STATE REGENT VISITS UMPQUA CHAPTER, DAR

At a special meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. George R. Hyslop of Corvallis, state regent, reported on the national activities of the organization and the National Congress, which she attended in Washington, D. C. in April.

She urged members of Umpqua Chapter to assist in preserving the early records of Douglas county and Roseburg by copying old and faded documents, making transcripts of family Bible entries and of tombstone inscriptions and in general preserving data of historical and genealogical significance.

She stated that similar work carried on in other counties and communities had already supplied the necessary background for establishing titles and proving claims in several cases and had developed into a service of value to the community.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Lester Nielsen and followed a dinner in Mrs. Hyslop's honor at the Turn-Around inn. Bouquet of salvia and scarlet Zinnias decorated the tables. An especially enjoyable part of the program was a group of early American songs by Mrs. Nielsen, accompanied by Mrs. Clyde W. Carstens.

ROSEBURG BPW HOLDS SESSION

The Roseburg Business and Professional Women's club held its regular meeting Monday at the home of Miss Ruth Roberts, 702 E. Lane St.
