By JEAN YODER

The Rev. and Mrs. H. Erne Taylor of Gardiner have been engaged as special speakers for the church benefit dinner scheduled for Oct. 11. The dinner, featuring chicken loaf, chicken noodles, and creamed chicken, is being furnished by the Ladies Aid of the Camas Valley church and will be served cafeteria style from 5:30 to 8 p. m.

The Rev. and Mrs. Taylor have been missionaries in Rhodesia, Africa. They will bring many of their African souvenirs with them to illustrate their talk.

The following women have been selling tickets: Mesdames Ray Dancer, Frank Brown, Ted Heilman, Robert Wheeler, A. Hudson, Warren Householder, Louis Pryor, Hayden Taylor, Art Jones, Tim Combs, Chris McCann, Guy Moore and A. R. Spencer. Tickets will also be sold at the door the night of the dinner.

Biggest buck to be weighed in so far in the "Buck for a Buck" contest belongs to O. H. Standley. His entry weighed 14½ pounds. Only two other entries have been made, one by Wilma L. Raye, weight, 3 1/2 pounds, and the other by Angie Clarno, weight, 1 1/4 pounds.

Hunters wishing to enter the contest can do so by putting $1 in the jack pot when they buy their tag at the Camas Valley stores. Three prizes will be given: one for the biggest black tail deer, one for the biggest mule deer, and one for the finest set of horns. Net proceeds from the contest will go to the fire truck fund. The contest is being sponsored by the volunteer fireman organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Taylor were dinner guests of the G. W. Tipton of Roseburg, Sunday previous to Mr. Tipton's leaving for Astoria naval station. Called home because of the illness of his father, Mr. Tipton was on his way back to his base when he was notified that his father had died Monday.

The fire truck was utilized Saturday to put out a fire in a car belonging to Troy Burt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dancer and daughters, Maxine and Judy, went to Medford over the weekend to visit their son, Frank. While there, they took a trip to Crater Lake.

Camas Valley Grange won $10 for having the largest percentage of members present at Pomona Grange last Saturday in Riverside Grange hall. They also received $5 for participating in the Douglas county fair. Present from Grange 512 were Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Guy supply and reinforce their front line troops. The U. S. battleship New Jersey moved in close to the east coast and hurled more than 140 tons of explosives from her 16-inch guns at Reds fighting South Korean infantrymen between Kangsong and Kosong.

Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Papst, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cunningham, Mrs. Doris Lamm, Mrs. Lucille Counts and Mrs. L. G. Weasler. Pomona will meet with Camas Valley the last Saturday in January.

In an abrupt exchange of messages today, Red and Allied commanders each proposed that Korean truce talks be resumed immediately—but disagreed on a site.

The Kiwanis International convention, as well as the Northwest District convention, will be held in Seattle next year. It was brought out that this will probably be the last international convention in the Pacific Northwest, as there are not accommodations available. Seattle has hotel accommodations for about 3000, although 11,000 are expected from the more than 200,000 membership.

At Tuesday's meeting, Harry Hill reported that plans were shaping up for the grade school football jamboree Oct. 27.

George Bielle, president and representative of the high school Key Club, reported on activities of the club.

Horace C. Berg of Roseburg, speaking agent for Prudential Insurance Company of America, is one of five members of the Portland agency selected to attend a three-day business conference of the company's top insurance producers in Palm Beach, Fla. The session began today.

Consistently a leader among the top agents, Berg is the third ranking agent for the entire country, according to Richard O. Mason, agency manager, Portland.

Delegates Report On Convention At Kiwanis Meet

Reports by delegates J. E. Slattery, president, and Maurice Newland, past president, on the recent Kiwanis Northwest area convention held at Vancouver, B. C., were given at the weekly Kiwanis club meeting Tuesday noon.

As an additional program feature, Leroy Inman, city-editor of the News-Review, gave a short review of National Newspaper week, in which he stressed the importance of a free press if the people of this country wish to remain free.

The two convention delegates discussed various phases of the business portion of the affair and other information concerning the convention city, including recreational features.

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Three years ago Jerry Beckley flibbed about his age and enlisted in the army. He was 14.

The army learned the truth about his age when Jerry was wounded in Korea. Jerry was sent home with an honorable discharge.

Wednesday Jerry persuaded his mother, Mrs. Marie Raltonza, to go to court seeking appointment as his legal guardian. As such, she can authorize him to enter the navy. Within three months Jerry will be 18 and can enter the navy without having to obtain permission.

But Jerry can't wait that long.

Canyonville

By MRS. H. M. ANDERSON
Band uniforms for the Canyonville school band were ordered last week for 30 students. Shipment is expected in about six weeks. Students are required to buy their own white duck trousers and the school will furnish the orange stripes. The coats are high trimmed in orange and are of 100 percent virgin wool whipcord. The hats are Pershing style and are black and orange. Five majorette hats were also ordered, four with orange plumes and one with a white plume.

In the recent magazine drive conducted in the Canyonville high school, Supt. O. J. Monger reported the students more than reached their goal of $1000, which will give them an extra two percent bonus. Mrs. Leila Wimberly acted as general magazine chairman with each class also having a chairman. The school wishes to thank the people who supported them in the drive, and advise them it may take eight to ten weeks before they receive their magazines.

There will be no school Thursday and Friday, Oct. 11 and 12, in the first eight grades, while teachers attend a workshop in Roseburg.

The Canyonville Tigers are scheduled to meet the Camas Valley six-man football team in a game here Friday, Oct. 5.

Second Atomic Bomb Exploded By Russia

lease of atomic energy into the upper atmosphere, where traces are picked up by delicate instruments even though the explosion may occur thousands of miles distant, was fortified by an actual record of the explosive shock. A congressional source said a seismographic record, like that used for earthquakes, was obtained and showed the explosion was "very successful."

It appeared to have occurred within the last few days. And it was of the nuclear fission type, not a hydrogen bomb explosion, it was explained in other authoritative quarters.

In general news of the new Soviet test produced no great surprise in Congress or elsewhere in the capital. Reports from intelligence sources had indicated the Russians were working hard to perfect the weapon type they used two years ago.

Picture Gets "Darker"
Announcement of the new Soviet test brought up again the question of how many A-bombs Russia now has.

Rep. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.), in commenting on the Russian explosion, said he had access to intelligence reports. He added: "National security forbids me to state the exact number of atomic weapons which Russia is estimated to possess today but I can say this: "

"Each successive intelligence report which I examine gives a little darker and a little grimmer picture."

Senator McMahon, in a senate speech on Sept. 18 in which he urged all-out effort in atomic weapons production, gave another hint. He said "the Soviet rulers have the capability of attacking 20 or 30 of our cities with atomic bombs" and that "every tomorrow will see that capability increase."

WATER LINE PERMIT
The Robert Dollar company of Glendale has been granted a franchise for installation of two-inch water line along side the old Roseburg county road, the county court said.
