Dr. Dean Bubar Leads Shooters

Marking one of the first shoots in the early season clay pigeon competition at the Roseburg Rod and Gun club Sunday, Dr. Dean Bubar shot a perfect 25 to take the honors of the day.
 But it was Charles Klingler, George Voytella and Stan Cornutt who walked off with the bacon — or in this case — ham. In the merchandise shoot, each won a ham.
 Under cloudy skies and handicapped by wind, eight men shattered at least 22 birds in the day's shoot. Christenson was second high man of the day with a 24. Klingler, Hank Shirliff, Ted Rice and Voytella each posted 23's. H. Carter and Goose Mardin scored 22 each.
 Handicap scores of 23 were made by Shirliff and Rice and Klingler posted a 22.

Junior Rose Bowl Teams Slated For Action Dec. 8

PASADENA, Calif. — (AP) — Two unbeaten eleven, Tyler, Tex., JC and Pasadena City college, will lock horns here Dec. 8 in the sixth annual Junior Rose Bowl game.
 That these teams will supply the hostilities comes as no surprise, but an announcement today from the selection committee makes it official. Tyler is rated number one in the national junior college rankings. Pasadena second.
 Both squads have rolled over 10 opponents this season with Tyler piling up 413 points and yielding 134. Pasadena, scoring 318 points to 64 for its foes, has one game left on its schedule — a breather against East Los Angeles this Friday night. That game, however, will have no bearing on the Bowl situation.
 The Junior Rose Bowl game, which professes to produce the national champion two year college eleven, functions as a sort of warmup for the big one here on New Year's day. Long Beach, Calif., won it last year by a 33-13 win over Boise, Ida.
