Finlay field. It wasn't so much the 30-18 vic-tory the Roseburg Jayvees posted over Drain, but it was the way they did it. There were many ob-vious flaws that would be expected of a squad of youngsters, but there was also that intangible fire that makes or breaks so many squads.

was also that intangible fire that makes or breaks so many squads. Noticeable was that desire to win and that thrill of competition. These two factors, probably more than any thing else, have contributed to the immense im-provement of the squad this year. Blocking and tacking were vi-cious and runners were never stopped until their feet were churn-ing air.

Reedsport, Drain Score In Weekend Grid Battles

Only undefeated Reedsport and county B champion Drain had a happy story to tell about the week-end's county football activity. The caliber of competition for county teams this week doesn't promise better things ahead ei-ther. For example, Roseburg runs into another toughle in Cottage Grove. Although the Lions haven't won a game in the last four, they have given some of the state's top teams a rough tussle. Marshfield, Friday, could do not better than EAGUE STANDINGS
