Fracture Victim Helpless
After Wife Drops Dead

LOS ANGELES —(AP)—William Mortley, 77, in bed with a broken hip, lay helpless for five days after his wife fell to the floor dead of a heart attack.

"I called out several times but I guess my voice was too weak to carry," he said. "There was a telephone but I couldn't reach it." Police were summoned by his landlady, Mrs. J. W. Moore. She said she became worried because she hadn't seen Mrs. Alice Mortley, 68, since last Friday.

Myrtle Creek Youths Will Serve In Navy

Leslie Milton Willis, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Willis of Myrtle Creek and Dewey Roscoe Clay, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Clay of Myrtle Creek, enlisted in the United States navy on Oct. 16.

Both men graduated from Myrtle Creek high school last year. Leslie enlisted in the U. S. naval reserve in March 1950 and recently received orders to report for active duty. Under current regulations, which permit men in regular if they so desire, he decided to enlist for a four year enlistment so he could enlist under the naval aviators program.

Upon completion of Recruit training in San Diego, he will at his category to enlist in the regular school for naval aviators for eight weeks before being assigned to a naval aviation squadron or aviation unit.

Douglas Timber
Included In Coos
Sale By B.L.M.

COOS BAY — A bid of $128,997 by the Menasha Plywood corporation was the highest offered for a Coos county timber tract containing 4,965,000 board feet of Douglas fir timber at Tuesday's auction conducted by the bureau of land management.

The Long-Bell Lumber company bought 1,225,000 board feet of western Douglas county timber at the appraised price of $26,172. A volume of 2,185,000 board feet of timber was sold for appraised value of $43,400.50 at the bureau of land management oral auction sale conducted by M. H. McCormack Oct. 17.

Two parcels of timber were offered at this oral auction sale with Roseburg Lumber company submitting the appraised price for one tract. The other tract of timber received no bids. This tract of timber can still be sold within the next 90 days at the appraised value if a bid is submitted during this period.

One other tract of timber containing a total volume of 955,000 board feet was offered for sealed bidding Oct. 16, at 2 p.m. at the regional office, Swan Island, Portland.

Only one more scheduled timber sale will be held during the remainder of the calendar year. This will be held sometime during the week of Dec. 10, and will complete the timber sale offerings under the 1951 annual timber sale plan.

Veterans School Frauds Lead To More Arrests

WASHINGTON —(AP)—The FBI has announced the arrest of 22 persons on charges of fraud against the government in connection with the G. I. educational program.

Fourteen arrests were made in Miami, Fla., two in Detroit, one in Dayton, O. two in New York City and three in the Newark, N. J. area.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover identified those arrested as employees, officials, and owners of five vocational schools.

Hoover said the alleged frauds total more than $350,000.

In the past 10 months, he added, FBI investigations have resulted in the arrest of more than 300 persons charged with veterans school frauds totaling close to $1,000,000.
