M. E. Ulschaffer has returned from Lakeview, where he enjoyed a successful hunting trip. Ulschaffer bagged a snow goose and two Canadian honkers.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Medford spent Friday and Saturday attending to business and shopping in Portland.

Pamela Laurance is reported to be improving following confinement to her home because of three-day measles. Pamela had just recovered from red measles when the new epidemic, to which she fell prey, struck. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Laurance of Winston.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Kleist have returned home following a two-weeks vacation spent with relatives in Sacramento and other points in California. They returned via San Francisco.

Ten benches were donated by the American Legion to the Winston Christian church last week. They were transported here by Jay Hooten and R. D. Kleist, members of the congregation. The benches were a welcome donation to the newly organized church as attendance has increased greatly with the coming of the fall season, according to the membership committee.

Mrs. George Bacher is recovering from an attack of flu. She was stricken last week following a severe throat infection.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lewis was completely destroyed by fire on Saturday evening. The fire of undetermined origin occurred about 9:30 o'clock, during the absence of the owners. The Roseburg fire department was summoned but the building was a total loss upon their arrival. "It just seemed to burst into flames," neighbors, who were unable to rescue any of the furnishings except for a washing machine, related.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Kleist celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Nov. 14. Neighbors and friends showered them with cards in honor of the occasion. Some fifty were received in all, making the day most enjoyable, they said.

Confined to her home with a bronchial infection is Mrs. Ted Peterson. Mrs. Peterson's husband is principle of the Tenmile school.

Mrs. Mable P. Taylor has returned here after spending thirty days at points of interest in California. While in Los Angeles, Mrs. Taylor attended the American Mission to Lepers national convention. A feature of the day's program was the address given by Chaplain Rush of Carville. The chaplain relinquished his post to a younger man recently and the dedication ceremony took place during Mrs. Taylor's visit. Other missionaries from all over the world attended the convention, she said.

Recent guests in the M. E. Ulschaffer home were Mr. Ulschaffer's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ulschaffer and their two children, of Portland. The M. E. Ulschaffers are owners of Schaffer's lodge in Winston.

The general public has been invited to attend a series of evangelistic services to be held at the Winston Christian church, beginning Tuesday evening, Nov. 20 and continuing throughout the next two weeks. Fred Evans, student of the Northwest Christian college in Eugene, will be the guest speaker. Services will begin each evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Special meetings for children are being arranged, the exact hour of which will be announced later. These meetings will be planned for a convenient hour after school, according to the planning committee.
