Truman Brands His Opponents Foes Of Progress

These two goals, he said in a talk prepared for broadcast to Democratic Women's day celebrations across the country, must not be jeopardized "by men who are careless with the truth."

"When we face such solemn de-cisions as those which now con-front our country," he continued, "we must act on the basis of facts, not fables."

Mr. Truman addressed 15 para-southern Democrats, were labeled "short-sighted and anti-labor" by Joseph D. Keenan, retiring director of labor's league for political education, AFL's political arm.

Keenan told the AFL convention at San Francisco that the 19-all prospective candidates for re-elec-tion next year — are "themen prospective candidates for re-ciec-tion next year — are "themen who gave you the Taft-Hartley bill." He described that measure as a "time bomb" he said could "destroy the labor movement."

Democrats generally were silent and Republicans vocal about Keenan's indictment.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), Taft-Hart-ley law co-author and a probable candidate for the GOP presidential nomination, wasn't on the list. He is not a next year candidate for re-election to the Senate. He snowed under labor's opposition community. There's nothing more important you can do.

"When the people know the turth and the facts, no one has to tell them how to vote."

Mr. Truman said the Democratic party has gone a long way toward achieving its goals and is still making progress.

He described these goals as world peace, prosperity, better schools, greater security for old people, higher living standards, the holding down of prices, and better housing and medical care "for everybody."
