

Fight Brews Over Clark's Appointment To Vatican

House said "a few hundred" letters and telegrams had come in, most of them critical.

The National Council of the Churches of Christ in America summoned a special meeting in New York on Oct. 31 to discuss the matter. The 125-member general board of the council was called into special session. Churches represented in the council have some 31,000,000 members.

The St. Louis Baptist ministers conference called the action by Mr. Truman, himself a Baptist, a move "to secure the Roman Catholic vote" and said it will oppose the President if he seeks reelection.

Declares Clark "Upset"

Connally was the first opposition voiced by a senator to Clark personally. Connally said the nomination "is dead" unless a recess appointment is made. White House sources indicated none would be made because of doubt that Clark could serve and retain his military status. He has said he will not give that up.

Connally heads the senate foreign relations committee, which would have to pass on any subsequent nomination. He asserted Clark had "mistreated and discriminated against the Texas 36th division and other Texas troops" in the Rapidio crossing.

"He showed himself unfit to fill any high position, either military or civil," Connally declared. Former Secretary of War Robert Patterson has defended Clark's conduct of the Italian campaign. Clark, a four-star general, now is serving as chief of the army's field forces.

BUBBLE-BATH ACT

Stripper Nabbed Because Her Tub Was Transparent

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. — (AP) —Lili St. Cyr got her picture in the papers Monday, and that was news for two reasons:

1. It didn't cost her anything — yet. (Usually, when you see Lili's picture, it's in a paid advertisement.)

2. This time, she had her clothes on.

Lili is a stripper. She looks almost as good with her clothes on as she does with them off.

But, human nature being what it is, most folks prefer Lili in the raw.

That's what got Lili in trouble. She went highbrow not long ago and began stripping at a plush night club, the patrons of which wouldn't be caught dead in Lili's old Main street haunt.

Lili said she was trying to "elevate her art." The police, after a raid Friday night, said she was "lewdly exposing her person."

Miss St. Cyr (rhymes with sincere) was doing a bubble-bath act, with a transparent bathtub. Vice squadders watched the performance and decided it was no soap. They marched back to Lili's dressing (?) room and handed her a citation.

Lili went to court to be arraigned on an indecency charge. Unlike her professional costumes, the arraignment didn't come off. Her attorney won a continuance, and Lili will have a day in court again next Thursday.

The court set Lili's bail at $250. Lili, with reverse English, covered it.

Third Atomic Blast In Russia Announced

but declined to comment on implications of the test.

Dr. Alvin C. Graves, scientific test chief for the AEC, declared: "It was not a fizzle or a dud." "It was an experiment where we were looking for an answer — and we got it," he added without elaborating.

The test may have been held to determine how small an amount of fissionable material could be exploded effectively.

Other atomic weapons are to be tried in support of troops in the field later in the series.

The test was conducted from a 100-foot steel tower, which was demolished.

U. S. atomic scientists are known to have been working for some time on smaller A-bombs suitable for tactical use against enemy troops on the battlefield, and onlookers speculated that such a bomb may have been tested at Las Vegas.

The detonation came just at sunrise yesterday, and the small flash had little chance of carrying far against the sun's strong rays. Yet observers who did see the tiny blob of light from a mountain 50 miles away were skeptical that they could have seen much more of it in darkness.

LOCAL MEN SIT ON HAIR

An authoritative source today disclosed that many of our local men are able to sit on their hair. In point of fact, indisputable evidence was presented that one man possessed hair on which six (6) people could sit all at once.

The hair, of course, is that high quality material that this city's finest upholsterer, Cal Wolf, owner of Expert Furniture Cleaners & Upholstery, directly behind Richie's Root Beer Drive in, uses in all his custom built work. As this expert himself has often said: "Hair today may be gone tomorrow — then you'll need Mo-hair." The phone please — 3-3191. It's an ad.
