Football Briefs

SEATTLE — Pacific Northwest football notes;
WASHINGTON STATE — Coach Forest Evashevski named Bob Burkhardt, Sonny Galloway and Jack Hendrickson, all nursing injuries, to the squad flying to Corvallis today but indicated Burkhardt probably will be the only one of the three to see action against Oregon State tomorrow. WSC is rated underdog in the Pacific Coast conference clash. . . .
OREGON STATE — Coach Kip Taylor ran the Beavers through a light tapering-off drill in preparation for tomorrow's homecoming game against Washington State. . . .
OREGON — Freshman George Shaw who passed Oregon to its only touchdown against Washington last week, was named to start as quarterback against UCLA in Los Angeles tomorrow. The Oregon team flies south today. . . .
WASHINGTON — Washington's hopes for an upset victory over Illinois were strengthened by news that quarterback Sam Mitchell, sidelined by a foot injury two weeks ago, will see limited action in tomorrow's inter-sectional game at Seattle. A crowd of 55,000 or more was expected to fill the Husky stadium for the contest. Illinois Coach Ray Eliot scheduled a light workout in the stadium today. . . .

IDAHO — Idaho rates a slight favorite over San Jose State in tomorrow's Dad's day game at Moscow, even though each team has lost three or four games played this year. It will be the second grid meeting of the teams. San Jose State won the first game 26 to 14 in 1946.

10 Prep Schools Remain Unscathed

By MATT KRAMER
Associated Press Staff Writer

Just one month remains before Oregon high school teams go into their championship playoffs, and only 10 class A teams still are undefeated and untied.

All 10 go into action this weekend. All 10 are expected to emerge unscathed.

The most notable is Grants Pass, No. 1 in the Associated Press poll for the past month. After piling up five straight non-counting victories this season, Grants Pass at last goes into district competition.

The opponent will be Medford, an in-and-out performer this season. If Medford happens to have one of its better nights, the game might be close. But the game will be on Grants Pass' home field and Grants Pass, undefeated in 16 straight games, will be the favorite.

Marshfield, No. 3 in the latest poll and victor in five straight games, will take on unbeaten but once-tied Reedsport in a non-district game at Reedsport.

Eugene, defeated only by Medford, will be host to Albany in a game that does not count in district standings but will be important to the big six league race. Eugene was No. 9 in the latest poll.

Two top-notch games are offered in Portland, Lincoln, the No. 10 team in the state and the current leader of the Portland race, will tackle Grant, the state's No. 6 team. Roosevelt, the No. 2 team in the state, will play Washington.

Galloping Ghost Battles Dugan In Semi-Final

The Galloping Ghost, known also as the hooded hoodlum, will crawl through the ropes at the armory Saturday night to wrestle Dan Dugan of Long Beach in the semi-final.

Last week the Ghost put a stop to Danno McDonald's championship aspirations by handing him an undisputed beating. He has proved as tough and rugged as advanced publicity indicated.

However, Matchmaker Elton Owen says he will not have any difficulty finding opponents as he did in the east when wrestlers refused to meet him.

And ringbirds predict that Dugan is the boy who may set the Ghost back. He has gained considerable experience around Los Angeles, and he possesses blinding speed.

But the big battle on tap is the rematch between Andy Tremaine and Buddy Knox, the pair who engaged in such a confusing brawl last week that no one knew what the official outcome had been.

Referee Downed
After Referee Buck Davidson had been referred to the mat by Knox, who was using Tremaine's head as a ram in an attempt to crash him into a ring post, and Tremaine had pinned the villain after they fell from the impact, the match became a slugfest.

Davidson wasn't able to make a decision for a few seconds and the match continued though Knox had been legally downed. However, he did call a fall for Knox after the Champion had been downed by an illegal blow.

Then things began happening. Fans crowded around the ring to protest and the Roseburg wrestling commissioners termed the match no-contest and ordered a rematch.

Knox, then, put up a protest. He said he had won fair and square. But the commissioners stood firm, and Knox has promised that he will teach the little guy to leave the big boys alone this time.

Dale Kiser will meet Danny O'Rourke in the opener, and this promises to be a fast battle. Both boys are about equally matched in size and experience. Tickets are on sale at Powell's.

Tiger Pitcher Says Tax Laws Need Revision

By DILLON GRAHAM
WASHINGTON — Fred Hutchinson, Detroit Tiger pitcher, suggested today that baseball players — athletes with short careers — should be given special income tax treatment.

"There should be some allowance for ball players similar to depreciation on a structure or machine," he said.

Hutchinson told a house judiciary subcommittee that the average major league career of a player is about five years. He said players were trained solely for the game. Some relief should be given them from taxes, he said, because their highest income lasts for only a few years.

A player should be allowed to deduct for his maintenance when he is away from his permanent home with his family in the city where his major league team is based, Hutchinson said.

The subcommittee is trying to determine whether baseball violates anti-trust laws.

One of the points in question is the reserve clause under which a player is tied to the club that owns his contract so long as he plays ball.

Bing Crosby's Son Paces Winning Football Team

SAN JOSE, Calif. — (AP) — Bing Crosby has something new to croon about. . . and Phil Harris may be moaning low. One of Bing's footballing sons, Dennis, scored three touchdowns as Bellarmine defeated St. Mary's high of Berkeley, Calif., 31-13 Saturday night. Dennis, a halfback, scored twice with passes; once after a 45-yard sprint. He also set up another by racing 65 yards to the 15.

Phil Crosby, a guard, helped check the St. Mary's offensive. Why's Harris, the band leader, moaning? Phil Jr., a halfback for St. Mary's, couldn't match Dennis' touchdown parade.

"The Louisville Courier-Journal reports from the 'Bourbon Capital of the World' that EARLY TIMES is the fastest-selling favorite of all straight whiskies sold in Kentucky.

This tells a lot about the smoothness, flavor and heart-warming quality of EARLY TIMES, because Kentucky is the State where the making and enjoyment of fine bourbons has been a time-honored tradition for generations.

Enjoy the greatest straight of all! Ask for EARLY TIMES, the full-bodied bourbon that's "every ounce a man's whisky!"
