Metz was a four-year letterman at Yoncalla high school, captain of the basketball team in his senior year, vice-president of the high school in his junior year, and class president while a senior.

He is the first Yoncalla man to serve in Korea.

JUNK MAN CHEATED

It finally happened—the shrewdest capitalist of them all, the junk dealer, was cheated. Word has it he was cheated out of an old beaten up divan. Mrs. Lillian W. Broadbent was about to give the divan to said junk man, when a back fence neighbor suggested she have the divan reupholstered.

Mr. Calvin Wolf, diligent owner of Expert Furniture Cleaners & Upholsterers directly behind Richie's Root Beer Drive In, who upholstered above mentioned divan, pointed out that no matter what the condition of your furniture—even if it appears ready for the junk pile—don't give it up. If the frame is intact this upholstery company will upholster it. They strip all upholstery right down to the bare frame anyway—and rebuild the piece with completely new, highest quality materials. And, in the final analysis, the cost of upholstering is determined by the type of fabric, not the condition of the piece. Our phone please 3-3191. It's an ad.

Dillard

By MRS. ROSA HEINBACH
Mr. and Mrs. Dale Moore and children, Donna and Derry, have moved recently into the seven-room house they built on Willis Creek, on what the old timers call "the old Vic Phipps ranch." This "stump" Willis family camped on the hillside under the pine tree that still stands. Later they built the house that
