stadium and wore a borrowed overcoat against the cool weather. Sprinkles of rain fell once during the talk.

"If there was ever a time America needed awakening from its lethargy it's the present hour," he said. "We desperately need a revival. Portland needs a revival. The crowd meets Billy Graham but there is sin here also tonight," he said.

He called for elimination of the "moral deterioration inside America" in his discussion of his three fears. He defined communism as "a fanatical religion that has declared war on all other religions."

When he interrupted his talk to ask photographers not to take pictures during his sermon, the audience applauded. Graham halted the applause he said:

"You people ought to thank Portland for newspapers that are interested in religious things."

This brought even heavier applause.

Following the sermon, an estimated 500 persons answered Graham's call for converts.
