

Clarence Henry Kayos Contender; Illinois, Stanford Favored To Win

Baker Felled By Left Hook In 8th Round

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK — (AP) — Clarence Henry, 24-year-old Los Angeles Negro, is the newest threat in the heavyweight division after his sensational knockout win over Jumbo Bob Baker of Pittsburgh last night at Madison Square Garden.

What next? That's the big problem for Henry who flattened Baker with a stunning left hook in 2:14 of the eighth round.

"I want to keep on going up the ladder," said Henry. "This guy was ahead of me. Now I'm No. 1. I want Rocky Marciano, Ezzie Charles and Joe Walcott."

Instead of one of the "big three," Henry probably will be offered a Garden date with Archie Moore, the perennial "uncrowned light heavy champ."

Slid Through Ropes — It was a fine victory for Henry who weighed only 185 to Baker's 209½. Apparently beaten by the hulking Pittsburgh lad who was undefeated in 26 previous fights, Henry dropped Baker with a devastating left. Sliding through the ropes, Baker landed on his backside with his legs up in the air while Referee Ruby Goldstein counted ten.

The sudden ending came as shock to the small crowd of 3,515 that paid $11.236. The judges had Baker on top 5-2 and 4-3 and Goldstein saw it 3-1. The AP card showed Baker ahead 4-2-1.

"I don't know what it was," said Baker in his dressing room. He sure didn't. When Dr. Vincent Nardello of the state athletic commission, hurried to his side after the knockout, big Bob said, "What the hell hit me?"

Henry was the second boxer to put Baker on the deck and the first to make him stay there. Only bot on his previous record was a 10-round draw with Kid Riviera. It was Henry's 12th straight win and his 29th win and 16th knockout in 32 starts.

Elkton Basketball Quintet Has Wealth Of Experience

The Elkton Elks have turned out for the 1951-52 season with a wealth of experience, but a comparative shortage of height.

Fifteen men greeted Coach Carl Grimsrud as prospective members for this year's campaign, and of those 15, seven were lettermen. Leland Cheever, a six-foot-one senior center has three years of experience and four other returnees are the two-year variety. They are: Carl Hershberger, senior guard; John Beckley, junior center; Dave Scott and Ronnie Henderer, both junior forwards. The two one-year lettermen are junior forward Larry Emel and sophomore guard, Frank Gill. This gives the Elks a full experienced first team with a couple of hoopwise reserves.

The height department is a different story. The tallest man on the squad is Cheever. Only two other men stand above five-feet. They are Russ Brownson and Dave Scott, both of whom are five-eleven.

Lacks Height — Coach Grimsrud states, "Our ball team lacks real height and as a result will lack backboard strength. Also we will need some improvement in our shooting over last year when we suffered lack of consistent scoring ability. We will have experienced players and will have a fair amount of speed."

Grimsrud indicates greater depth than last year with the addition of two prize transfers. Russ Brownson transferred from last year's county championship Oakland squad and John Hink moved in from University high of Eugene. The schedule lists 15 games. At least one more against the Roseburg Jayvees and a home-and-home series with one other school are still being arranged. The Elks open Dec. 4 against an alumni team.

The Schedule:
Dec. 4 — Elks vs. alumni
Dec. 7 — Jamboree at Drain
Dec. 13 — Drain, away
Dec. 14 — Coos River, at home
Dec. 21 — Riddle, at home
Jan. 4 — Coos River, away
Jan. 8 — Roseburg Jayvees, away
Jan. 11 — Yoncalla, away
Jan. 18 — Oakland, away
Jan. 25 — Glide, at home
Jan. 29 — Creswell, away
Feb. 1 — Drain, at home
Feb. 12 — Yoncalla, at home
Feb. 15 — Oakland, at home
Feb. 22 — Glide, away

Fourteen Named As All-Americans

NEW YORK — (AP) — Fourteen names were added today to the all-America squad from which the first and second final offensive and defensive teams will be selected Dec. 7.

In addition, four men nominated again by AP's board of experts, thereby reinforcing their chances of making the all-America.

The second nominations were for: Bill McColl, the great Stanford end who served as a pass decoy last week as Stanford beat Oregon State, 35-14. Previously he had shown his ability as a blocker and pass receiver.

Les Richter, California line-backer, who has been his team's best defensive man in all games except against Southern California when Pat Cannamela of USC outshone him.

Fights Last Night

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK — Clarence Henry, 185, Los Angeles, knocked out Bob Baker, 209½, Pittsburgh, 8.
HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — Hank Thurman, 204, Modesto, Calif., knocked out George Parmentier, 22, Eureka, Calif. 1.

PUEBLO, Colo. — Corky Gonzales, 128½, Denver, outpointed Ex-Roseburg High Cager

Foreburg College Cager
Frank Olson, mainstay center on Roseburg's 1950-51 district final squad, is not turning out for the Oregon State frosh basketball team this year.

He's spending the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Olson at 420 W. Douglas. A freshman at Oregon State college, Olson is majoring in engineering. A conflict between basketball practice times and his engineering classes made it necessary to forego his chances at college ball.

Grapplers Battle To Settle Dispute

When Roseburg wrestling fans leave the armory arena tonight there will be no doubt in their mind about the wrestling ability of the Galloping Ghost.

If he can whip Herb Parks, he will be conceded a position among the top grapplers on the Pacific coast. Even Matchmaker Eiton Owen, angered by the continued success of the arrogant Ghost, says this will be a battle to end a dispute.

The hooded hoodlum has been running over his opponents and has scored five straight wins in the local ring. But it is the consensus of ringbirds that his win streak will be snapped tonight.

Bob DeMarce and Lou Macera, two scientific wrestlers, will open the three-bout show. Owen considers this a top ring battle. Both boys have shown promise and will be out to impress the fans.

In the semi-windup, Bill Parks and Gene Blakely will clash. Blakely hails from Buffalo Gap, Tex., and is noted for his ring generalship. His experience gives him a decided edge over the youngster. But previous ring wars don't seem to bother Bill much. Last week he walloped the old warrior Jack Carter. He is an aggressive battler that displays a combination of speed and stamina.

Games Today Will Clarify Bowl Riddle

NEW YORK — (AP) — The games might not be the biggest of the year today — the last big Saturday of the college football season — but some of the teams will end the season.

Both the Big Ten and Pacific Coast conference races will be decided with Stanford and Illinois expected to come out on top and go into the Rose Bowl on New Year's day.

And in the Ivy league, Princeton probably will wind up champion for the second straight year. The same is true of Oklahoma in the Big Seven, except that this will be the Sooners' fourth straight title.

But the top one pit Illinois against Northwestern in the Big Ten and Stanford against California on the coast. The Illini are topheavy favorites to come through unscathed. If they do, they will tie the title.

Purdue May Go West — But if they lose, and Purdue beat Indiana, the Boilermakers go west. Should Illinois lose and Purdue lose or tie, Wisconsin can start packing its bags if the Badgers come out on top in their game with Minnesota. But the "ifs" are not likely to come through.

Stanford is in a better position. The Indians, even if they lose to California, can do no worse than play for the Crow. Southern California will have to beat UCLA for that to happen. However, Stanford, on the basis of having whipped the Uclans, likely would get the Rose Bowl nod anyhow.

The big battle of the South is in Lexington, Ky. It will send unbeaten Tennessee, already set for the Sugar Bowl, against slow-starting Kentucky, which will play in the Cotton Bowl New Year's day. So the game really means nothing from a "bowl" point of view.

However, the crowd will get a look at two all-America candidates — Tennessee's halfback Hank Lauricella and quarterback Babe Parrilli of Kentucky. Also, if Tennessee wins, the Vols doubtless will hold their No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press football poll.

As for who will meet Kentucky in the Cotton Bowl, the question still is unanswered, but something definite should be forthcoming after today's Southwest conference contests.

Officials Eliminate Spring Practice

PORTLAND — (AP) — The Northwest conference yesterday eliminated spring football practice. The action was taken at the annual fall meeting of faculty representatives from the six conference colleges in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Lestle Parks of Willamette unofficial football workouts will begin Sept. 1 next year. He said the early starting date was set because some of the schools have scheduled non-conference games with teams which probably will continue spring practice.

The conference set its spring track meet for May 17 and the golf and tennis tournaments for May 18. All will be at Whitman college.

The conference also set up rules governing selection of its Pear Bowl representative. In case of a two-way tie, the co-champion will represent the conference. In case of a three-way tie the school will be chosen which appeared in the Pear Bowl the least recently. Elected to head the coaches and managers' groups were Roy Helser and Hal Smith, both of Linfield.

Webfoot Runner Sets New Record

VANCOUVER, B. C. — (AP) — Wayne Reiser, University of Oregon junior, topped a new record yesterday in the Pacific Northwest cross country championships at the University of British Columbia.

Reiser won the 2½ mile junior event with a time of 14:29. That was three-tenths of a second better than the mark set in 1948 by Phil Matson of Victoria. Bill Farnell of Washington State college won the senior event with a time of 20:47.8 for the four-mile course.

KO'D IN SECOND—Harry "Kid" Matthews, light heavyweight contender, of Seattle, Wash., made it sixty-four straight victories and eleven consecutive knockouts, when he stopped Dave Whitlock (above) of San Francisco, in second round of their fight in Portland, Ore. A left to the stomach, a right to the jaw, followed by a right chop put Whitlock in the position shown here. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Shooters Score In Gallery Meet

Targets took a thorough drilling during the Roseburg Rifle club's gallery shoot in the basement of the armory Wednesday night.

High scores were common. Six shooters held their .22 caliber rifles steady enough to tally scores of more than 350 on the 50-foot range. Four hundred is a perfect score.

Leading the riflemen was H. Bailey with a total of 371. He was tied by H. Beauchamp, but three more points in the off-hand shooting gave him the top spot of the evening.

Also tied were D. Paulson and P. Robinson. Paulson scored 37 in the off-hand position and Robinson 86. P. Carpenter, Robinson and H. Garner each garnered perfect scores of 100 in the prone position competition.

Next Wednesday night the club will fire against the Yoncalla rifle team in the first match of the season. Targets will be mailed to an impartial scorer and will be returned in about two weeks with the official scores.

Individual scores for the 15 competitors were: Bailey, 371; Beauchamp, 371; Paulson, 370; Robinson 370; Carpenter, 363; Garner, 357; V. Orr, 344; H. Harrison, 339; S. Carr, 336; Mac Wood, 330; E. Blosser, 328; C. Solomon, 320; R. Parker, 299; O. Munson, 298, and Bob Carter, 280.

Burning Stretch Awaits Drivers

MEXICO CITY — (AP) — A burning 667 miles today faced Pan-American auto race drivers in the final three laps. Cars that can better 100 miles and hour and keep bettering it were favored.

Only 39 stock cars of the original 105 entries have survived the gruelling 1266 miles so far, much of it through tortuous mountain highways.

Topping the list of favorites were the two Italian Ferraris, piloted by Italian aces Piero Taruffi and Alberto Ascari. The pair are in first and third positions. With the mountains behind them, nothing short of a breakdown is expected to stop them.

Most drivers concede that the Italian cars have twenty miles an hour or more in them than the U. S. autos driven by the rest. Barring the unexpected, this is all they need to take the top two places.

Taruffi at Durango had a lead of four minutes, 27 seconds over Troy Ruttman, of Lynwood, Calif., in a Mercury. Ascari trailed Ruttman by six minutes 27 seconds after picking up from 45th place at the first day.

Roseburg Lumber Gains In Classic Competition

Roseburg Lumber gained another point in the classic bowling race Friday night. The lumbermen took all four points from last-place Pepsi Cola, while second-place Wiley's Realty lost one out of four to the Bonebenders. Ted Buettner of Pepsi Cola took the individual game honors with a 203. Dan Hansen of Wiley's was top in the series department with a 565. Wiley's had the top team series—a 2,116.

CLASSIC	W	L	Pct.
Roseburg Lbr. Co.	22	11	68
Wiley's Realty	18	13	58
Bonebenders	15	18	45
Pepsi Cola	11	22	33

Prep Gridders Will Set Stage For Semi-Finals

By The Associated Press
Today's game between Milton-Freewater and Vale will set the stage for the semi-final round of the Oregon state class A football playoff semi-finals.

Both teams are undefeated and untied. Milton-Freewater, rated No. 6 in the Associated Press high school football poll, has the more impressive record, having upset No. 2-ranked Roosevelt of Portland last Saturday.

The other three semi-final spots have been filled.

Astoria, with a perfect 1951 record and rated No. 3, crushed little North Marion, 48-0, last night, gaining a total of 315 yards. Halfback Dick Pavlat's 63-yard touch-down romp continued even after Coach Ray Segale inserted his substitutes in the second period.

At that, Astoria was without its ace quarterback, Jerry Gustafson, who was hurt last week. Grant, defending champion and ranked No. 4, looked nearly as impressive in swamping Toledo,

Controversy Looms Over Televising Grid Contests

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic association's one-year controlled football television program ends today—perhaps forever.

Drastic changes are in prospect following an unofficial opinion from the Department of Justice in Washington that it considered restrictions of telecasts of big time games "illegal."

The latest development in the controversial issue came as a result of a squabble regarding the NCAA's refusal to sanction telecasts of today's big game between Tennessee and Kentucky at Lexington, Ky.

Kentucky Governor Lawrence W. Werber wired Attorney General McGrath requesting permission to telecast the game.

Newell A. Clapp, acting chief of anti-trust division of the Department of Justice, called Gov. Werber's attention to the anti-trust suit filed Oct. 9 against the Professional National Football league for similar broadcasting restrictions.

Hopes For Decision — Clapp hinted that similar action would be taken against collegiate groups if the department wins the Philadelphia suit. Clapp said he hoped a decision would be rendered in that case in the near future.

Victor Kramer, who directs anti-trust litigation, told newsmen that officials from the NCAA and the department met several weeks ago and the department informed the college group that it considered the ban on telecasts "is unlawful." Kramer added that this was not an official ruling but represents the views held by the anti-trust experts.

The dispute arose when TV planned to televise the game between the Sugar Bowl-bound Tennessee, the No. 1 team in the national and Cotton Bowl-headed Kentucky.

The station cancelled its plans last night when Kentucky refused to grant permission following the NCAA's ruling.

Yoncalla Quintet Slates 19 Games

Yoncalla Union high school has completed a hefty basketball slate of 19 games starting Dec. 11.

The Eagles like every other team in the county "B" loop will warm up with a jamboree Dec. 7. After the Jamboree at Drain, home encounter against Canyonville. The first north hall league tilt is scheduled at Glide, Jan. 4. A game Feb. 1 pits the high school squad against the Umpqua Valley AAU Yoncalla team in a polo benefit tilt.

To enhance Yoncalla's position as a basketball town, the Douglas county "B" league tournament is slated for the new high school gym there Feb. 28, 29 and March 1. Principal Leroy Hansen also reports that an effort is being made to secure the district tournament for Yoncalla again, also.

The schedule:

Dec. 7—Jamboree at Drain
Dec. 11—Canyonville, at home
Dec. 14—Sutherlin, at home
Dec. 18—Canyonville, away
Dec. 27—Roseburg Jayvees, away
Jan. 4—Glide, away
Jan. 11—Elkton, at home
Jan. 15—Creswell, away
Jan. 18—Drain, away
Jan. 22—Sutherlin, away
Jan. 25—Oakland, away
Jan. 29—Roseburg Jayvees, at home
Feb. 1—Eagles vs. Town team
Feb. 5—Riddle, away
Feb. 8—Glide, at home
Feb. 12—Elkton, away
Feb. 15—Drain, at home
Feb. 19—Creswell, at home
Feb. 22—Oakland, at home

31-0, and snapping a string of 24 games without a defeat for the Lincoln county school. Grant rolled to three quick touchdowns, then used its second team throughout most of the last three quarters.

Grant and Astoria meet next weekend and the game promises to be the feature of the playoff semi-finals.

Grants Pass, holder of 20 consecutive victories and rated No. 1 in the state, will play the winner of the Milton-Freewater-Vale contest. Grants Pass entered the semi-finals with a 48-14 victory over Coquille Thanksgiving day.

Dates and times of the semi-final games will be set Monday.
