Joyful Bluebirds Meet At Dillard School Tuesday

The joyful Bluebirds met Tuesday afternoon in Mrs. Lewis's room at Dillard school with their leader, Mrs. Gene Lesher. The group has been organized and the following officers elected: Barbara Lesher, president; Patricia McLennan, treasurer; Dona Mae Moore, secretary. They are sponsored by the Dillard Woman's Society of Christian service.

They are working on their fall project, which is building and furnishing a large doll house. The third grade girls are making curtains, crocheting rugs, making the furniture and outfitting the doll house completely. They hope to have it finished by Christmas.

The members present were: Patricia McLennan, Lorraine Fisher, Donna Mae Moore, Sheryl Lawrence, Barbara Lesher, Pamela Laurance, Genie Petty, Faith Armstrong, Susanne McLennan, Davalyn Nichols and the leader, Mrs. Lesher.

The Navy plane NC4 stopped at the Azores on the first trans-Atlantic flight in 1919.

Jolly Bluebirds Meet in Dillard

The Jolly Bluebirds were organized Tuesday afternoon at the home of their leader, Mrs. Frances Collins of Dillard. They elected Sandra Perin, president, and Shirley Manley, vice-president. The Jolly Bluebirds will make and furnish a four room doll house as their project. They have papered the walls and laid the linoleum on the floors.

The CHC Logging company is sponsoring the group. The girls present were Judy Dorrah, Susan Trobough, Katherine Schiermeister, Joan Bertucci, Judy Wade, Judy Hillmick, Peggie Seabald, Perley Collins, Mary Gill, Ruth Ann Glover, Sandra Perin and Shirley Manley. Next week, the group will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of their leader, Mrs. Collins.

The Camp Fire and Bluebird girls have been selling peanut brittle to the community.
