Churchill Warns Britain Of Stern Measures Ahead

LONDON — (AP) — Prime Minister Winston Churchill declared Tuesday his new Conservative government found Britain on the road to "national bankruptcy."

He warned the nation it is entering a period of emergency during which he will be forced to take "exceptional measures." "We are convinced," he told the House of Commons, "that it is necessary to present the facts plainly to the nation in order that everyone might realize where we stand."

In addition to stringent financial action, Churchill said he will ask soon for a secret session of Commons at which he will give full information on the country's defense position.

On finances, Churchill said: "We do not believe that a full and frank statement of our position will aggravate the loss of confidence abroad which has been taking place."

Churchill did not specify just what remedies he has in mind. Debt mounts annually. Churchill said Britain has a deficit crisis worse than 1949's and is running into debt abroad at the rate of nearly $2 billion a year. The pound was devalued in 1949.

He said the deficit crisis was not only worse than 1949 but "in many ways worse than in 1947." He referred to financial help from the United States in those years, saying: "Do not let us forget during the last six years the immense financial help loaned or given us by the U. S. government and our dominions."

Churchill called again, as he has been doing for two years, for an attempt to abate the cold war "by negotiation at the highest level from strength and not from weakness." He said he and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden "still believe in a supreme effort to bridge the gulf between the two worlds."

"Never," thundered Churchill, "must we admit that a third world war is inevitable."

Former Prime Minister Attlee, now leader of the Labor party opposition in the House of Commons, described the King's speech, given previously and setting forth Tory policies, as "one of the thinnest that I have ever seen."

"It exhibits no clear line of policy whatever except negation," Attlee said.

600 WAC: Going To Korea For Behind-Lines Work

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Some 600 WACs are going to Korea to take over behind the lines jobs now held by men.

Assistant Secretary of Defense Anna Rosenberg disclosed the figure.

It was also reported that Admiral Arthur W. Radford, commander of the Pacific fleet, has requested assignment of 3,900 WAVES to navy shore installations in the Pacific.

Local Dietitians Attend Meeting

A group of six dietitians from the Roseburg area, including Mrs. John MacDonald, Mrs. Robert Al-Margaret Joyce, Miss Velma Werth and Mrs. Tom Worth, attended a meeting of the Oregon Dietetic association held in Eugene, Saturday, Nov. 3.

The morning program included a tour of the Sacred Heart hospital and was followed by a dinner meeting in the Erb Memorial Union on the University of Oregon campus. Speakers were Miss Mary Northrup, chief dietitian of the King County hospital, Seattle, who spoke on "kitchen layouts and equipment," and Dr. Robert A. Aldrich, assistant professor of pediatrics, University of Oregon medical school, Portland, who spoke on "newer concepts in inter-relations of nutritional elements." The afternoon session was completed with a tour of the Erb Memorial Union.

The oldest of the U. S. prints was established in Philadelphia in 1792.

Navy Recruiting Office Moved To Courthouse

The local navy recruiting office is being moved to new quarters in the lobby of the Douglas county courthouse and will be open to the public Monday, announced Chief A. L. DeMott, recruiter.

The office has been located in the Pacific building since June and prior to that was located in the armory.

Chief DeMott will share space with the marine recruiter.

Another change by local service personnel will include moving of the office of Chet Jackson, local volunteer air reservist liaison officer, from the armory to the Pacific building, to the office formerly occupied by the navy recruiter. Jackson will share offices with Sgt. Ernest J. Grimm, local army recruiter.
